

Remodeled School Building at Hubbard Awaits Opening of Year

Manual Training Rooms Provided

In Basement; Partition on Second Floor Taken Out, Also Stage

HUBBARD, Sept. 14.—Extensive repairs and remodeling being completed at the Hubbard school building is now ready for Monday, September 15, when school opens, according to H. C. Painter, building superintendent. The basement has been completely rearranged and will now be used for manual training and mechanical drawing classes. A lunch room has also been provided for. On the second floor a partition and stage were torn out to make one large room which will be used for commercial and domestic science purposes. Other minor improvements and redecorating were accomplished during the summer months.

Teachers for the year are E. Van Ness Johnson, superintendent, Miss Catherine Barker and Miss Fleta Merrill for high school and Melvin Wilson, Mrs. Lottie Fry, Miss Doris Harradard and Mrs. Lorena Duncan for grade school. Girls' athletics will be in charge of Miss Merrill and Mr. Johnson will direct the boys' athletics.

Miss Lenore Isaacson, of Portland, is visiting at the A. Stein back home. Miss Isaacson formerly lived in this vicinity and will visit with other friends and relatives before returning home.

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Ratcliff returned Wednesday. The school trip to Minnesota where they visited friends and relatives.

Girl is Winner of Prize Bicycle

BROOKS, Sept. 14.—Cleo Ramp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Ramp of Brooks, won a deluxe model bicycle as a grand prize in a national contest. When Cleo entered the contest she was given a handbook of sports and outdoor life. It was the information in this book concerning the contest that led to her success as a grand prize winner. Thousands of entries from every state in the Union were in competition.

Plans are being completed for the opening of the grade school next Monday morning. The school house has been newly painted on the outside and the new janitor, Charlie Vinyard, has been working the past two weeks giving the inside a thorough cleaning.

Funeral services were held for Samuel Vernon Ramp at the Holman-Lutz mortuary at Portland, Friday afternoon. The interment was in the Rose City cemetery. He was born in Albany in 1878 and died September 4, following a short illness with heart trouble.

Mr. Ramp conducted a general merchandise store in Brooks for a number of years, going from here to Independence, Mo., and Bend and then to Portland, where he with his sons conducted a general merchandise store.

He is survived by his widow, Lena; three sons, Lloyd, Burl and Wallace Ramp, all of Portland; one son, Donald, aged four years, preceded him in death in 1918; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Ramp of Brooks; three brothers, Rollie of Turner, Floyd of Roseburg and Willard of Brooks.

Scenes in Life of Senator Huey Long, Shot by Political Enemy

Families Move in Shelburn District

SHELburn, Sept. 14.—Bert Green and family have leased the T. M. Russell farm and are moving to their new home. Mr. Lahey and family have moved to Washington. The Laheys lived three years on the Russell farm.

Harry Sturm and family are moving into the late Fred Gooch home. Mr. Sturm will teach the Shelburn school the coming year. School will commence Monday, Sept. 16.

Raymond Holfast and family have moved into the Marion Tindall barber shop in Shelburn. This makes all houses in and around Shelburn occupied. Raymond spent some time here last fall and winter with Ray Speers. The Holfasts are late of Missouri.

A. W. Ewing is erecting a new hen house on his farm at Shelburn. Mr. Ewing is doing the work. Harold Maine is also erecting a new hen house.

Straw balers are baling straw in this community. The Albert Boedighelmers have moved to a farm near Stayton. The Boedighelmers have lived on the former Gibbons home for several years.

The Munkers school began Monday, September 9, with Mrs. Goldie Studnicka as teacher.

Legion Baseball Reports Profit

WOODBURN, Sept. 14.—The regular meeting of Woodburn Post No. 46, American Legion, was held at the armory Wednesday evening.

H. M. Austin, baseball chairman, gave a report of the state baseball tournament which was held here in August, which showed a profit of approximately $250. It was also stated that the tournament might be held here again next year and plans were discussed to enlarge and improve the grandstand at Legion park.

Reports of the state convention held at The Dalles were given by Commander Gerald B. Smith and Commander-elect Coy. Richard Yates, chairman of the cemetery committee, reported that the work of making permanent record of the veterans' graves in fourteen cemeteries of Marion county was about completed.

Plans were made for the annual Armistice day celebration to be held November 11. Dr. John M. Hamman has been appointed general chairman. It was announced that the post will sponsor a tap dancing class and has secured Miss Dorothy Kocher of Portland who is connected with the Hawthorne studios of dancing. Classes will be formed for beginners and advanced students and later Spanish and ballet will be taught those who desire the lessons.

Guests of the post were Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Adams who have moved to Portland and have transferred their membership to the newly organized post at St. Johns.

Service Officer O. S. Olson reported that Steve Scollard had been taken to the Veterans' hospital and that Harry Sines, another post member, was still in the hospital.

