

50th Wedding Date Observed

For T. Y. McClellans With Charles Martins Also Honored

AUMSVILLE, Oct. 8. — The golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. T. Y. McClellan and the silver wedding of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martins were celebrated Sunday with a dinner at the schoolhouse. The wedding ceremony was performed by Henry Porter.

Mrs. McClellan was attended by Mrs. Miller of Silverton, friend for 43 years. Mr. McClellan's best man was Mr. Miller of Silverton. Mrs. Martin was attended by Mrs. Ella Given. Martin chose as best man, Dr. B. F. Pound. All four people were old school mates.

Dinner Served

The wedding march was played by Miss Gwendolin Martin. A young women's quartet, Mrs. Margaret Goff, Gwendolin Martin, Charlotte Martin and Clara Dodson, sang, "Just a Song at Twilight." "Put on Your Old Gray Bonnet" was sung by Glenn McClellan and Thomas McClellan.

At the dinner, Thomas McClellan, president of the occasion was also the ninth birthday anniversary of Pauline Neal, a granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Y. McClellan. Assisting in preparing and serving the dinner were: Mrs. A. E. Bradley, Miss Viola Bradley, Miss Dorothy Potter, and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. Y. McClellan.

The tables were decorated with autumn leaves and gold and silver tapers. The rooms were decorated with vases of vine maple, zinnias, dahlias and asters.

Old Friends Participate

Among the guest list were several who had attended the wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martins 25 years ago. Dr. B. F. Pound and Mrs. O. P. Given, besides relatives. One of the guests, Mrs. Arthur Welch, of Salem, was a pupil where Mrs. McClellan taught school as a young woman in Indiana.

Among those from Aumsville attending the reception held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. McClellan, West Stayton, Sunday afternoon, were: Mr. and Mrs. Henry Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Boone, Mrs. A. J. Mountain, Mr. and Mrs. Bland Spear, Mrs. D. A. Lowe and Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Mountain. Many beautiful gifts were received by both Mr. and Mrs. McClellan and Mr. and Mrs. Martin.

Stayton Travelers Are Home After 6000-Mile Trip Without Mishap

STAYTON, Oct. 8. — Mr. and Mrs. John Dozier and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Perry returned Sunday night from a six weeks trip to Nebraska, where the Doziers have relatives and the Perrys have relatives and the Perrys went on to South Dakota and Iowa. The Doziers also visited in Iowa and Minnesota.

The trip home was made via Salt Lake and on over the mountains to Riverside, Calif., where they visited several days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Schmitt, then going to the John Braun and Frank Pietrok homes at Anaheim and the Frank Duman and Jos. Odenthal homes in Los Angeles. All were former residents of this section. More than 6000 miles was covered in the trip with no car trouble and they report a most interesting and enjoyable time.

Final Services Held For Margaret L. Hall, Of '47 Pioneer Family

INDEPENDENCE, Oct. 8. — Funeral services were held here last week for Margaret L. Hall, 92, who died September 28. Interment was in the Buena Vista cemetery. She was born in Des Moines, Iowa, in 1843, and four years later crossed the plains to the Willamette valley and Woodburn with her parents. She was educated in Philomath and in 1858 was married to Edward Cabat Hall, who died 34 years ago. One of their seven children is living, George S. Hall of Buena Vista. In 1889 the family moved to Moscow, Idaho, where she lived most of the time until her death. She leaves 11 grandchildren, 20 great grandchildren and three great great grandchildren.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, Oct. 8. — The West Salem council met Monday night with all members present. Before the council meeting took place, a taxpayers meeting was held. J. A. Gosner, chairman, read the budget, and a motion prevailed that the budget be accepted as it was read.

Clarence Mollenbier asked to have his beer vendor's license changed so that he could sell wine, and this was referred to the police committee. A letter from a volunteer fireman who served at the Gehlar fire was read. He wished to be reimbursed for the damage done to his clothing at the fire. The letter was tabled.

Talk Fire-Brigade

Mr. Mitchell gave a report on organizing a volunteer fire department. Mr. Hutton and he proposed a hose cart to be used at fires. This report was referred to a committee to see if it would change insurance rates. Ray Stumbo gave a report on the relief committee that was appointed at a special meeting last Saturday.

