NEW YORK, Aug. 27.-(AP)-A vigorous selling wave washed over the stock market today in its first post-adjournment session. Losses of around 1 to 3 or more points on pivotal shares in all sections of the list appeared to make a good many traders aback following the predictions of a number of Wall Street observers that market improvement was likely to follow the quitting of congress and the waning of Washington legislative developments as market influences.

Many brokerage quarters saw in the day's decline, in which the turnover was so heavy as to leave the ticker faltering several minutes behind transactions on the floor of the exchange on more than one occasion, a reflection of the Wall Street adage "sell on the good news". Stop-Loss Sales Seen

Elsewhere it was said disappointment over the failure of the market to rally appreciably on the congressional news brought out both liquidation and short selling, and that the decline uncovered stop-loss orders in many cas-The day's decline of 1.3 points in the Associated Press average of 60 stocks, at 47.1 was the largest single session's loss for 1935. The flood of last minute Wash. ington legislation was being rushed to the desks or Wall Street law firms for examination, but the mind of the average trade still appeared rather confused as to the possible market influence of such bills as those dealing with utilities, the coal companies, railroad pensions and several others passed at the close of the session.

Fire Gives Threat To Water Supply

TURNER, Aug. 27. - Fire of unknown origin started Monday afternoon about one and one-half miles west of Turner on the city water supply acreage. Little damage was done to the reservoir but considerable damage to wood and timber belonging to the city and also to timber belonging to Mr. Peebles and to Dr. Sartner. The fire was controlled Monday eve-
