Willamette Site for Capitol Gaining Favor

Aerial view of the proposed capitol site, including present capitol grounds, Willamette university campus and part of Willson park. 1.—Supreme court and state office buildings. 2.—Present capitol grounds. 3.—Portion of Willson park. 4.—Part of State street. 5.—Eaton hall, Willamette. This plan for an unchallenged site with the capitol on the approximate site of Eaton hall, with the present capitol grounds landscaped into a beautiful sunken garden. In the foreground of Willson park the future new units would be built, balancing out the supreme court and office buildings. Architects declare this plan will utilize present buildings to the best advantage and save, in the reduced cost of a building to which the larger site lends itself, a large part of the cost of additional property. The site would be identical with the average of the capitol grounds of the 48 states, 22 acres, and express adequately the beauty and dignity of the commonwealth.

World News Told Briefly

Independence Anxious to Secure Enlargements to Hop Bowl to Give Excellent Football Field at Once

INDEPENDENCE, Sept. 21.—Much talk is heard here as to whether or not the hop bowl may be prepared for football games this fall. Football fans feel that the gate receipts would more than pay for developing the bowl for this year's games. W. W. Newton has finished picking holes on the eight-acre tract purchased by the Hop Bowl, Inc., which has formed a background for events taking place in the bowl and has given a realistic view of hop land. Part of this hop yard must be used in order to have the field wide enough for football. Dirt and gravel to cover the field must be drawn to insure a good field bottom and drainage, and a main line placed through the slough bottom to the field. Several methods have been suggested to take care of the cost, but none definitely settled on, though the committee will meet to this end shortly. The hop bowl committee has plans to make the bowl and the property one of the outstanding recreational parks in the state, providing facilities for baseball, football, swimming and a stage to take care of entertainments. The remainder of the land to the river would be used for playground equipment, dressing rooms for swimmers and possibly a concrete swimming tank. Although the property is owned by the city of Independence, Hop Bowl, Inc., will promote its improvement.

Attack Suspect Freed When Alibi Confirmed; Women Had Identified

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Michael Iannella, 24, seized by police during a frantic hunt for a man sought for a series of sadistic attacks on several women was freed tonight after police checked his alibi and found it correct. Iannella had denied any connection with the savage attacks and maintained that on the night of the latest assault—that on Mrs. Helen James, 21, he had accompanied a young woman to a theatre. Police Captain John Stage said Miss Eloise Drake, 19, told him she was with Iannella on the night of the James attack. After questioning her further Iannella was ordered freed.

Spartans Lose To Willamette

SCOOTER SPARKS BEARCATS TO 14-0 VICTORY OVER SAN JOSE STATE

(Continued from Page 1) and was off for 17 yards before he was hauled down by Stockdale, the San Jose safety. Another try scored a couple of yards, but on the next play Willamette was offside and back-tracked live. Johnny tried it again but was held for a short gain and then swept around the San Jose right end and was hammering down the field with only the safety to stop him. Jim Stockdale nailed him, but Johnny had carried the ball 22 yards to the San Jose 24 stripe. Dick Weisgerber took the ball and ploughed his way through the center of the line to the 18-yard mark. Johnny took it again for his own sweep and was forced out of bounds on the San Jose 12 for a first down. "Moosa" Olson made three ramming tries at the center of the hard-pressed Spartan line and planted the pellet on the three-yard line as the quarter ended.

Asah as the second canto opened Oravec called his own number and slipped around right end to place the ball on the one foot line for a first down. He lost a bit on the next play but Dick Weisgerber returned the ball to the one foot line and Johnny ploughed through right tackle for the first score of the game.

Dick Weisgerber, setting out for another conversion record, made the try for point good. Fumble Paves Way For Second Score Willamette came knocking on San Jose's door at the fourth end after Becken recovered a fumble by Sanders, San Jose quarterback on the Spartan five, but Oravec lost five yards on an end try. Olson was stopped by Asavado, and Oravec's pass was intercepted by Becken on the Spartan three-yard line.

It put San Jose in a hole which became a bigger hole when Johnny returned Stockdale's punt to the San Jose 26 and Oravec, Olson and Weisgerber rotated as ball packers as they punched it through to a first down. It was the San Jose ten stripe. Weisgerber picked up three yards and Johnny in two tries again put the ball on the one foot line for another first down. Dick Weisgerber rammed into a solid line of Spartans and was held at the line but the ball had good ground into goal territory and Willamette had its second touchdown. Again Weisgerber's kick was good.

No Pass Completed Though Many Throws Coach Dud DeGroot's Spartans were fighting minute but they couldn't go places against a Bearcat team that knocked down their passes and except when Du Bose broke away for two long gains in the dying minutes of the game kept them from even coming close to a first down. It was Johnny Oravec who spelled defeat for the Spartans. They could stop the other Bearcat backs but it was Johnny who weaved through the little holes.

Coach DeGroot substituted fairly and not a man of his squad failed to see action. Al Asavado, giant guard, played an outstanding game in the line for Sparta while Jim Stockdale, jutting half-back, stood out in the backfield. Oravec attempted six passes, completing one to Erickson for a gain of four yards. One was intercepted. San Jose unable to gain against the Bearcat line tried the air but the air was bumpy. Not a pass was completed and three were intercepted by Oravec. Neophyte Tackles Make Good Showing Willamette's tackles, expected to be weak, showed up well. Bob Vart, until he knocked himself cold making a tackle, played a booming game while there was little more to wish for in the hard hitting performance of Darrell Newhouse.

