Miniature Dairy Barn Made by Hayesville Boys Attracts Much Attention

HAYESVILLE, Aug. 27.—A great many people traveling on the Pacific highway north of Salem have noticed an attractive miniature dairy barn in the yard at the E. L. Moor filling station.

It has been constructed by nine boys of the 4-H building club project, and their instructor, E. L. Moor, from blueprints furnished by the Oregon Builders' congress, and Star line, dealers in dairy equipment, on a scale of one inch for one foot. The architect is Carl Linde.

Barn Complete in Details
It is complete in every detail and the workmanship would be a credit to an expert. The boys worked two nights a week during the eight and a half school months, and the material used was either donated or purchased from contributions.

The dimensions are 36x72 inches. The lower floor has 31 windows, two grain rooms, movable stanchions for 20 cows and imitation cement floors made with paint and sand.

Hay Loft Has Track
The hay loft has three windows, a wooden floor, three places to throw hay down, and a hay fork with track. The loft is big enough for one of the club boys to crawl into. Two neat ladders reach from the lower floor to the loft.

Play Apparatus is To Be Purchased By Scotts Mills

SCOTTS MILLS, Aug. 27.—The Sitch and Chatter club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Clara Groshong, sixteen members being present and the following visitors: Mrs. Paul Matovich, Mrs. E. Lewis, Miss Thea Warnell, Miss Corrine Moberg, Mrs. S. P. Moberg, Misses Margaret and Mabel Enlich. It was decided to postpone the meetings until the last of September as so many are hop picking. Plans were made for a picnic at the Beaver Creek schoolhouse soon to build play apparatus for the school children.

A comfort was tied and quilt blocks pieced for the hostess after which lunch was served.

A wicker roast and swimming party was held on the creek at the home of Mrs. Floyd Shepherd Friday evening. Present were Mrs. Shepherd, Paul and Robert Shepherd, Mrs. Lina Bellinger, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Bielenberg, Joseph, Anthony, Frances, Margaret and Agnes Bielenberg.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. McIntosh and son, Charles, of Stillwater, Okla., spent one day last week with Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Brougher. Mrs. McIntosh is a cousin of Mr. Brougher. Others present to enjoy the day with the visitors were Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Brougher, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Coulson and daughters, Margaret and Mildred; and son, Edgar.

HISTORIC HOTEL DAMAGED BY FIRE

DALLAS, Aug. 27.—The wooden structure of the Gail hotel was badly damaged by fire at 9 o'clock Sunday morning. The fire started on the third floor from undetermined origin, as the third floor and part of the second have been unburned and not utilized for a year or more.

The coffee shop and lobby housed on the first floor of the wooden structure were badly water soaked but nearly all equipment was removed. Rooms on the two floors of the brick annex were damaged somewhat by smoke.

Owned and operated by the late Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thompson in the early days the Gail hotel was famous for its meals especially the now forgotten "commercial table" and many a traveling man planned his itinerary to have a stop-over in Dallas.

Damages are estimated at $8,000 with insurance of some $3,000. The hotel has been owned and operated by Claude Dunn for the past several years. He will utilize the lower floor of the annex for offices and dining room pending a decision to rebuild the old structure.

Christian Endeavor Ends Tenth Training Conference Held at Tabernacle, Turner

TURNER, Aug. 27.—The 16th annual Christian Endeavor leadership training conference, the tenth held in the tabernacle here, closed Sunday. It is sponsored by the Oregon Christian Endeavor union, to give young people, specialized Christian Endeavor training. The enrollment this year was 108, the same as last year, with visitors each day. Every section of the state was represented.

The mornings were taken up with three periods of classes with choice of four lines of study. In addition studies of a general nature were offered including missions, worship and foundations of faith, effect of alcohol and narcotics. Veldon Diment is president and Miss Viola Ogden secretary.

Pastors Give Addresses
Dr. Walter Myers of Eugene gave the morning bible talks; Rev. Milton S. Weber, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church of Eugene, delivered the noon-day assembly messages, and Rev. Chester P. Gates, pastor of Ladd's Addition Evangelical church of Portland, gave an address each evening. Others conducting classes were Miss Wilma Eddy, Miss Hulda Anderson, Miss Wanda Crawford and Veldon Diment.

Sports and recreation occupied the afternoons. The last evening of the evening was the meeting around the bonfire in a chosen spot among the trees on the banks of Mill creek. Sunday night's session was held at the Christian church with the local congregation.

The front part of the tabernacle was arranged for a dormitory for the girls, with the men occupying the lodging house on the grounds and meals were furnished at the restaurant.

Farmers Baling Straw; Demand is Reported Good

VICTOR POINT, Aug. 27.—Marion Fischer and Andrew Lorraine are baling straw in this community. Eight men make up the crew and a two weeks' run is expected. Straw is in good demand and several farmers are having large amount baled to store for later use and for sale.

Plans for the annual community fair were discussed at the regular meeting of Union Hill grange, Friday night, with the date planned for early October. A new stage will be added to the grange hall soon and the date of the fair is undecided until the stage is completed.

Extra Pickers Are Needed by Branch
Airlie, Aug. 27.—Hop-picking began in the M. E. (Mike) Branch yard last Wednesday with his new hops. There is an extra heavy crop this year. There are fifty extra pickers over last year's crew and several more day men. Prices range from a dollar a hundred to $1.25 in the old yard which is contracted.

COME FROM NEBRASKA
UNIONVALE, Aug. 27.—Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Crawley and son, Tillman, of Arnold, Neb., are guests for two weeks of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Crawley. They made the automobile trip, 1855 miles, in five days.

Groshong Orchard Interests Growers, Club Plays Pinochle

JEFFERSON, Aug. 27.—The Nut Growers' association made a recent tour of inspection at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Groshong in the Millersburg district where special attention was given the irrigation plan used on their farm. Eight inch movable pipe and a Star car engine are used to pump water from Wilson lake into the irrigation ditch. Record breaking crops of filberts, walnuts, peaches, cherries and strawberries were grown on the Groshong farm this year. He also has a young orchard of Brax filberts grafted on Turkish roots which grow no suckers, thus eliminating one of the worries of a filbert grower.

The Millersburg Pinochle club was entertained at the home of Mrs. John Covey Thursday evening. Three tables of cards were in play with prizes for high score going to Mrs. Frank Kizer and Clark Moreland. Late in the evening refreshments were served.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Covey, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Nygren, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kizer, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Moreland, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. John Covey.