A special election is to be held for the citizens to vote on a loan on the mortgage for the new municipal building. Lyle Bartholomew is to be the architect for the new building.

A motion prevailed that the following serve on the election board: George Chapman, G. E. Vosburgh, John Hamby, Frank Forrester and F. O. Needham.

Queen of Hopland Has Royal Time On Trip to California But is Glad To Return to Greenland in Oregon

INDEPENDENCE, Oct. 9. — Miss Joan Dickson, queen of the second annual Hoopla Fete, returned from her trip to California and the San Diego exposition, which she won for being this year's ruler of hopland.

When asked about her trip, she replied, "Oh, I've had a wonderful time. Everyone has been so nice to me. I've seen so many beautiful places I feel as though I had been to fairyland. Sailing on the S. S. Alexander, we left Seattle September 10, first going to Victoria, B. C. This was a thrill I hadn't expected. My first experience on the ocean was not so much fun at first, but in a few days I was able to make friends and enjoyed the voyage immensely.

Surprise in Landing

"At San Francisco a group on the dock held a huge bouquet of American Beauty roses and a corsage of gardenias. I could not help but express to my friends that they must plan to meet some great personage. Imagine how surprised and thrilled I was when we landed and I found they were for me. Mr. Horst met me

Young Girls Hit On Leaving Bus

AUMSVILLE, Oct. 8. — As Emily Reynolds, 10, and her sister, Margaret Reynolds, 6, got off the school bus at their home this afternoon at 4:15 o'clock, they were struck by an automobile driven by L. D. McAllister. The accident occurred one and one-half miles west of town.

Margaret suffered a broken leg and her face was badly cut. She was taken to the Salem general hospital.

Emily was thrown across the road, but was able to get up and walk to her home, though she is reported to be suffering from shock and bruises.

McAllister is clerk in the Senator hotel here, according to report from the state police, who investigated the accident.

According to the state police, the girls went around behind the school bus and were struck as they walked out in front of the approaching car.

Sunday Services For Oak Grove Church to Begin at 10 O'clock

OAK GROVE, Oct. 8. — Robert Farmer, freshman at Willamette university, spent the weekend with his parents here.

Services begin at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, starting this month, at the Oak Grove Methodist church.

Burtis Moves Here

SHAW, Oct. 8. — Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Burtis, who have been living at Shaw for the past 10 years have moved to Salem, so Burtis will be nearer to his work as watchman at the state highway department.

Call Townsend Club

AUMSVILLE, Oct. 8. — The Townsend club will hold a meeting at the schoolhouse Thursday at 8 p. m.

Here to Make Home

KEIZER, Oct. 7. — Mrs. E. E. Burton of Danville, Kentucky, has been a guest the past week at the H. R. Irvine home. Mrs. Burton brought her grandson, Robert T. Irvine, age 11, to make his home with the Irvines, his parents having passed away within the last year. He is enrolled in the Keizer school.

Large Crowd Out For Dedication

GERVAIS, Oct. 8. — Dr. Bruce Baxter of Willamette university made the address at the dedication of the new high school building held in the auditorium Sunday afternoon. He spoke on the value of education. The program was carried out as announced except that State Superintendent of Schools C. A. Howard presented the flag in the absence of W. Hedlund and G. J. Moisan presented the picture of George Washington for Mr. Struble, who was unable to be present. On the stage were seated Supt. Howard, County School Superintendent Mrs. Fulkerson, Sam H. Brown, Dr. Baxter, A. B. Minaker, master of ceremonies, F. A. Gallegly, principal of the school, Father William S. Walsh, G. T. Wadsworth, I. V. McAdoo and members of the high and grade school boards and the city council.

The large assemblage was given the privilege of inspecting the new building and all gave expressions of satisfaction of the work done by those who had the management of the project.

Hawkins Resigns As Board Member

AUBURN, Oct. 5. — The Auburn Woman's club, owing to the employment of the greater part of its officers and members, will postpone its October meeting until November. The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs.