The statistics gained 167 yards to the Bearcat line. Oravec averaging San Jose's 62. Oravec averaging 4-1-3 yards per try, accounted for 130 of Willamette's total while Dick Weisgerber turned in 23 and Olson 14. DuBose, booming full-back, was San Jose's best ground gainer with 46 yards, although 35 of them came from a kickoff of 25 and 15 yards in the last minute of the game.

The Bearcats will meet the Oregon State Beavers next Saturday at Corvallis.

New Dentist Takes Over Practice For Woodburn

WOODBURN, Sept. 21.—Dr. Roy M. Newman has purchased the dental practice of Dr. T. K. Sanderson and arrived in Woodburn from Marshfield Tuesday. He will have his offices located in the same place as Dr. Sanderson, over the Crouse-Benson drug store. Dr. Sanderson, who has practiced dentistry in Woodburn the past 17 years, will take a vacation and has not announced his future plans.

McNary Enjoys Home Life at Fircrone Entertains Visitors, Takes Long Walks With His Dog Reads Baseball Instead of Politics

Fircrone, country home of Senator Charles L. McNary, means more to the senator than anything else in the world, he confided to newspaper men Saturday. "Why anyone wants to live in the congested areas is more than I can understand," McNary continued. "I am happy to be home. The turmoil and rush in Washington gets a person down."

Senator McNary declared that he had not paid much attention to politics recently and that most of his reading had to do with baseball games, boxing bouts and other sports. "I am weary of reading the Congressional Record and legislative reports," McNary said. When not engaged in entertaining visitors McNary spends much of his time walking over his ranch accompanied by Mrs. McNary and her dog, "Jack," a thoroughbred. McNary said, "but he is a true friend of the household."

Fircrone is one of the most attractive country places in the Willamette valley. A putting green and tennis court are included in the recreational features. McNary refused to discuss politics and would not comment on reports that he had been mentioned for vice-president. He has been a member of the senate for more than 18 years. During his stay in Oregon McNary seldom leaves his ranch other than to make his annual inspection of harbors and rivers in his district. McNary is planning to spend a few weeks in Honolulu before returning to Washington. The baby recently adopted by the McNarys in Washington apparently is enjoying her new surroundings. Mrs. McNary said.

Mrs. McNary, like her husband, has fallen in love with the ranch environment. The baby recently adopted by the McNarys in Washington apparently is enjoying her new surroundings. Mrs. McNary said.

Allen Brings Mammal Arts Course to Highest Efficiency MONMOUTH, Sept. 21.—Alfred T. Allen, instructor in mammal arts at Monmouth high school, has been busy for several weeks supervising installation of considerable new equipment in the work rooms, and improved lighting facilities in the mechanical drawing room.

Included in the new equipment are: A Delta drive press with routing, shaping and mortising attachments; a 5 inch, production type jointer, a new circular saw with retractable, tilting blade; and a complete paint spray outfit of compressor, gun and turbine; also a metal casting setup for use in teaching casting with flask and sand but using lead because of its comparatively low melting point.

New hand tools, lathes, hand saw and other articles of equipment bring this department to a high standard, capable of handling practically any type of woodworking. Leather Tooling Popular Mr. Allen, a member of the teaching staff for about six years, began his work in the school with no equipment, and has, by careful selection, plus the fine cooperation of the local school directors, been able to build up his department as an advanced stage of efficiency, among the best in the state.

One of his most popular classes is leather-working, in which both boys and girls participate. In his woodworking classes Miss Eunice Powell, champion 4-H club girl of Polk this year, made the hand-carved cedar chest which won high honors for her in the home beautification division at the county fair.

The senate changes came with the naming of J. G. Barrett, republican of Heppner, to succeed Jack E. Allen, of Pendleton, and Nats Booder, republican of Portland, to succeed Ashley C. Dickson. Dickson has announced he would fight to retain his seat.

Numerous Changes in House Recorded The following appointments represent changes to date in the house: J. S. McKeivitt of Eugene, republican to replace Howard Merriam, republican, recalled by Townsend pension plan supporters; Giles French, republican, to succeed Paul Lynch of Mitchell, resigned; A. S. Grant, republican to succeed J. Richard Smurthwaite, democrat, resigned; Robert Farrell, Jr., and Harvey Wells, both Portland republicans, to succeed Lew Wallace and William Johnson, democrats declared ineligible.

Wallace has just resigned from the state game commission office which caused his ineligibility and stated he would fight for his seat. Johnson also desires to be re-elected.

Farmers Winning War on Thistle On Polk Ranches

DALLAS, Sept. 21.—Family Polk county farmers have been successful in their fight to keep out Canadian thistles according to the recent survey made by K. W. Sawyer of the county agent's office. During the past two years, four or five tons of sodium chlorate have been used on some 30 farms. Of 14 farmers interviewed last week 11 reported the eradication of this weed pest.

Some have secured the best results by sprinkling it on the dry ground just before the first fall rain. October is apparently the best month. H. W. Frewing and George Shields of the Bethel community have followed the above method which completa control on two follow-up applications.

Treatments Vary Claude Larkin of Rickreall secured the best kill with an application of four to five pounds per square rod, while H. W. Clifford of Dallas obtained best results with a dry application rather than by spraying.

Others reporting almost complete kills from one application are Miles Day of Suver, Robert Mitchell, Perrydale, S. E. Barker of Zena and W. B. Allen of Oak Grove.
