Pretty Wedding is Solemnized Sunday

MONMOUTH.—A lovely bride of Sunday was Miss June Craven, who was married to Robert Beach of Longview, Wash., at 11:30 a. m. in a ceremony at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alva H. Craven, Rev. Rodney M. Britten of the Monmouth Baptist church read the service before a group of 50 relatives and close friends.

Preceding the ceremony, Ronald Craven of Salem, cousin of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly." He was accompanied by Miss Mildred McKnight of Monmouth, who also played the wedding music. As the first strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march sounded, Miss Martha Mae Blair and Miss Olga Sacre lighted tall tapers on the improvised altar which was banked with hydrangeas, sweet peas and jasmine. Little David Craven of Salem and Anne Britten, Monmouth, outlined an aisle of white satin ribbon streamers through which the bride and her bridesmaid, descending the curved stairway, passed to the altar.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white net over white satin and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas, pink rosebuds and lilacs of the valley. Her only attendant, Miss Annetta Schweizer, wore pink organdy and a corsage of sweet peas in pastel shades. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Ralph Beach of Independence, brother of the groom, was best man.

A reception followed. Mrs. Philip M. Schweizer and Mrs. Paul Riley were in charge of the dining room, Mrs. R. E. Derby cut the cakes, Mrs. C. E. Blair presided at the urns, and Miss Birdine Derby at the punch bowl. Assisting about the rooms were the Misses Martha Mae Blair, Olga Sacre, Miss Meryl Miller, Miss Vernie Miller and Mrs. Elmer Beach, Jr. During the reception, Ronald Craven sang "Be-caspe."

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Craven of Dallas, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Albert, Mrs. Thomas Vran, Miss Meryl Miller, Miss Vernie Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Craven and children, all of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Beach, Jr., of Longview, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Blair, Martha Mae and Bobby Blair, Mr. and Mrs. Philip M. Schweizer, Miss Annetta Schweizer, Ella Schweizer, Mrs. B. E. Derby, Miss Birdine Derby, Mrs. Paul Riley, Donald Smith, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Swenson, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Gentle, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Parker, Rev. and Mrs. Rodney M. Britten and Anne Elliott, Miss Mildred McKnight, Miss Olga Sacre, Mrs. Rachel Miller and Miss Cora Smith, all of Monmouth, Dr. and Mrs. M. J. Butler, Marlow Butler, Mr. and Mrs. Willard E. Craven and Ralph Beach, all of Independence.

Mrs. Beach is a graduate of Monmouth high school and attended Oregon Normal school last year. She was popular in the young musical group of Monmouth. Beach is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Beach, sr., of Bend. He is a graduate of Longview high school, attended Ontario Military academy, Los Angeles, and Washington State college, and is a member of Theta Xi fraternity. They will be at home after August 25 in Longview, where he is employed in the shipping department of the Long-Bell Lumber company.

Miss Gertrude Eakin and Miss Alice Judd, formerly of Salem, but now making their homes in Lawrence, Kansas, who have been the house guests for the past month at the home of Miss Eakin's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Eakin, are planning to leave Salem Thursday for the middle west where they will resume their teaching duties for the coming year. During their stay in Salem a number of informal affairs have been arranged for their pleasure, including several scenic drives to nearby points of interest. Tuesday was spent at Tat where they were the guests of friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Hubenthal of Couer d'Alene, Idaho, and Mr. and Mrs. George Trothof of Spokane, Washington, home guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Kertson of this city, left yesterday for their respective homes. Mr. and Mrs. Hubenthal were accompanied to the Idaho city by Miss Beatrice Kertson, whom she will spend her vacation period.

Visiting at the Hugh Latham home in Silverton are Mr. and Mrs. Foster Cone and son, Latham, of Medford. The Cones are former Salem residents and will also spend some time at the Charles Cone residence in South Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Geer returned to Salem Monday evening from Agate beach where they have been visiting for the past fortnight.

Informal Party Honors Guests

Honoring their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. McKee Fisk of Santa Ana, Cal., Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Thomas entertained at the Thomas home Monday with an informal evening of bridge followed by a late supper.

Flowers in pastel tints were combined attractively about the living rooms where cards were in play.

Those chosen to greet the visitors were Mr. and Mrs. George R. Rhoten, Mr. and Mrs. George R. Moorehead, Mrs. Dorothy Ryan and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Swan of Newberg. Miss Opal Solwert, Howard Lampkin, Merle DeLapp, Bert Childs and the hostess, Miss Elizabeth Lewis. Mrs. W. L. Lewis will assist the hostess in serving.

Honoring Miss Willa Roethlin, whose marriage to Lee Ohmart will be an event of September, Mrs. William Lewis entertained Friday evening with an informal bridge party. Attractive bouquets of garden flowers were arranged throughout the rooms where the guests enjoyed several hours of cards which were in play. Since the announcement of her engagement, Miss Roethlin has been the recipient of numerous pre-nuptial affairs, both in Salem and Portland.

Those bidden for the evening were the honor guest, Miss Willa Roethlin, Miss Velleda Ohmart, Miss Alice Welsh, Miss Elsie Woods, Miss Mildred Allison, Miss Doris Van Pelt, Miss Lillian Roethlin, Mrs. Agnes Irwin, Mrs. Jack Bowden and the hostess, Mrs. William Lewis.

A group of young people gathered at Riverview Sunday evening for a no-host Sukiyaki picnic and play.