Refreshments were served by members of the auxiliary. The installation of officers which was planned was postponed.

Library Association to Hold Annual Tea

AMITY, Sept. 14.—Saturday, September 21, is the date set for the annual tea and candy sale sponsored by the Amity Library association. It will begin at 2 o'clock p. m., and continue through the evening. The Bank of Amity will hold its annual flower show Saturday evening. In the afternoon there will be a baseball game and it is also planned to hold a street dance in the evening.

Grangers' Column

VICTOR POINT, Sept. 14.—At the meeting of Union Hill Grange Friday night plans were outlined for the annual grange-community fair which will be held October 12 with the agricultural committee chairman, Verry D. Scott, and home economics chairman, Mrs. Phillip Fischer, in charge.

National grange "Booster night" will be observed at the same time and program will be arranged by Mrs. Floyd Fox, grange lecturer.

A membership contest between the women and men members will extend over the next three months with the losing side treating the winners to a dinner on or near New Year's day.

At the lecturer's hour roll call was answered with a brief resume of summer vacations by various members. Among those responding were Mrs. George Scott, member of Stayton grange, who told of spending a week on a trip to Burns where they visited relatives of Mr. Scott's and returned by way of Crater and Diamond lakes. The Scotts were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heister.

Mrs. Verry Scott told of her recent motor trip into northern California and gave a detailed account of a trip through the Oregon Caves.

Miss Alice Jaquet, who returned Wednesday from a week's trip with Mrs. H. E. Hubbard and Mrs. W. F. Kreuz, that took them to Bend by the Santiam route, then to the Century drive to Crater lake, told of her trip in an interesting way. The group also visited friends at Fort Klamath, the Oregon Caves and with Miss Elinor Paddock at Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Winnie Tate and Verry Scott gave some of their experiences on a clam digging expedition at Bay Ocean where they spent several days, returning Friday.

The juvenile grange in their meeting planned an exhibit for the grange fair.

The next meeting will be the third Friday in October.

CHEMAWA, Sept. 14.—At the business meeting of Chemawa Grange Thursday evening plans were made for the regular grange fair to be held Saturday, October 12, all day and evening. The neighboring communities are invited to exhibit anything in vegetables, fruit, grain, dairy products, fancy work—or what have you—which you think will improve on Kester exhibits.

The following chairmen of committees were appointed by Master H. S. Keefer and the general chairman: General committee, W. E. Savage, M. S. Bunnell and L. J. Chapman; vegetables, J. E. Putnam; fruits, H. W. Bowden; grain and seeds, Archie Claggett; dairy products, Chas. Weathers; nuts, Wm. Blake; manual arts and 4-H club, F. S. McCall; canned fruit and vegetables, Mrs. Harvey Hansen; textiles, Mrs. F. S. McCall; baking and foods, Mrs. H. W. Bowden; antiques, Mrs. Ida Blake; flowers, Mrs. Arthur Holden; art, Mrs. Alice Oldenburg; concessions, Walter Oldenburg; dinner, Mrs. W. E. Savage; decorating committee, F. S. McCall, H. W. Bowden, Albert Girod, H. S. Keefer and D. B. Kielhege.

Absent members are asked to take special notice of the committee appointments and begin preparations for the fair. Supper will be served between the afternoon session and evening entertainment. Following the entertainment the exhibits which are donated will be auctioned.

NORTH HOWELL, Sept. 14.—Last night's meeting of the North Howell grange listened to a discussion of salary and road oiling projects and enjoyed a good lunch and watermelon feed. Owing to so many members being busy in the hop yards and canneries the attendance was small.

Mrs. A. B. Wiesner, Mrs. W. H. Stevens and J. S. Coomer were appointed a committee to urge some road improvements in this district through the county road oiling program.

Booster night plans were postponed until a later date and the annual corn show was definitely announced with the date to be decided later.

Nominations for state officers resulted as follows: Master, Ray Gill; overseer, W. H. Stevens; lecturer, Mrs. Alice Goff; secretary, Bertha Beck; ex. com., Geo. Falmeter, F. J. Zimmerman.

Representative Hannah Martin's stand on the Kerr salary question was unanimously endorsed and written approval was ordered.

Shortage of Help Holds Back Picking in Hills Hop Yards

WALDO HILLS, Sept. 14.—Hop picking goes on slowly with all yards with one exception, working with inadequate crews. Red spider is also proving a menace. One yard, partially picked, was abandoned. It will take from a week to 10 days to finish the majority of the yards.

Prune picking will begin Friday. The Hartwell dryer will begin Saturday.

Frank Egan and son, Ralph, are building a modern hog house on their farm in the Centerville district. The building is 18 by 48. They are doing the work themselves.

The barn, on what is known as the Will King place, is almost completed. Karl Haberly, who lives on the farm just north, will operate the King place which is now owned by an insurance company.
