

Allison Scores Upset and Keeps National Singles in U.S.

TABLES TURNED BY TEXAS STAR

Defeats Fred Perry in Semi-Finals; Will Now Play Sidney Wood

By BOB CAVAGNARO
Associated Press Sports Writer
FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 11.—(P)—Wilder Allison of Austin, Tex., scored the greatest upset of American tennis in years today when he defeated Fred Perry of England and made the national singles tennis championship safe for America.

The 31-year-old Texas veteran who took a licking from the sparkling Briton in the final a year ago and again this year in the Davis cup challenge round at Wimbledon, gave the finest exhibition of his career in defeating Perry in straight sets, 7-5, 6-3, 6-3, in a semi-final match before 14,000 wild-eyed and roaring patriots.

Thus he advanced to the championship round in which he will meet Sidney B. Wood, Jr., a Davis cup teammate this year, in the first all-American final since 1932. Wood gained the final by conquering Bryan M. (Bitty) Grant, Jr., of Atlanta, in four sets, 6-2, 4-6, 12-10, 6-2. Wood and Allison will play for the title tomorrow starting at 2 p. m. (Eastern standard time).

The defeat not only cost Perry his American championship—one of six national titles he held before today—but may put him out of circulation for a month or so. He suffered a bad spill in the seventh game of the first set. Doctors who examined him after the match said Perry jarred his right kidney loose. But he asked no respite and played on like a true champion even though at times the pain was so intense he gripped his right side.

Allison's surprising and sensational route of Perry, who won the United States title in 1933 and 1934, completely overshadowed Helen Hall Jacobs' fourth successive annexation of the women's championship. Coming as a sort of an anti-climax to the Perry-Allison match, the Berkeley, Calif., girl vanquished her victim of last year's final, Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Fry of Brookline, Mass., in straight sets, 6-2, 6-4. This victory made Miss Jacobs the sort of an anti-climax to the Perry-Allison match, the Berkeley, Calif., girl vanquished her victim of last year's final, Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Fry of Brookline, Mass., in straight sets, 6-2, 6-4.

Marian Leachman of Berkeley was eliminated by Mrs. Roy Horne of Calgary, 2 and 1.

ANGELS WALLOP BEAVERS 11 TO 2

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 11.—(P)—Ralph Buxton tonight struck out ten Portland batters to give Los Angeles an 11 to 2 victory. The Los Angeles hurler was touched for 10 hits, but kept them scattered.

Spurgeon Chandler was hit for five runs in the first frame by the Angels, and was the victim of ragged support. He was relieved in the seventh by Shuls after allowing two runs on two hits, a walk and a wild pitch. Shuls, however, was in hot water in the eighth when Gene Lillard, hitting his 51st homer of the season, figured in a 4-run rally.

OAKLAND, Calif., Sept. 11.—(P)—Staging a ninth inning rally during which they collected five hits to score four runs, Lefty O'Doul's San Francisco Seals came from behind tonight to defeat Oakland 6 to 3 for their second straight victory over the home team at Emeryville. O'Doul, batting for Stutz, clinched the victory by knocking a single that scored two teammates.

Ray Kaykendall, Oaks rookie pitcher, held the Seals to only two runs in the first eight innings, but cracked in the ninth. He was relieved by Haid, but too late to save the ball game. Hal Stutz hurled the first eight innings for San Francisco and got credit for the victory.

Indians Best Missions
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 11.—(P)—Behind the steady pitching of Howard Craghead, the Seattle Indians defeated the San Francisco Missions today 3-1.

Craghead pitched fine all until the fourth inning when he was nicked for four blows, scoring three runs.

The Indians made two runs in the first when Chet Smith singled, Taylor singled and Jerry Donovan followed with a double along the first base line. Smith and Taylor scored. They scored two more in the third when Smith and Michaels singled followed by Hunt's double and in the ninth scored two more by virtue of two doubles, a walk and an error.

Pop Tries Under Cover Work

Giants Take Fall
PITTSBURGH, Sept. 11.—(P)—The Pirates saved themselves from a complete rout at the hands of the pennant seeking Giants today when they pounded out a 10 to 7 triumph over New York in the series final after losing the first three games.

The Bucs got the jump on Roy Parmelee and due to Paul Warner's lusty s w a t t i n g piled up enough runs to stand off the Giants' late rallies. Guy Bush, who had outdone Parmelee by falling to finish nine successive starts, staggered through to the end although touched for 16 hits.

The elder Waner figured in all but one of the Pirate tallies and injected a cleanup homer into the fray in the second inning to get the Bucs off to an unbeatable lead. In addition to his homer, which came after a single and two walks, one intentional, had crammed the corners. Waner belted a three bagger and two singles. He batted in six runs and scored four.

