

Farmers' Day Picnic at Dallas Slated For August 29

PLAN PROGRAM FOR FARM DAY

Water Sports in City Park, Music and Speakers to Open Event

DALLAS, Aug. 15.—Plans for the fourth annual Farmers' Day picnic sponsored by the Dallas chamber of commerce are well under way for Thursday, August 29. Earle Richardson is general chairman for the event.

A day full of activity has been planned, beginning with water sports at the city park in the morning, horseshoe pitching contest and a program of music, readings and speakers. In charge of the water sports are J. A. Ingalls, Erle Fulgham and Bud Gilbert; horseshoe pitching, Tom Bowman and Allan Dunn. The program will be arranged by a committee of four, two each representing the city and the farmers' union. They are Glen Adams, chairman, Henry Alsp, Alfred Loy and P. O. Powell. Free coffee, cream and sugar will be provided for the basket dinner.

Sports Program
A full program of sports will start on the La Creole field at 1:30 p. m. with W. C. Reuter as chairman, assisted by William Blackley, J. R. Beck, Walter Williams, Claude Larkin and A. G. Remple. A ball game between Amity and Dallas has been scheduled for 3:30 o'clock, with T. B. Hooker in charge. A purse of $25 will go to the winning team. Prizes will be awarded to first and second winners and a grand prize of $10 will go to the community winning the greatest number of points in all events.
In the evening the Dallas firemen will put on a number of demonstrations, the Salt Creek band will give an outdoor concert and the evening will conclude with a street dance which Ivan Warner is chairman.

Freda Hansen Home From 2d Operation as Result of Burn

SILVERTON, Aug. 15.—Bernice Hansen was taken to Portland Wednesday to have her tonsils removed. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hansen, her parents, took her up and at the same time brought another daughter, Freda, home from the Doernbecker hospital.
Freda will return on August 21 to have an operation on her hand. Her hand was burned seriously as a child and two successful operations have been performed on it so far. One more will be necessary to give her further use of her fingers. Norman Jacobsen, of Portland, and Mrs. S. Nelson, the mother of Mrs. Hansen, also accompanied them.

Mrs. Boydston to Sail for France to Spend Winter

DALLAS, Aug. 15.—Mr. and Mrs. William Boydston and two children left by auto Wednesday morning for New York City, where Mrs. Boydston will sail for France. She expects to remain in France for the winter as both of her parents are in poor health. She will be accompanied by her younger son Jack.

Building New Barn
Mildred Egan is expected home from her vacation trip into California and Mexico by Friday night. She writes that the weather has been cool and the San Diego fair a great sight. She is making the trip with Frances Nelson of Silvertown, in the latter's car.

Work has begun on the new barn being built on the farm known as the Will King place. The new building will replace the one destroyed by fire five years ago. The place has been farmed by tenants living near and a barn has not been necessary. The place is in the hands of an insurance company.

SARAH MORRISON IS CALLED TO BEYOND

Final Service for Dallas Prominent Woman is Held Thursday

DALLAS, Aug. 15.—Sarah Eliza Morrison, 79, widow of the late F. H. Morrison, passed away at her home in Dallas Monday night. She was a teacher in the Dallas schools for 30 years, retiring in 1926.

Mrs. Morrison was born in Brookfield, N. Y., May 15, 1856, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren D. York. As a young woman she taught in the schools surrounding Forestville, N. Y. She was married at Dunkirk in 1877 to F. H. Morrison and in 1884 they moved to Eureka, Kansas. In May, 1888, they moved with their family to Salem and three months later settled in Dallas.

She was a member of the D. A. R. and Almira Rebekeh lodge and the M. E. church. She was a charter member of the original chautauqua group of Shautauqua, N. Y.

Mrs. Morrison is survived by one son, Ralph Y., of Dallas; two daughters, Mrs. C. L. Starr and Mrs. A. E. Callahan of Portland and five grandchildren. Another daughter, Mrs. Ruth Good of Oswego, died in January of this year.

