PORTLAND, Ore., Sept. 12.-(AP) -Butter producers of the Portland area are watching the price advances in New York and Chicago with great interest. Local supplies are light, and the market is exceptionally firm. Production is expected to be stepped up this fall. There were no changes in butter or butterfat. Egg market is also firm, with receipts continuing light. No price change has occurred for several days. Demand for fresh goods is continuing excellent, with supplies

Poultry prices are still firmer than either butter or eggs, with some slight advances having been reported earlier this week. An acute shortage has occurred on springs of all sizes.

Turkeys will start coming in early in October. No advance intimation can be gained as to the first quotations, but advices have come in that the flocks are sturdy and promise some fine birds for the holiday season. There are still plenty of tur-

CHICAGO, Sept. 12.-(AP) - Persistent selling on the part of eastern houses, together with pressure believed to be Canadian hedging, led to late downturns on Chicago wheat values today. Advances that took place earlier the wheat market here were more than overcome, despite the strength shown by Liverpool quotations and notwithstanding Buenos Aires prices had reached a new top for this year. Export sales of Canadian wheat the past two days were estimated at 4,000,000 bushels. Wheat in Chicago closed weak, %-% under yesterday's finish, December 92%-%, corn 4-1% down, December 56 1/2-1/8, oats 1/4-% off, and provisions varying from 25 cents decline to 12 cents gain. Quotations: Wheat: September 91%-1/2; Deember 92%-%; May 93%-%. Corn: September 75 %; Decem-er 56%-%; May 57%.

Oats: September 26 %; December 26%; May 28%.
