

VALUABLE LOOT IS TAKEN BY ROBBERS

Seguin Home at St. Louis is Entered While Folks Attend Church

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 15.—A party of thieves entered the Felix Seguin home Sunday morning while they were attending services at Gervais. They entered by cutting away the screen windows in the back of the house. Among the many articles that were stolen were two guns valued at $65 each, a gold watch, two canary singers with cages, some smaller jewelry and many other valuable articles. Some thieves also stole 25 sacks of grain belonging to Jeff Lebrun, which had been left in the field over night, after they had completed threshing.

The feast of the assumption will be celebrated at the parish church Thursday morning with masses held at the usual period. Rev. Charles Kraus is pastor.

Miss Rose Bittler returned from a three weeks trip to Los Angeles, San Francisco and other parts of California. She motored down with relatives and reports being delayed about two days when they met with an accident near Crescent City, which damaged their car quite badly. None of the occupants were hurt seriously. Miss Bittler reports having a splendid time, and of viewing the Japanese tea gardens at the Golden Gate as well as many other interesting sights. She returned part way by boat.

Threshing is in full swing in this locality. Most of the work is done by Keene brothers. Jim Leith and Lawrence Ferschweiler had their grain threshed Tuesday. Alex Manning and Lebrun had theirs combined by Melvin Forcier. The yield is very good here this year.

Berry Harvest On
All fields of cultivated evergreen blackberries are being picked now for the second time and the fruit is hauled to the Raymond and Libby, McNeil canneries in Woodburn.

Arthur Mongin, who recently accompanied Vanderbeck home from Green Bay, Wis., visited recently with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Rubens and Ethel and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Manning and family and others. Mongin has not been in this state for about 22 years. He resided near here about 40 years ago. Mr. Mongin is a brother of Father Vanderbeck's mother who is very ill at her home in Portland.

VETS OF FOREIGN WARS PICNIC 18TH

SILVERTON, Aug. 15.—Sunday promises to be one of the biggest picnic days ever held on the Silverton park. Every effort has been put forth to bring the best entertainment possible to the park for the public by the committee of Veterans of Foreign Wars, arranging for the affair.

Dinner will be from 12 to 1 o'clock with free coffee to the public. The program will begin at 1:30 with Dwight E. Alderman of Portland, state commander of V. F. W., as the speaker. A band concert will be given by the Silverton 4-L boys under the direction of J. C. Hassenstab. Six acts of vaudeville, including the Bar-X Kids of radio fame, is being arranged. An added attraction will be the famous Oregon Red Devils from Portland, who will give a demonstration of life saving, swimming and novelty acts, led by Capt. J. E. Morrow. Water sports for boys and girls and fancy diving will be awarded with prizes. Races both on land and in water, a duck race are among the features of the day.

The Cherry City Baking company of Salem will have its broad-casting equipment on the grounds all day. Silverton All Stars and Garvarino team of Portland will play softball.

MRS. ELI ROWLEY PASSES AT DAYTON

DAYTON, Aug. 15.—Mrs. Eli Rowley, 89, a Civil war veteran's widow and a resident of Dayton since 1891, died at her home in Dayton August 13. She was born February 18, 1846, in Iowa and was united in marriage July 15, 1865. Four children were born, one died in infancy and Mrs. John Burch died three years ago. Mr. Rowley died in June, 1931.

One son, John Rowley of Dayton, and one daughter, Mrs. William Helvia of Los Angeles, Cal., survive her.

She was a member of the Free Methodist church more than 50 years. Funeral services are in charge of Macy of McMinnville, and are pending word from her daughter.

Women Giving in to Softball Lure; Organizing Teams

MOLALLA, Aug. 15.—The previously undefeated Marketeers went down before the Chevs in a hard game Monday at the beginning of the third week of the soft ball competition for Molalla's four team league. The score was 7 to 8 in the Chevs' favor. Second place in the league is held by the Rollators, who have lost only to the Marketeers.

Softball has excited so much interest among the men that the women have decided to take it up. The women's teams are being organized, with Mrs. J. V. Robertson captain of one and Mrs. Fenton Harless captain of the other. The first game was Monday evening, with Mrs. Harless' team winning. There will be another game next Monday evening.

Study of Psalms Feature of Meet of Service Club

AMITY, Aug. 15.—The Social Service club of the Amity Methodist church met Wednesday afternoon in the church with the president, Mrs. Nettie Tovey, presiding.
