Support Lacking

Heavy selling of December corn, new crop delivery, revealed that the corn market as a whole was without adequate support from buyers. Some heavy frosts were noted, but lacked the widespread

MONMOUTH, Sept. 27. - A double-deck freight car was loaded with approximately 100 head of Romney registered rams this morning at Independence, bound for Ontario, Ore., where they will be distributed for range breeding in that section.

County Agent J. R. Beck of Polk county, working in cooperation with the county agent of Malheur, arranged the sale which took practically every Romney yearling and two-year-old ram unsold to date from the flocks of William Riddell, McCaleb, Bros. A. H. Craven and G. W. Carroll. Thes, breeders retained only their sted rams and show strings; and are much gratified to make a clean sweep of remaining rams at an average price of $18 per head.
