

RICKY COMMUNITY HAS HOMECOMING

Third Affair of Kind Draws Big Company to Hager's Grove

RICKY, Aug. 20.—Between 150 and 200 were guests of the A. A. and George Hager families Sunday at Hager's grove at the third annual Ricky homecoming and community club picnic with the 4-M club members as special guests of the community club. The long picnic table was covered with gladol and by request Stella Sherman Culver gave a reading in memory of the Culver-Glover families, early pioneers.

The highlight of the afternoon was the ball game between Macleay and present and former Ricky residents with a score of 19 to 17 in favor of Macleay.

Prizes Given for Contests

Various contests were held and prizes awarded. Interesting facts concerning these present were:

Mrs. Melvina Amstutz Doerfler and Mrs. Rosina Amstutz lived away from Ricky the longest; Mrs. Doerfler and Mrs. M. M. Magee, club president, were the only girls in the primary class when they went to school to Lovina Culver Mauner; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Homer Condon lived at the farthest distance and B. B. Gesner, 85, was the oldest man present. He has lived the greatest number of years at Ricky; Evelyn Kite, five-months-old, was the youngest person present, and Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Talbot (Veneta LaBranch) was the most recently married couple present.

Many Attend from Distance

Former residents present were: Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lehman, Mollala; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Beard, Miss Mary Tittington, Raymond Beard, Salem; Nile Hilborn, Macleay; Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Savage, Salem; B. B. Gesner, Auburn; Allene Beard, Salem; Estella Standifere Kite, Mrs. M. H. Standifere, Mrs. Stella Culver, Mrs. Rosina Amstutz, Mrs. Melvina Amstutz Doerfler, Silverton; Alma Ashby Knower, Oak Grove; Mrs. Bessie Gesner Updegraff, Salem; Charles H. Homer Condon, Mrs. Mary Beaver, Roland Beaver, of Kingwood; Elsie King Kastan, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. A. W. King, Auburn; Mrs. Floyd White, Salem; Mrs. Frank Gosner, Rose Lodge; Miss Josephine Munkers, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Ashby, Salem; Ruth White Johnson, Central Howell; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ashby, Rickreall; Margaret Fitzpatrick Pietrok, Stayton; Sarah Gesner Gerome, Portland; Hattie Rundlett, Jessie Gesner Boedigher, Aumsville; Mable Beaver Robinson, Salem.

Seek Queenship

Three of the 17 young women who are candidates for queen of the Independence Hop Fiesta, which is scheduled August 29, 30 and 31. Top, Kathryn Cochran, sponsored by the Frank Ellis club; middle, Frances Haley, sponsored by the Townsend club; below, Katherine Karman, sponsored by the Mountain States Power company. — All photos Jestin-Miller Studio.

his aunt, Mrs. Walter L. Spaulding, in Salem. Shortly after his return he was thrown from a two-year-old colt when attempting to ride it the first time without bridle or saddle. Fortunately he sustained no more serious injuries than a skinned arm and body bruises as the result of his experience.

JUNK YARD BURNS; 2 ENGINES CALLED

Wall to Replace System of Folding Doors in School Rooms at W. Salem

WEST SALEM, Aug. 20.—A fire today destroyed the old junk yard on Second street. It was necessary to have two engines to keep the fire from spreading to nearby houses and wood yard. A wall is being built to replace the folding doors between the fifth and sixth grade rooms in the old school building. All of the rooms are to be kalsomined before the beginning of school.

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Lemon and daughter Lauretta Mae, and Mrs. W. O. Boyer, and her mother Mrs. Gilliam motored to Dallas Sunday to attend a reunion of the Gilliam clan.

Mrs. Laura Moss from Gladstone is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Lloyd M. Hill for two weeks. Mrs. D. E. Decker and her daughter Jean, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Hill, and Vernetta Bikel spent the weekend at Cutler City.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Foelkl and children have moved to Salem, and Mrs. Foelkl's brother and wife will occupy the house. Miss Trula Grant, 6th grade teacher in the West Salem school, has moved to Salem and will live with her father.

Mr. and Mrs. John Russel and baby from Anity are visiting her mother, Mrs. Richardson. Mrs. D. E. Decker is going to start a kindergarten and junior class in music next month.