Funeral services were held at 10 a. m. Thursday, at the Dallas M. E. church with the Rev. C. P. Gates of Portland, and Rev. John Linn, pastor, officiating. Interment was in the I. O. O. F. cemetery with the Rebekeh lodge in charge of the graveside services.

Decker Gladiolus Garden is Visited by Club at Dayton

DAYTON, Aug. 15.—Twenty-six members attended the regular monthly meeting of the Dayton Garden club held Monday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Londershausen. The subject of the study period was pools and water lilies and other aquatic plants.
The group went to the Decker gladiolus garden in the Springbrook neighborhood where especially choice flowers were displayed during a discussion of

HABERLY ENDS 45TH YEAR OF THRESHING

Hills Group Visits Sunless Gorge and Catches 9 Fish There

WALDO HILLS, Aug. 15.—The Haberly company threshing machine ended a nine days' run in this neighborhood today. Every one expresses surprise and pleasure at the returns. J. W. Goodknecht, the general manager of the outfit, says this closes his 45th harvest year. He has operated this one 22 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Haevernick and two young sons of McMinnville spent Sunday with his parents. During the day Mr. Haevernick, his elder son, Byron; his nephews, Everett and Robert Dickman, and his sister-in-law, Miss Lois Kendall of McMinnville, drove to the Bridge Creek district, hiked down the Little Abiqua to the main stream, went into the gorge where it is said the sun never penetrates, and were fortunate enough to catch nine fish. They found it so cold in the gorge that they had to hurry out in spite of the warm day in the valley. The Haevernicks once lived in that district and he had often fished in the creek.

Funeral services were held at 10 a. m. Thursday, at the Dallas M. E. church with the Rev. C. P. Gates of Portland, and Rev. John Linn, pastor, officiating. Interment was in the I. O. O. F. cemetery with the Rebekeh lodge in charge of the graveside services.

VOLUNTEER FIREMEN ARE NOW ORGANIZED

MOLALLA, Aug. 15.—E. R. Wallace, former Molalla fire chief, was elected chairman of a new organization to be known as the Clackamas Volunteer Firemen's association at a meeting Monday night in Oregon City. The next meeting will be August 26 in Molalla.

The purpose of the organization is to increase the efficiency of the firemen's services by conducting schools and increasing friendliness and cooperation among the departments. Eight members of the Molalla department attended the meeting.

The class of 1925 received the award for having a larger percentage present than any other class represented at the second annual Molalla high school alumni picnic Sunday at Wings' park. The class of 1917 won second place. The first prize was a large box of chocolates. About 300 alumni members and their friends attended the picnic.

A reception and dance was given by Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Higberger Tuesday night at the Catholic hall at Sublimity, honoring their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. William Roberts.

SOFTBALL PLAYERS GUESTS AT BANQUET

Silvertown to Send Caravan to Tournament Here Next Week

SILVERTON, Aug. 15.—The Silvertown all-star softball team composed of players from the eight teams that play in the Silvertown league were guests of the Artisans lodge at a banquet and dance at the K. P. hall Wednesday night. Over 100 attended this gala affair. Earl Bennett was master of ceremonies and introduced R. J. Baldwin, director of softball in Silvertown and manager of the business end of the All-Star team who spoke briefly on the coming state tournament to be held in Salem.

Full details of the state tournament were given and the support of all present was urged. The Artisans will organize a caravan Monday and go to Salem and pull for their team to win. Silvertown drew Eugene for the first game Monday. They will play the third game of the evening.
Other speakers who were introduced and gave short talks were officers from the CCC camp, including Captain Stambough, Lieutenant Taylor, Educational Adviser Frank Hoover, Mr. Robey and Hannan gave a short talk. Marlan Moe, manager of the Artisan team, also gave a short talk. After the banquet, dancing was enjoyed by the guests and members of the lodge. The Silver Streak Serenaders furnished the music.
It is planned to leave Silvertown Monday night at 6:30 and parade the streets of Salem advertising the first night of the tournament.
