Miss Jane Harbison is Incentive For Much Entertaining

MISS JANE HARBISON, popular bride-elect of Harvey Thomas of Portland, whose marriage will be an event of September 8 at 2 p. m., in the fireplace room of the Presbyterian church, was the inspiration for a cleverly arranged miscellaneous shower Friday evening, when Mrs. Loring Grier and Miss Jewel Fitzpatrick entertained jointly in the Grier home on Market street. The "gingham" idea was uniquely carried out in the decorative and table appointments. Several hours of bridge followed by the serving of a late supper climaxed the evening's diversion. Those chosen to honor Miss Harbison were Mrs. John Harbison, Mrs. Fred Wolf, Mrs. Glen Dolan, Mrs. Elvin Thomas, Mrs. Erial Owens, Mrs. Lester Hettick, Mrs. Glen Wilbur, Mrs. Lowell Grubbe, Mrs. E. Elbert White, Mrs. Donald Deckerback, Miss Ruth Johnson, Miss Georgia Nash, Miss Roberta Varley, Miss Dorothy Krebs, Miss Constance Krebs, Miss Merle Thatcher, Miss Joyce Anderson, Miss Dorothy Blaindel, Miss Phyllis Hauge.

Gatke Garden Scene of Parties

THE beautiful gardens adjoining the home of Professor and Mrs. Robert Moulton Gatke have been the scene the past few weeks of numerous formal and informal social functions. Opening of the week's festivities Tuesday afternoon when the junior high school department of the Methodist church entertained with an informal swim and picnic supper with Miss Amy Martin in charge of arrangements. Wednesday about 40 members and guests of the Willamette university faculty met for a club dinner and informal evening which was in the form of a pretty garden fete. On Thursday Mrs. Gatke was again hostess to a group of Salem matrons who called to bid au revoir to Benjamen and Mrs. Edward J. Warren, who has been spending the summer at the Gatke home and who will leave soon for her home in Santa Cruz, Cal. A group of intimate friends of the honor guest called during the tea hours.

Mr. and Mrs. Endicott Popular Visitors In Capital City

COMPLIMENTING Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Endicott and children Shirley and Teddy, of Seattle, Wash., former Salem residents, who have been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Campbell on Court street, a round of gay social affairs were arranged for the pleasure of the out-of-town guests. Mrs. Campbell entertained early in the week in her Court street home with a smart bridge luncheon, bidding a group of intimate friends of the honor guest. Several informal dinners feted the Endicotts prior to their departure later in the week for Marshfield, who, in company with Mr. and Mrs. Campbell spent last weekend with the William Gossers and family, returned to Salem the following Monday. Last evening the Endicotts were guests of honor at a large, no-host picnic given at Paradise Island. Sunday morning the Campbells will accompany the Endicotts to Seattle where they will be guests at the Endicott home, a few days later, motoring to Vancouver and Victoria, B. C., for a brief stay. Mr. and Mrs. Endicott were widely known in Salem, having made this their home for a number of years previous to their transfer to Seattle, nearly a year ago.

In the Valley Social Realm

THE PRESBYTERIAN Missionary and Ladies' Aid society met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. V. O. Boozer and Mrs. J. V. McDouso as hostesses at the home of the latter. Mrs. J. C. Adams led the devotional service and Mrs. John S. Harper and Mrs. R. S. Marshall conducted the topic, giving parts of a speech made at the Biennial held at Asheville, Tenn., in May. Plans were made and the date set for September 11 for a farewell party for Mr. and Mrs. Harper, who are moving to Salem. The party is to be held at the church. A short program will be given and refreshments served. The hostesses served during the social hour. There were 19 members, nine visitors and five children present. The visitors were Mrs. Mary Walter of Kingsfisher, Okla., mother of Mrs. G. T. Wadsworth; Mrs. F. A. Gallegly and her sister, Mrs. W. J. Dalton of Longview, Wash.; Mrs. Howard Long, Mrs. John Lutz, Mrs. H. R. Haines, Mrs. C. E. Ellsworth and the Misses Betty Beck and Ruth Ferguson, who assisted the hostesses. Mrs. Gallegly was received as a member of the society.

Judges Named To Head Art Division

WITH the opening of the state fair just a few days ahead, much interest and enthusiasm is being shown in the art department, one of the oldest and strongest departments of the state fair. Mrs. W. Carleton Smith superintendent of the art department, announces three well known and able Oregon people, Mrs. S. M. Endicott (Hallie C. Thomas), George B. Guthrie, formerly of Salem but now of Portland, and Dr. R. W. Hans Seltz, Salem, will judge all exhibits entered. Assisting Mrs. W. Carleton Smith will be Mrs. Charles Rundle of Portland, assistant superintendent of art, who with Mrs. Smith has been making personal contacts with all state schools and other art centers in the effort to obtain the best possible art exhibits. Many valuable exhibits will be shown which promise a rare treat to the art lovers of the surrounding country. Through the aid of the state building board management the art building has been entirely cleaned and renovated and everything will be in readiness for the opening exhibits. Many unusual exhibits and probably the largest number are already listed.