Englishman is Guest of Niece at Cloverdale

CLOVERDALE, Aug. 20.—An interesting visitor at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Booth the past week was an uncle of Mrs. Booth, Kenneth MacClennan, of London, England. Mr. MacClennan is secretary of the International Missionary society for the British government and is sent to the Atlantic coast every two years but as he took his vacation at this time he extended his trip west.

He first visited his sister, Mrs. B. E. Wadsworth, mother of Mrs. Booth, and a brother, Alex MacClennan, of Spokane, Wash., and was accompanied here by them. He will sail for England from New York City September 3. Another visitor at the Booth home was Miss Betty Hay of Portland, who is prominent in musical circles in that city. After Miss Hay's graduation from high school next year she will spend a year abroad.

Mrs. V. Lee and Joe Arnett arrived Thursday from Ventura, Calif., to attend the funeral of Mr. Arnett's mother, Mrs. Mary Arnett, who passed away Wednesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. Hafer, near Albany, Mrs. Joe Arnett had been at the Hafer home for several weeks. Mrs. Lee and Mrs. Arnett, daughters of William Anderson, and Mr. Arnett, spent some time at the Anderson home before leaving for Ventura Monday evening.

Aurora Young Man Teaches in Alaska

AURORA, Aug. 20.—Roland Wurster will return to Sitka, Alaska, August 26 after spending three weeks here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Wurster. He found the trip down very enjoyable as having sailed on an American vessel, the contacts with other passengers were much more cordial than those on Canadian boats upon which he had previously sailed. Europe and many eastern states were represented on the passenger list.

Mr. Wurster, who has spent much time in Alaska, will teach his second year in the Sheldon Jackson school, a boarding school for natives and conducted by the Presbyterian church, beginning with the seventh grade and continuing through high school subjects. Pupils work for their board by attending school a half a day and working the other half.

Eastern Visitors Leave for Homes

INDEPENDENCE, Aug. 20.—Mr. and Mrs. William R. Baker, who have been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Baker in Independence, and Dr. and Mrs. Henry Walter Nugent, Ph. D. of Chicago, who have been at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Robinson for several weeks left for the east Thursday morning.

William Baker is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Baker. He is a swimming instructor in Columbia high school in East Orange, New Jersey. They state they like working in the east, but find living expenses much higher there than in the west.

Dr. Nugent, who is the pastor of the Austin Presbyterian church in Chicago, says there is no place like Oregon and that he is coming back to his home state to retire in a few years.

Release 110 China Birds At Storey's

INDEPENDENCE, Aug. 20.—The Independence Rod and Gun club members released 110 China roosters last week from their holding on the John Storey place south of town, where they had been brooding. The birds were given their freedom in different locations, some on the Gall Anderson farm, some on the Sam Hoover farm, some on the Henry Dickinson farm and some on the Storey place.

The Corvallis state game commission hatchery will replace 110 younger birds, making a total of 200 in the pens. All of the birds will be released after this year's season is over.

Out of the 200 birds brought to the Independence club, only three birds were lost, a remarkable record. The members are proud of their holding as the state game commission has rated it the best in the country.

There are 100 members in the Independence club, and a drive is soon to be made for more members.

This year the club placed 125,000 trout in the Big Luckiamute river.

The president of the club is William C. Wood; vice president, Henry Easton; and secretary, Arthur Black.

Critic Teacher Goes for Advanced Study

INDEPENDENCE, Aug. 20.—Miss Mary Donaldson, who has been the sixth grade critic at the Independence Training school for several years, will study for her master's degree this winter at University of Southern California. Her place at the training school has been filled by Miss Blanche M. Duguid, who has been teaching the past year at Madison, New Jersey in the same kind of work. Miss Duguid has a master's degree from Columbia university.

Mrs. Ruth H. Reed, who has been second grade critic this year, has resigned this position to accept a place as critic in San Bernardino, Calif.

SEE IRRIGATION AT HOFFMAN FARM

INDEPENDENCE, Aug. 20.—Thirty-five farmers and business men attended the irrigation demonstration meeting Saturday morning held on the dairy farm of W. T. Hoffman; which is northwest of Independence. Mr. Hoffman has 24 acres of land now under irrigation. He uses two 3-inch centrifugal pumps that operate by electric motors, taking the water from Ash creek and distributing it in flumes over the field. This land now he uses for pasture for 50 purebred and grade Jersey cows. The field has been under irrigation for the past three years. This pasture is used seven months of each year, starting in April this year.

