Final Rites Held For Mrs. Miller

WOODBURN, Sept. 26.—Mrs. Pauline W. Miller, 78, of Woodburn, died Tuesday morning at the home of a son, Albert E. Miller, at Monitor. She was born in Wisconsin October 2, 1857. She is survived by two sons, Walter L. and Albert E., both of Monitor; and these children: Charles P. Miller of Minnesota, Mrs. Clara E. Bohn of Woodburn, John H. of Donald, Phillips W. of Massachusetts, Louise A. Miller, a missionary in India; Enalyn Bishop of Brooks, Edward Miller of Donald, and Bertha L. Miller of Illinois; several grandchildren; three brothers, W. L. Bohn of Woodburn, Herman and Edward Bohn of Iowa, and a sister, Martha E. Bohn of Iowa.

Funeral services were held from the Ringo mortuary this afternoon with interment in Belle Passel cemetery.

Plan 4-H Exhibits

ZENA, Sept. 26.—Tuesday afternoon a committee meeting was held at the home of Mrs. L. Frank Matthews to make arrangements for the lunch which the Spring Valley home missionary society serves at the E. E. Bickins farm site at Lincoln Friday. Mrs. W. W. Henry is committee chairman.

Whirlwind Carries Flame of Slashing To Set Freak Fire

MOLALLA, Sept. 26.—A freak fire at the Frank Sawtell farm south of Molalla was caused by a whirlwind Tuesday afternoon. The whirlwind picked up flames from some burning slashings and carried them a mile to deposit them in a straw barn. The straw was almost immediately a mass of flames.

Some machinery, including a separator, was also destroyed. A new-by barn caught fire several times, but the Molalla volunteer firemen managed to save this building.

Safeway Offers Coffee Contest

Contest fans will be treated to a unique type contest in Safeway Stores $150 customer coffee contest, to run during the month of October. Prizes will be awarded, not on the basis of chance or of skill, but according to the number of pounds of the firm's three brands of coffee—Airway, Nob Hill and Edwards Dependable—sold upon the recommendations of the contestants.

Fifty prizes in all are offered, with $1200 in cash prizes to be awarded as follows: First, $500; 2nd, 3rd and 4th prizes, $100 each; 5th, 6th and 7th prizes, $50 each; 8th to 17th prizes, inclusive, $25 each. The thirty-three remaining prizes will each be a copy of Julia Lee Wright's latest edition of her loose leaf cook book, personally autographed.

Induce Their Use The contest, open to everybody except employees of the company, works this way: The contestant calls at the store and asks for a supply of contest slips, these to be signed and passed out to friends and neighbors with a recommendation to try a pound of one of the three brands of coffee. When the purchase is made the slips is countersigned by the purchaser and turned in at the store, and at this point the contestant receives a credit of five points for each pound of coffee purchased.

Safeway officials predict a tremendous interest in the contest this year, since a similar contest last year proved so popular. The closing date of the contest is October 31.

Remodeling of Grocery Store Brings Monmouth First Open Style Front

MONMOUTH, Sept. 26.—The Pay 'N Save grocery here has been improved with several building changes in a day's work. An open front style, strictly modern, and the first of its sort in Monmouth, with folding doors and a partial cement floor has transformed the entrance. A larger fruit rack and new vegetable stand with spray system further improves the store which is managed by Vernon Day who came here with his family from Salem.

"No more 'by-guess-and-by-golly' baking!"
SAYS MRS. OWEN H. FLEMING, 1235 JUDSON AVE., EVANSTON, ILL.

Calumet Baking Powder is selling at New Low Prices!

A SIMPLE TWIST... and the Easy-Off top lifts off. No delay, no spilling, no broken finger-nails! AND LOOK! Inside there's a special self-leveler—so convenient as can be!

MRS. FLEMING, of Evanston, Ill., was one of the first to hear the grand news: All Calumet prices are lower!

"No need for any woman to take chances with her baking now," says Mrs. Fleming. Why does Calumet give such astonishing "baking luck"? Why is Calumet different from other baking powders on the market? It's because of the way Calumet combines two distinct leavening actions. A quick action for the mixing bowl—set free by liquid. A slower action for the oven—set free by heat. Calumet's double action is so perfectly balanced and controlled that it produces perfect leavening. And it's perfection that you can always count on.

Now! Big New 10c Can..
Calumet, the Double-Acting Baking Powder, comes in two convenient sizes. The new-size can is yours for a dime... the regular price of the Full-Pound Can is now only 25c!

And here's one of Mrs. Fleming's favorite Calumet recipes— for...
CHOCOLATE LAYER CAKE (2 eggs)
2 1/4 cups sifted Swiss-Down 1/2 cup butter or other cake flour 1 cup sugar 1 egg, well beaten 1/4 teaspoon Calumet Baking Powder 1/4 teaspoon salt 1 teaspoon vanilla
Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift together three times. Cream butter thoroughly, add sugar gradually, and cream together until light and fluffy. Add eggs and beat amount at a time, beating after each addition until smooth. Add vanilla. Bake in two greased 9-inch layer pans in moderate oven (375° F.) 25 minutes. Spread Purple Frosting between layers and on top and sides of cake. (All measurements are level.)
Calumet goes further! Only one level spoonful to each cup of sifted flour.
