Darbin Pickers May Finish at End of Present Week's Work

CENTRAL HOWELL, Sept. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Aeschliman and daughters, Rita and Ramona, left for their home at Colfax, Wash., Tuesday after two weeks visiting here.

An old-fashioned charivari crowd entertained Mr. and Mrs. Deon Hill Loganhill, newlyweds, Wednesday night with the usual noisy enthusiasm.

School to Open Monday
The school house has been thoroughly cleaned in preparation for school Monday. Bobby Way and Bobby Simmons have been hired as janitors for the coming year.

Among those attending Williamette university from here are Edgar Tweed and John Steelhammer, jr.; seniors; Robert Tweed, junior; Joan Landerback, freshman.

Some Yards Finished
Hop picking is finished at the Alpheus Schar and John Steelhammer yards and the crew moved to the Clyde DeSart yard Wednesday morning where they expect to be busy about two days. The Darbin yard will probably be finished the last of the week.

Picking continues at the Henry Lichty, Lenners and Egginman yards with the crew from the latter planning to go on to the Hofstetter and Earl DeSart yards when finished at Egginmans.

Chris Lichty is planning the addition of a sun room to his house. Enoch Welty of Pratum

Grangers' Column

BRUSH COLLEGE, Sept. 19.—The first fall meeting of the Brush College grange was held at the local school house Friday night, with Mrs. U. J. Lehman, Salem, and Mrs. Audrey Ewing in charge of the 7 o'clock supper. Mrs. Stella J. Henry, grange master, presided for the interesting business meeting including reports by Fred Ewing and Dr. C. L. Blodgett on the country fair at Dallas from which the local 4-H poultry club, received two scholarships to summer school at Oregon State college and $15.

To Honor Youths
All of the girls and boys of the Brush College 4-H clubs who exhibited at the Polk county and state fair are to be special guests at the October Brush College grange session and banquet.

James Smart, jr., gave a detailed account of his work as a member of the pig club of Mountain View. Fred Ewing, in an instructive address on poisoning rats and squirrels, stated that the bubonic plague is carried by them and that one should be careful in handling the poisoned animals as fleas from them spread the disease. Oliver Whitney spoke on improvements on road work.

Four W's in Money
An announcement was made of the Polk county conference meeting to be held at Rickreall, September 24. Charles Glaze spoke on insurance. One of the achievements of the Polk county 4-H clubs was the winning of over $300 at the state fair.

A round table discussion of the will have charge of the work. Lichty is also building an addition to his house.

site and money to be spent on a new state house resulted in the group signing a petition advising the use of the old site. Another petition for the general good was the project of securing better drinking fountains at the state fairgrounds.

Mrs. Jennie Hayes, life member of Sherwood grange was a guest Friday evening and spoke on her 57 years membership there, and Alvin Madsen, educational adviser at CCC 615, told of his work.

David Aegerter Dies at Age 71

STAYTON, Sept. 19.—David Aegerter, sr., 71, died at midnight Tuesday night at his home about eight miles south of Stayton. He had been a resident of that district for 35 years. He was a native of Switzerland and came to the United States about 45 years ago. He was well known and respected throughout the Santiam valley. He was for a number of years a breeder of horses.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Margaret Aegerter, and two sons, David and Ernest, both at home. Other relatives are in Portland and the east and in Switzerland.

Funeral services at the Weddle chapel in Stayton Friday at 2 p.m., interment in the Mt. Pleasant cemetery near the Aegerter farm.

Earl Smith Family is Home From Vacation Trip Into Canada

SUVER, Sept. 19.—Mr. and Mrs. Lee Parker and family have returned to their home in Suver to spend the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Kerr and daughter, Yvonne, returned home Sunday night from the Pendleton roundup.

Cooper Bros. shipped a load of railroad ties to California Monday.

Visits from Skagway
Leonard Collins of Skagway, Alaska, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Mina Collins.

The men are now busy making ensilage on the Ralph Kester dairy farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Smith and daughter Violet have returned home from a pleasure trip to Canada and British Columbia.

High School Has 45 Enrolled Now

TURNER, Sept. 19.—School opened Monday with 45 high school pupils registered and prospects for an enrollment of 60 when seasonal work is ended. The grades had a good enrollment.

Dr. Louis Magin, Methodist district superintendent of Salem, gave the Sunday night union service sermon at the Methodist church, after which he conducted the quarterly conference, with most departments represented with encouraging reports and a spirit of optimism for the future. The Sunday school has exceeded its former enrollment. Rally day will be observed Sunday, October 13, with promotions. Also it will be home coming day for the church. The Brotherhood is expected to be reorganized soon. Misses Ruth and Margaret Gilstrap have arranged to enter Pacific college at Newberg.

More Petitions Arrive Requesting Clemency in Baer Deportation Case

Additional petitions arrived at the executive offices Thursday urging a pardon for Walter Baer of Portland, against whom deportation proceedings were filed by the immigration authorities.

Governor Martin previously refused to grant a pardon to Baer following a hearing held in Salem.

Records show that Baer has served three terms in the Oregon state penitentiary.

Officers Turner, Townsends Resign

TURNER, Sept. 19.—The resignation of O. A. Fowler as president of the Turner Townsend club was accepted and Mrs. H. R. Leep was nominated in his place at the advisory board meeting this week. Archie Pardee also resigned as vice-president and Curt Melis was nominated to the post. The club will meet next Monday night, October 1, at the school auditorium, with refreshments to be served.

Mrs. A. B. Webb, the secretary, was hostess for the meeting of the advisory board. For the next meeting, each woman is asked to bring a cake.