Problem of Rebuilding Confronts Southern Teams

Ray Morrison, Bernie Moore, Maj. Ralph Sasse, Madison Bell, and Maj. W. H. Britton.

The problem of rebuilding perfect 1934 football machines broken down by graduation and new coaching regimes faces the southern college football elevens as the call for practice hurries the players out as early as Labor Day.

Alabama, Rose Bowl winner and undefeated last year, with Riley Smith to replace the lost Dixie Howell; Tennessee, with a new coach, Maj. William Britton, and Louisiana State, with Bernie Moore taking hold and Abe Mickal back, seem to be the early season standouts. Tulane, losing a complete line and enabled the Chicagoans to gain a full game on the third place Giants, whom they now top by two and one-half games.

Derringer's 18th Victory
CINCINNATI, Sept. 11.—(P)—Paul Derringer chalked up his 18th victory of the season today as the Reds pounded the Dodgers for a 7 to 4 victory in their final encounter of the year. That equalled his high mark for any season since he has been in the National league.

The triumph left the teams all square for the season with 11 victories each although Brooklyn won the series 3-1.

Babe Herman led the assault on his old team with four singles in five times up.

SCRIMMAGE STARTS, TACKLES ARE SHORT

Only three days out from port the Bearcat fleet went into real battle practice yesterday as it lined up for the first scrimmage of the season while Admiral "Spec" Keene kept on worrying on the tackle situation.

Loss of Karl Weisser and Mike Balkovic overboard last year didn't help the effectiveness of the crew that will clear decks for action before the speedy Bearcat backs this fall.

Darrell Newhouse and Bob Vagt are the only tackles left on the list of old tars. Both have turned in some bang-up performances but at the present scribbling neither quite fills the No. 10 galoshes worn by Messrs. Weisser and Balkovic.

In the ranks of the hulking freshman craft that are out for a place on the varsity lineup "Spec" may be able to find the brace of tackles he is seeking. If not he may be called upon to do a bit of alterations on some of the candidates for positions already capably filled.

Arrival of Gordon Williams, ace signal caller of several years ago, yesterday bolstered the potential strength of the backfield. Williams served as regular quarterback as a freshman but has been out of school for two years. A good passer and kicker Williams is number one candidate to take the place vacated by Eddie Frantz.

Keene had enough material for three squads yesterday with a few left over. The three squads, alternating in scrimmage, rolled through about an hour and a half of mock war. Keene will start feeding plays to the squad in greater proportions from now on as the date for the season's opener with San Jose on September 21 rolls closer.

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—(P)—Johnny Allen was so startled when he got his first good lead in a pitchers' battle with Mel Harder that he "blew" a mile high in the ninth inning and the Indians scored five runs to defeat the Yankees 5 to 4 in their final clash today.

For eight innings Allen pitched one hit ball and he scored the only run in the first seven. Then the Yanks pelted relief flinger, Walter Stewart, for three hits to lead 4 to 0 going into the ninth.

Earl Averill started the winning drive with a home run; Joe Yonkik, Bill Knickerbocker and Roy Hughes hit singles and Ed Phillips hoisted a high one that went for a double and tied the score when Jesse Hill lost the ball in the sun. Ralph Winegarner's pinch hit brought Phillips in with the winning run.

In His Father's Footsteps

By BURNLEY

THAT old adage, "Like father, like son," may be true in a majority of cases, but it certainly has never worked out in the case of professional prize fighters.

Many famous beat-busters have raised their sons with the explicit intention of making great fighters out of them, but the kids never seemed to be "chips off the old block" as far as throwing leather was concerned.

Caustic Carries on

The University of Portland, nee Columbia University, is definitely hitching its ego cart to a star of the first magnitude and hopes to ride right up to grid glory. Building up a football team is the first thing but the Pilots haven't forgotten the second thing. That second thing is publicity, press agency, blah, hokum, baloney. Maybe the world will beat a path to your door if you build a better mouse trap, but it helps a lot if you hire a good press agent.

The Pilots have such a one in a very versatile young fellow who is as busy as the proverbial one armed paperhanger filling sports desks with all the latest dope about Gene Kearney's Pilots. Consequently the University of Portland has been getting more and more inebriated in the public prints.

Now we think that Willamette has had its educated top that kicked to have football teams just as effective as those turned out on the cliff over Swan Island. The trouble is, as has been often pointed out, Willamette never has had a real publicity man to push the virtues of the virtuous Bearcats. Willamette is also on the make for bigger and better things, athletically speaking, and it is our opinion that this is no time to hide your light all in one basket.

Dick Welsberger was getting his educated top that kicked 18 conversion points last year back in practice yesterday and was doing right well. . . the boys at the Salem golf club have become surprisingly modest about their scores and scores in the championship. Consequently the University of Portland has been getting more and more inebriated in the public prints.
