ACHING for revenge and hoping for a victory that will make San Jose cheer, Coach Dud DeGroot's Spartans will clash with "Spec" Keene's Bearcat eleven on Sweetland field at 8 o'clock tonight in the first big intersectional contest of the 1935 grid season. It will be the first visit of a California team to the Willamette gridiron.

Willamette's 21 to 7 victory over the men from Sparta on their home grounds last year rankles in the blood of the brawny grid-ders who wage football war for San Jose while Willamette is out to start off another championship season with a win.

Tonight's gridiron battle will be the first test for two teams that are anxious to repeat championship seasons of last year in their respective conferences. It will also mark the debut of San Jose as an independent team, following its withdrawal from the Far Western conference in which it last year tied for the championship with San Jose.

Are Well Matched With both squads hit by the loss of veterans they will march onto the field tonight evenly matched. Both suffered losses in the line. San Jose, with a line averaging two pounds to the man over Willamette, will have a slight advantage in the forward wall but Willamette's backfield, listing 210 pounds, in Manfred Olson and Dick Weisgerber, will outweigh the Spartans backs 10 pounds to the man.

Predictions of continued weather of near California quality has made Coach Dud DeGroot hopeful for the success of his highly touted aerial attack. Whether Willamette's pass defense, sometimes weak in early games, can cope with the pigskin heaving of the Spartan backs may be a deciding factor in the game.

Spec Picks Veterans Willamette's offense will be built around the speed of the weaving, wily Johnny Oravec and the rushing manpower of Dick Weisgerber and Manfred "Moose" Olson. If the Bearcat line, green at the important tackle posts, can open holes for the Bearcat backfield the combination of Oravec, quarter, Weisgerber and Stone, halves, and Olson, full, can be expected to go places.

"Spec" Keene will send a starting eleven composed of veterans into the game. Bill McAdams and Chet Phillips, each of whom played against the Bearcats last year, will start at the end posts. Bob Vagt and Darrell Newhouse, each weighing over 200, will get their first call as starting tackles. The deceptively built Harold Hoyt and Elliott Becken, expected to develop into one of the best guard combinations Keene has ever had, will start at the guard positions while scrappy 160 pound Bronc Williams will get the call at center.

Backfield Speedy Upon Jim Stockdale, pass heaving San Jose halfback, Glen DuBose, 202 pound fullback, Norman Sanders, quarterback, and Burt Watson, halfback, will rest the burden of scoring touchdowns for the Spartans through Willamette's untied forward wall combination.

The game will mark the opening of the last year of competition for Johnny Oravec, who will call the signals for the Bearcats. The Jersey Skelter has been working harder than usual in the two weeks of practice the Bearcats have had in preparation for an even brighter season.

The contest will be one that will see varied methods of attack as DeGroot's Warner system is brought to bear on Keene's "mongrel" type of play. It may see the first fire test of Keene's new shift, designed to capitalize upon the swiftness of the fleet footed Johnny Oravec.

The faces of the Baer supporters, already a foot long after one of the most dismal training camp showings Baer or any other heavyweight ever made, fell another foot. If there's anything in the world Louis, the bomber, can do it's punch. The prospect of wearing down the black cyclone with a clinch the Baer supporters least of all Baer.

Gridmen Face Initial Tests

Big Teams, Chiefly Those of South, to Take on "Setups" Today

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—(AP)—The college football coaches, who have been peering anxiously at their 1935 varsity aspirants and trying to teach the boys what to do and how to do it, get their first chance tomorrow to observe the fruits of their labors.

With the ambitious southern and southwestern teams leading the way, about a dozen and a half teams of major ranking and a correspondingly large group of small colleges get their first taste of competition for 1935. There's not a sign of serious competition for the big fellows, as they hold to the custom of starting off with "tune-up" games.

Big Ones to Start Of the strong southwest conference group, Rice, Baylor, Southern Methodist, Texas A. and M., and Texas Christian stage a simultaneous curtain-raising, the first two playing their opening games at night. The Rice Owls, candidates for national recognition as a "major" team, open against St. Mary of Texas. Southern Methodist, famed for its "aerial circus," faces Denton Teachers. Baylor's Bears play Southwestern of Texas; the Aggies encounter Stephen F. Austin Teachers and Texas Christian Meets Howard Payne.

A half dozen of the southern conference members start off against favorite early season "sparring partners." Vanderbilt and Kentucky of the formerly allied southeastern conference join them in observing the early opening date. The midwest, held to a later start by Big Ten regulations, and the conservative east have few games of any importance and only a couple of the leading far western teams see action.

Only Two in West The Virginia group, which occasionally turns out some strong small-college teams, supplies most of the opposition for the southern conference. Virginia faces William and Mary. Virginia Poly plays Roanoke and Virginia Military meets Hampden Sydney.

