

Thirty Seven Turn Out For Bearcat Squad on First Day

GRADDERS OPEN 2 WEEKS GRIND

Most of Veterans Expected are on Hand With Big Freshman Group

On a Sweetland field softened by the application of tons of water "Spec" Keene started yesterday to whip his 1935 grid machine into shape for the toughest opening three weeks a Bearcat team has ever had to face.

Thirty-seven candidates for positions on the Willamette eleven, first year men and oldersters, answered Keene's clarion call for the opening of grid training. They face a hard two weeks grind of practices, skill exercises and rigid training before they buck up against Dud DeGroot's mob of Spartans from San Jose on September 21.

Will be Strenuous Three sessions a day will be Keene's program for the first ten days with the grid due to be lessened somewhat when classes start and the athletes must grind at textbooks as well as the gridiron.

Suits were issued yesterday morning and the men turned out for the initial session yesterday afternoon. Conditioning exercises and blocking practice made up most of yesterday afternoon's program with the candidates going through a two hour chalk talk last night.

Keene will start feeding plays to the squad today, commencing with the elementary formations from which most of the Bearcat attack runs. Today's first session is scheduled for 9:30 o'clock.

Nearly all of the veterans were on hand yesterday and the few who are still working are expected to put in an appearance within the week. Suits were issued to a large number of freshmen candidates.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 9.—(AP)—Overcoming an early Washington lead, the Detroit Tigers held to their 8 1/2 game lead over New York today by rallying in the late innings to defeat the Senators 5 to 4 in a game that was halted after seven innings on account of rain and darkness.

Manager Bucky Harris of the Nationals attempted to have the game halted in the last half of the seventh because of the darkness of a black cloud overhead, but umpire Summers allowed it to continue only to call off activities while the Senators were in their half of the eighth inning.

Court Order Only Hope of Foes For Stopping Kansas State on March Titleward

MANHATTAN, Kas., Sept. 9.—(AP)—The Kansas State college Wildcats are figuring on another round trip to the Big Six conference football championship this fall, and from the setup at Manhattan it would appear only an injunction can stop them.

The Wildcats will have to scrap a little on the way, but right now, with practice starting tomorrow, it seems they have what it takes.

To begin with, they might be classed as a liability in that in every conference game they stand a chance of losing something their opponent has only in prospect.

They have a new head coach. He is Wesley Fry, who was assistant to Lynn Waldorf at Kansas State last year. It was Waldorf, now coach at Northwestern university, who made rival schools believe he was playing with a popgun at Manhattan and then proceeded to blast them with a cannon.

Have Big Squad The Wildcats also have 15 lettermen and a raft of reserves, not to mention a young horde of sophomores which is expected to bring the squad to approximately 80 men.

With few exceptions Fry will have the same material as last year to work with, only the material now is seasoned and well-grounded in the system which Waldorf installed and which Fry will continue.

Fry has Maurice "Red" Elder, a fullback; Leo Ayers, a peppercorn of a quarterback; Jim Lan-der, a big triple-threat; Ralph Churchill, a classy end, and Captain Dean Griffing, who appears to have the center job nailed down.

The Angels won the first on Steve Messner's lusty triple to center with two men on in the ninth frame. The score was tied when Messner came to the plate.

In the short seven inning affair the Missions took a five run lead off Frazier in the first inning; The Angels came back with four in the second and the teams battled along evenly the balance of the way. Hal Stitzel relieved Johnson for the Missions in the third inning and received credit for the Red's victory.

THE COUNTRY CLUB, Cleveland, Sept. 9.—(AP)—A Texas youth who once gained national fame by whipping the country's best trap shooters in the Grand American handicap came dazzlingly close today to conquering the world's foremost amateur golfer with a double-barrel blast of super shot-making in the first round of the United States amateur golf championship.

Black-haired, handsome Rufus King, Wichita Falls, Tex., who captured five years ago the blue ribbon of American amateur trap shooting at the age of 14, and made his debut in national golfing competition today at 19, yielded finally to the more potent weapons of William Lawson Little, jr., San Francisco, but not before giving the defending titleholder a terrific jolt, and a gallery of 2500 spectators the biggest thrill of the opening day's play.

Little, playing par golf for the 17 holes of the match, emerged the winner by 3 and 1.

The champion's second round opponent tomorrow is William Linn, 27-year-old Chicago under-taker, but he refused to view the outlook with any superstition on that account.

Except for the defeat of Francis Ouimet of Boston, veteran former champion, the favorites came through handsomely in a convincing demonstration of form.