Arthur King, extension soil specialist from Oregon State college, had charge of the demonstration and was assisted by J. R. Beck, county agent. Inspection of the irrigation system and the growth of the clover was most interesting to those attending.

Several of the local farms are holding irrigation inspection tours to see what the neighbors are doing, so when the sixth annual Willamette valley state tour starts August 21 and 22, this will help to draw growers and business men to see a more complete picture of the irrigation development.

Grange Meeting Draws Visitors

ROBERTS, Aug. 20.—The fourth meeting of the Roberts grange met Saturday night with a number of visitors from other granges. County Deputy Mr. W. A. Jones and Mrs. Jones of Macleay grange, Pomona grange, Juvenile Matron Mrs. Julius Krenz, and Mr. Krenz, of Union Hill grange, Mrs. Willis, Ulas, and Miss Pearl Scott, Red Hills grange and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Pruitt, Pleasant Valley grange in Tillamook county.

New members taking the obligation were Miss Dorothy Rice, Miss Maxine Pettyjohn, Miss Lois Cummings, Miss Evangeline Johns and Paul Johnston.

Old Timers' Meet Draws Good Crowd

RICKREALL, Aug. 20.—Mr. and Mrs. O. Ourland of Dallas, Mrs. H. A. Dempsey, Mrs. Jennie Dempsey and Mrs. A. G. Adams, attended the "old timers" meeting in Falls City Sunday, August 18, where approximately 200 persons spent the day in recalling the past.

The oldest pioneer present was J. W. Lee. Other pioneer families represented were Hart, Starr, Dodd, Hubbard, Stoddard, Moyer, Frink, Teal. The program was provided over by C. L. Starr of Portland in behalf of M. L. Thompson.

A resume of the earliest history, written by the third and fourth year English classes, was read by Mrs. J. B. Huteh. This will be added to year by year. Fred Holman was elected president for 1936 and Ralph Ford of Eugene re-elected secretary.

Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Jack Straus had an interesting picture gallery of the early 90's.

Townsend Picnic at Martin's Grove

LYONS, Aug. 20.—A Townsend club picnic is scheduled for September 8 at Martin's grove, 14 miles east of Lyons, on the Salem-Mill City highway. Several good speakers will be listed on the day's program; a picnic dinner at noon. The local club extends a cordial welcome and invitation to the Stayton-Solo-Mill City and club members and friends who wish to attend.

CANNERY STARTS FIRE

WOODBURN, Aug. 20.—The Woodburn fire department was called out Saturday afternoon to extinguish a fire caused by sparks flying from the county cannery which was operating in Woodburn at that time. A telephone pole caught fire and endangered the nearby blacksmith shop belonging to Paul Sova and the feed barn, which adjoining serious damage might have resulted had the fire not been quickly extinguished.

MRS. ZIELKE IS MADE CLUB HEAD

ROBERTS, Aug. 20.—The Home Economics club met at the home of Mrs. Roy F. Rice and finished organizing with sixteen ladies present. Officers appointed were: President, Mrs. Leonard Zielke; vice-president, Mrs. L. Clymer; secretary, Mrs. Jesse Johns; treasurer, Mrs. Clifford Thomas; chairman of program committee, Mrs. Paul Sims. Mrs. Albert Blankenship will entertain September 18 at her home.

The G. T. women held their last picnic of the summer at Riverdale park. Mrs. Alice Coolidge will open her home to the women October 10, which will be the first meeting in the fall. A special guest was Mrs. Spurrer of Los Angeles, sister of Mrs. Alice Coolidge, who with her husband has been on an extended tour for the past three months. They will leave soon for their home in the south.

Truck Equipped for District Tour

LYONS, Aug. 20.—The May family got started Saturday noon on their trip east. They plan to be on the road about three weeks. They have their truck equipped with convenient living quarters. The Linn county portable cannery is slated to be here for operation Wednesday, August 21. Anyone on relief who has canvassing to do may have the cannery do it for them.

Magee Bruises Leg in Cutting Poles; Bible Class Meets

SCOTT'S MILLS, Aug. 20.—Hugh Magee met with another accident Sunday. As he and his son, Dale, were cutting poles a limb fell hitting him on the calf of the leg bruising it quite badly. No bones were broken but it is necessary for him to go about on crutches.

