Former Dakotan Buys Grocery; Prizes Announced

JEFFERSON, Aug. 19.—C. W. Jenner, late of North Dakota, has purchased the Reed Red & White grocery store in Lebanon, Mr. and Mrs. Jenner and children will move to Lebanon as soon as a house is available.

Ruby Hooker, who has been a patient at the Albany General hospital for over two months because of a fractured leg received when hit by a motorcycle near her home on South Main street, is improved. She was permitted to come home Sunday and will only have to make occasional visits to the hospital to have the cast changed.

Mrs. Tessie Robinson was winner of the merchandise grand prize given by the Better Business Men's club of Jefferson Saturday afternoon. Thirty-two smaller prizes were also distributed. The pop drinking contest for children under 12 years old caused much merriment. On each bottle was a nipple and each contestant had to empty the bottle through the nipple. Harold Lent was winner of first prize, Clifford Harris second and Stanley Francis Miller third. Next Saturday afternoon a boys' and girls' bicycle race will be a special feature. Linden Curli's public address system furnished free entertainment during the afternoon.

The free outdoor talking picture will be held as usual Friday night on the lot adjoining the blacksmith shop on Main street.

While splitting stove wood for his mother, Mrs. John Henderson, Carl cut his hand quite badly with the axe. Several stitches had to be taken to close the wound.

A camp meeting under the auspices of the Church of God is being held at Santiam campgrounds just across the bridge from town. Evangelist Andrew N. Dugger of St. Joseph, Mo., is the principal speaker. The meetings begin at 7:30 o'clock every evening, continuing until August 25.

County Agent Will Meet Turkey Growers

NORTH HOWELL, Aug. 19.—Harry L. Riches, county agent, and a group of turkey growers will meet at the North Howell grange hall Tuesday noon for their luncheon hour.

Turkey farms in the Hazel Green district will be visited as well as those of Maurice Hynes, Joe Weolke and others in this district.

Professor Cosby of the state college and J. C. Leedy of Portland will be speakers and all interested in the raising of turkeys are invited.

Two orchestras, readings, dancing and other popular numbers are among the attractions offered on the social night program to be given at the North Howell grange hall next Friday night, August 23, by Mrs. M. A. Duff and Mrs. Frank Kurrie in charge.

STATE COMMANDER SPEAKS TO VETS

TEACHER MARRIES, RESIGNS

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Aug. 19.—Miss Georgiana Briggs who for four years has been principal of the Mountain View school, has notified the school board of her marriage July 15 at her home at Hermiston, to E. N. Berry who is proprietor of a confectionery store in the neighboring town of West-OR.

Mrs. Berry will not return here next term but her sister, Eleanor will again teach the lower grades. A new principal has not yet been chosen to fill the unexpected vacancy.

SANTIAM DISTRICT HAS KILLING FROST

LYONS, Aug. 19.—The frost in this locality Thursday night did quite a lot of damage to cucumbers, squash and tomato vines. Corn and potatoes were also nipped in some places but not seriously injured. This is the earliest frost here for several seasons.

MEHAMA, Aug. 19.—Gardens in this vicinity were visited by a damaging frost Wednesday and Thursday nights. However, the frost hit in patches so everyone did not share the hard luck. Beans, cucumbers, squash and corn were ruined in some gardens.

Tons of Small Fish Stranded on Beach

PARKERSVILLE, Aug. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles LaFontaine and children and Mr. and Mrs. R. Harrison and children spent several days at Bay Ocean the past week. At Bay Ocean they saw where several tons of small fish the size of smelt stranded in the bay when the tide went out. One could wade in and pick live fish up by the basketful. Residents of Bay Ocean say that is the first time the fish were ever stranded there and left to die.

Miss Irene Ireland and Roy Ingle were married at Vancouver, Wash., July 24th. They plan to leave soon for Marshfield to make their home.

A farewell party was given Tom Ireland recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Manning and about 55 guests were present. Games and dancing occupied the evening. Tom Ireland is the 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Ireland and has enlisted for the navy to be stationed at San Diego, Calif.

HOPS NEED RAIN

LYONS, Aug. 19.—Hops in the John Jungwirth yard are not growing as they should for lack of moisture. Mr. Jungwirth has a quite decided if he will have the crop harvested or not. The price of hops at present will scarcely cover expenses for picking.

Pick Business Men to Pick Bathing Beauties For Hop City Festival

INDEPENDENCE, Aug. 19.—A bathing beauty contest with entries divided into three classes, blondes, brunettes, and redheads, and the winners in each division competing for the grand prize, will be one of the features of the Hop Fiesta, to be held in this city August 29, 30 and 31.

Any girl or woman is eligible to enter the contest. A beautiful silver loving cup will be presented to the winner, and other prizes will be given the runner-up. Dr. Maurice J. Butler, prominent local dentist and member of the Hop Fiesta organization, will be chairman of the judges' committee, which will include the leading business men of the community.

Arrangements are being rapidly completed for the big "Hop City" festival, which will be replete with a varied program of entertainment. A rodeo, air circus, hop carnival, athletic contests, wrestling matches, fireworks, parade, Junior Hop Fiesta, and many other interesting events will be presented each of the three days of the show.

The contest being staged to elect a Fiesta queen and her princesses is creating much interest. Eighteen young ladies are competing for places in the royal court. Joan Dickson, sponsored by the Hostess company, led the race on Friday. She was being closely followed by Marlet Cooper of the K. of P. Lodge, and by Jane Ottinger, representative of the Rural Women's club. The winner will receive an expense-free trip to the San Diego exposition.