The eastern program starts with Holy Cross playing Rhode Island, Villanova meeting Penn Military and Manhattan facing Niagara in tune-up encounters. In addition there is a minor "in-

Breakfast Club Kicks Off For Year

By Welcoming Spartans; Elects Max Page President And Backs Campus Site For Capitol

Welcoming Coach Dud DeGroot and his team of 25 Spartans from San Jose with the largest attendance on record the Salem Breakfast club entered its season with a bang yesterday morning at the Marion hotel. The club voted to endorse the proposal to place the new state capitol on the present Willamette university campus.

Max Page was unanimously elected president of the group which showed by its enthusiasm yesterday morning that it is prepared for an even greater and merrier season than last year. Other officers elected were: vice president, W. L. "Bill" Phillips; secretary, "Cliff" Parker; treasurer, James H. Nicholson, and trustees, Dr. Bruce R. Baxter and Harry V. Collins, retiring president.

DeGroot is Orator The silver-tongued Coach Dud DeGroot, who was a debater and orator as well as an All-American end in his collegiate days at Stanford, delivered one of the best intersectional clash when Alfred meets Adrian of Michigan. Jumping to the west coast conference the campaign opens with Washington State facing Whitman and Oregon State playing Linfield.

The only game in the Rocky Mountain group sends Utah State against Montana State.

Presbytery Pays Honor to Dr. Lee

Resolutions commending the Rev. W. H. Lee, Albany college, member of the Willamette Presbytery for 40 years, were adopted at the fall meeting of the Presbytery which closed at Brownsville Thursday night.

Another feature of the meeting was the Spaulding memorial service. Speakers included Dr. James Thompson, Seattle; Dr. Lee and other ministers prominent in the Presbytery church.

Edith Marquette, student at Albany college, was recommended for a scholarship.

The Rev. James Alkin Smith, moderator, called the meeting to order and presided.

Reports submitted at the meeting showed a substantial growth in membership of the church.

Safe For Max, Whispers Say

Wise Ones Answer that it Couldn't be Done With so Much at Stake

NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—(AP)—The million-dollar scramble for fight tickets today, at any price, wasn't the only subject agitating the sporting clans fast, assembling along Broadway for the most sensationalistic occasion in nearly a decade.

They're hearing a lot of wild and woolly rumors along tin ear alley, rumors that Joe Louis can't win, that so-called sinister influences which have not reared an ugly head in many a moon are back at work, that the "big fix" is on for Max Baer so that the heavy-weight heights may be kept safe for the Caucasian race. It's strictly bunk, any way you look at it, but it's the tiff that the big money days are back in the fight business.

In the first place, in spite of all the talk about the big bettors "plunging" on Baer, Louis is still a 1 to 2 favorite in Jack Doyle's book. In other words two dollars will get you one if the "Brown Bomber" wins. The veteran Broadway commissioner quotes Baer at 8 to 5 which means he will put up eight dollars to every five offered by Maxie's adherents, under prevailing conditions.

No Notable Switch "The wagering on this fight is more widespread than any heavyweight fight since the second Dempsey-Tunney affair in Chicago," said Doyle. "But there has been no pronounced switch so far or any indication of a plunge on either fighter. Louis' backers predominate although there is considerable support for Baer from the west."

Broadway bookmakers believe the "man in the street" is taking a bigger interest in the bout than any since Dempsey's day. So far the professionals, representing the so-called "wise money," have not been conspicuous in betting quarters. All of which is additional reason for discarding the idea that there's anything suspicious about the proceedings.

"Just figure it out for yourself," said one of the fight game's most astute and critical figures today. "It would take at least a half-million dollars to 'do anything' with this fight, because that's what victory means to either man, at the very least. Where's that kind of money coming from suddenly?"

Price Reductions Upon Buick Are Announced; To be First 1936 Car

FLINT, Mich., Sept. 20.—Price reductions ranging from $40 to $385 on Buick 1936 models were announced today by President H. H. Curtice before more than 100 newspapermen from throughout the United States, who came for a preview of the complete line which Mr. Curtice said will be formally announced to the public September 28.

These will be the first 1936 cars to appear under the fall announcement plan to which the industry agreed with President Roosevelt as a step toward leveling production peaks. It also marks a definite step downward for Buick into broader markets. This is in the face of many new features which were shown privately to the newspapermen.

St. Louis Sphinx

By BURNLEY

THE St. Louis Cardinals have most appropriately been dubbed the Gashouse Gang, for they are as tough and noisy a bunch of "country" ball players as the game has ever seen. Pepper Martin, a real rough-house rowdy who enjoys scrapping with anybody including his teammates, is typical of the pugnaic Cardinals.

Charges Dropped In Koencke Case

TORONTO, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Manslaughter charges against two Detroit fliers in the case of Len Koencke, big league baseball player who was beaten to death in a dramatic flight in an airplane high above the city, were dismissed today.

Magistrate Douglas Keith ruled that William Joseph Mulqueeney and Irwin Davis, who were flying Koencke from Detroit to Buffalo, acted in self-defense.

Immediately after their acquittal the fliers went to a hotel, where Mulqueeney's employer, E. G. Steepe of Detroit, announced they had signed a contract with a syndicate to tell details of the fatal flight in order to cover the expenses of their trial.