The "Kum Join Us" class of the Christian Bible school met Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Winnie Sova. Games and music were enjoyed, after which ice cream and cake was served. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rich and daughter Mildred, accompanied by Mrs. Sophia Robertson of Salem, returned home Saturday from a week spent at Crater Lake. Mrs. John Nelson and daughter, Lilly, left last week for a three-weeks' visit with relatives in South Dakota.

Guests From Salem in Lyons Home

LYONS, Aug. 20.—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Klempel and two daughters, and Gene Baumgartner, all of near Salem, were Sunday dinner guests with the G. Paul Johnston family. The occasion was Mr. Johnston's and little Betty Jean Klempel's birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Johnston had a Sunday guests, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boyer and three children, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boyer, and baby Joe Ann, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Bowers and two children, Mrs. Bertha Woodworth and E. Thompson, all of Salem.

Anderson Buried at Hubbard Cemetery

WOODBURN, Aug. 20.—Funeral services for Hjalmar Ole Anderson, 60, who was found dead in his bed at his home north of town Monday, were held at the Beecher-Killian chapel Saturday afternoon, with Rev. Conroy D. Silsby of the Church of Christ, officiating. Interment was in Hubbard cemetery. Anderson is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Ed Gratten, of Butte, Mont., who came here to arrange the funeral.

THROWN FROM HORSE

HUBBARD, Aug. 20.—Wallace Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Waldo Brown, returned home recently from a week spent at the home of

POLLY AND HER PALS

MICKEY MOUSE

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

TOOTS AND CASPER

The Question Carries Weight

Rock A Bye Bye, Babies!

"If at First You Don't Succeed—"

A One-Man Party

By CLIFF STERRETT

By WALT DISNEY

By JIMMY MURPHY

By BRANDON WALSH

By SEGAR

THIMBLE THEATRE—Starring Popeye

Now Showing—"Bringing Home the Bacon"

By SEGAR

By SEGAR

By SEGAR

By CLIFF STERRETT

By WALT DISNEY

By JIMMY MURPHY

By BRANDON WALSH

By SEGAR

Cross Word Puzzle

1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11
12				13					14
15				16					17
18			19			20			21
22		23				24		25
26						27
		28				29
30	31	32				33			34	35	36
37						38
39				40		41				42
43			44			45				46
47						48				49
50						51				52

- By EUGENE SHEFFER
- HORIZONTAL
- 1—agreement
  - 5—gentle
  - 8—blow
  - 9—Moham-
  - 10—medan
  - 11—noble
  - 12—century
  - 13—plant
  - 14—female
  - 15—sheep
  - 16—run swiftly
  - 17—eccentric
  - 18—rotating
  - 19—piece
  - 20—mountain
  - 21—child
  - 22—order
  - 23—chief
  - 24—ejected
  - 25—refrain in
  - 26—music
  - 27—erases
  - 28—change
  - 29—accuse-
  - 30—plished
  - 31—for
  - 32—restrain
  - 33—light shoes
  - 34—eat info
  - 35—torch
- VERTICAL
- 1—glued
  - 2—recess in
  - 3—fabric for
  - 4—mattresses
  - 5—spread hay
  - 6—ordained
  - 7—gives
  - 8—church
  - 9—chancel
  - 10—fuss
  - 11—talisman
  - 12—interior
  - 13—elementary
  - 14—book
  - 15—dressed
  - 16—longed for
  - 17—yielded
  - 18—trudges in
  - 19—marches in
  - 20—review
  - 21—infer
  - 22—rubber
  - 23—soars
  - 24—divisions of
  - 25—dramas
  - 26—seek to
  - 27—attain
  - 28—lets
  - 29—thorough-
  - 30—fare
  - 31—frog
  - 32—look
  - 33—many times
  - 34—(poetic)
- Herewith is the solution to yesterday's puzzle.
- ARAB SELF DOT
ROPE LODER RUE
MUSSOLINI ERN
STEIER SITES
SIC TIENONTSIAR
SECTING GULLY
CROTON GRIEVE
ASPLIN QUE RAS
REEL TAMED
LAGOS CRANE
EVANTRATED
BENT MALLE COVE
BAD SLED OPEN