Grant Leads Budge; Rain Delays Play FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 9.—(AP)—A virtual cloudburst and "Bitsy" Grant descended on red-headed Don Budge late this afternoon with the result that the pint-sized Georgia "giant killer" was in the progress of achieving the biggest upset of the year by defeating the highly favored Budge in the quarter-final round of the national singles tennis championship. But climatic elements intervened and the match was postponed until tomorrow. At the time of the downpour Grant was leading 6-4, 6-4, 2-1.

Helen Hull Jacobs and Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Fabran qualified for the women's championship which Miss Jacobs has held the past three years.

They will meet Wednesday in a best of three contests.

Miller Punishes Bigger Opponent PITTSBURGH, Sept. 9.—(AP)—Little Freddie Miller, the National Boxing association's feather-weight titleholder, punished Eddie Zivic for 10 snappy rounds at the Duquesne Garden tonight and was awarded a unanimous decision over his heavier opponent. It was a non-title battle.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 9.—(AP)—Manager Frank Frisch went hitless today on his 37th birthday as his St. Louis Cardinals went down to untimely 4-to-3 defeat before Philadelphia.

The defeat cut the Red Birds' National league lead to the slim margin of one game, as Chicago drew up with a double victory over Boston. The New York Giants singled, Warkins sacrificed and Allen singled.

The Philadelphia batters hoped on Phil Collins for three runs in the fifth and then scored their fourth and deciding run off Ed Heusser in the eighth when Chiozza singled, Warkins sacrificed and Allen singled.

The Cardinals meanwhile could manufacture runs only one at a time off Curt Davis, who pitched seven-hit ball.

The world champions were dropping a decision to the Phillies.

After Tex Carleton held the Braves to four hits, one of them a homer by Rookie Elbert Fletcher, in the first game, Larry French silenced the tail-enders with one run, the "hard way"—allowing nine hits and a walk—to take the decision over Fred Frankhouse in a mound duel.

Forty Enter Autumn Golf Meet so Far

With heavy play over the week end nearly 40 golfers have turned in their qualifying scores for the Salem golf club championship.

Considerable interest has been shown in the tournament and Varley expects that there will be a field of over 100 by the close of the qualifying round.

Eight players will be included in each flight, making it necessary for a player to come out on top in three matches to win the flight championship. Players will be paired according to qualifying scores.

Max Flannery turned in a 71, one under par, for medal honors in qualifying rounds to date.

The opening of match play is slated for next Sunday. All qualifying scores must be in by Saturday night.

Patty Berg, 17, Minneapolis contender in women's golf championships at Interlachen, won her way to finals and match with Mrs. Glenna Collett Vare.

Cathedral Club Nine is Winner From Woodburn

Woodburn, Sept. 9.—The Woodburn Townies baseball team was defeated by the Cathedral baseball club team, Champions of the CYO league of Portland, Sunday afternoon when they crossed bats at the Legion park. The score was 8 to 4.

The Cathedral team has had only one defeat this season and has a heavy bunch of hitters in Warren Jim Millan, the three Peccia brothers, Jim Leineweber and others. The Woodburn team played a good game with Susee and Voget, pitchers and Eder, catcher.

Beck relieved "Squeek" Wilson about halfway through the game but couldn't stop the pennant-bound Alcos. Bill Bevens, whose slants hogged Hop Gold last week, was unable to leave his firefighting job in the mountains to pitch in the crucial contest.

Meeks of Salem put one out-side the park and Nicholson got three hits in four times at bat against Jim Ault, Albany ace moundman.	2	8	3

SENATORS LOSE TITLE CHANGES

Albany Wins 8-2 and Makes Sure of Tie at Least; Errors are Costly

Albany 8, Salem 2. Hop Gold 2, Toledo 1. Bend 7, Eugene 2.

The Salem Senators saw their chances of another State league title go flitting away Sunday as sloppy ball brought them an 8-to-2 defeat at the hands of the Albany Alcos.

The pennant-headed Albany club practically clinched a championship by its one-sided victory over the Salem nine and made sure of having at least a tie for the title.

Only one more date is left without a cross on the State league calendar, although Albany, now leading Salem by a full game, has a postponed contest with Toledo to play. However, this game will not be played unless the season ends in a tie.

Homers by Gerran and Dowling Fatal Errors at crucial points and the fatal habit of Gerran and Dowling of putting the ball out of the park over Albany's short right field fence caused disaster for the Senators.

Beck relieved "Squeek" Wilson about halfway through the game but couldn't stop the pennant-bound Alcos. Bill Bevens, whose slants hogged Hop Gold last week, was unable to leave his firefighting job in the mountains to pitch in the crucial contest.

Phoenix, a semi-finalist in 1934, turned in pair of shutouts to gain the round of four, whipping Little Rock 2 to 0 in a third round encounter and then coming back in the quarter-finals to shade Pittsburgh, 1 to 0 in 12 innings.
