Hecker is Named Deputy Policeman

WOODBURN, Aug. 30. - Fred Hecker has been chosen by Mayor Sam Hoefer to the position of special deputy police officer to serve in the daytime when the night marshal, Louis Ruzicka, is off duty or in case of any extra police work being needed. He takes the place of John Muir, city commissioner, who has been acting in that capacity until recently.

Hecker will be subject to call at any time but will only receive pay when actually on duty.

Ruzicka will be absent the next two or three weeks on a vacation and will during that time have charge of hop picking in the Bill Brown hop yard. William Uppendahl, constable, will act as city marshal during his absence.