Teacher is Speaker

WOODBURN, Oct. 8. — The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid society will meet at the church Wednesday afternoon, October 9, at 2 o'clock. Miss Muriel White of the high school faculty will give a talk on "Health," and there will be vocal selections by Mrs. Donald Orr. Hostesses will be Mrs. E. J. Allen, Mrs. Henry Layman and Mrs. P. G. Vickers.

her, first year of school at Auburn. The G. C. Armstrong's have moved into the former residence of Harvey Armstrong who has moved into the Fruitland district.

Ben H. Hawkins has resigned from the position of chairman of the local school board. He has occupied a position on the board for the past six years. Lloyd A. Lee will take his place as chairman.

Miss Martha Wirth of this community and Claude Burford were quietly married at Vancouver, Wash., September 14. They are now residing on Monroe avenue. Several pre-nuptial affairs were arranged for Mrs. Burford.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Olmsted have moved into the place formerly occupied by the C. C. Armstrong family. Their eldest daughter, Marguerite, is beginning at the boat. San Francisco and its streets were particularly interesting to me. How each one came into Market street. Golden Gate park was a delightfully picturesque place to meander about among the palms and lovely gardens.

"As a guest of Mr. Horst, owner of the Horst company hop yard at Independence, I had the opportunity to visit two night clubs and go to a yacht club luncheon."

Miss Dickson visited Hollywood and Beverly Hills and at a concert in Los Angeles sat behind one of her favorite movie heroes, Ricardo Cortez.

Sees Exposition

"The San Diego exposition to me was much like our state fairs. Balboa park was most interesting and beautiful. While there I was a guest for dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson. Mrs. Patterson formerly lived in Independence," she continued.

"I enjoyed the trip, it was beautiful in California, but I was glad to get back home to Oregon where all the scenery is lovely and real instead of artificial," was her final comment.

Sees Exposition

"The San Diego exposition to me was much like our state fairs. Balboa park was most interesting and beautiful. While there I was a guest for dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson. Mrs. Patterson formerly lived in Independence," she continued.

"I enjoyed the trip, it was beautiful in California, but I was glad to get back home to Oregon where all the scenery is lovely and real instead of artificial," was her final comment.

Sees Exposition

"The San Diego exposition to me was much like our state fairs. Balboa park was most interesting and beautiful. While there I was a guest for dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson. Mrs. Patterson formerly lived in Independence," she continued.

"I enjoyed the trip, it was beautiful in California, but I was glad to get back home to Oregon where all the scenery is lovely and real instead of artificial," was her final comment.

Sees Exposition

"The San Diego exposition to me was much like our state fairs. Balboa park was most interesting and beautiful. While there I was a guest for dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson. Mrs. Patterson formerly lived in Independence," she continued.

"I enjoyed the trip, it was beautiful in California, but I was glad to get back home to Oregon where all the scenery is lovely and real instead of artificial," was her final comment.

Sees Exposition

"The San Diego exposition to me was much like our state fairs. Balboa park was most interesting and beautiful. While there I was a guest for dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson. Mrs. Patterson formerly lived in Independence," she continued.

"I enjoyed the trip, it was beautiful in California, but I was glad to get back home to Oregon where all the scenery is lovely and real instead of artificial," was her final comment.

Sees Exposition

"The San Diego exposition to me was much like our state fairs. Balboa park was most interesting and beautiful. While there I was a guest for dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson. Mrs. Patterson formerly lived in Independence," she continued.

"I enjoyed the trip, it was beautiful in California, but I was glad to get back home to Oregon where all the scenery is lovely and real instead of artificial," was her final comment.

Queen of Hopland Has Royal Time On Trip to California But is Glad To Return to Greenland in Oregon

INDEPENDENCE, Oct. 9. — Miss Joan Dickson, queen of the second annual Hoopla Fete, returned from her trip to California and the San Diego exposition, which she won for being this year's ruler of hopland.

When asked about her trip, she replied, "Oh, I've had a wonderful time. Everyone has been so nice to me. I've seen so many beautiful places I feel as though I had been to fairyland. Sailing on the S. S. Alexander, we left Seattle September 10, first going to Victoria, B. C. This was a thrill I hadn't expected. My first experience on the ocean was not so much fun at first, but in a few days I was able to make friends and enjoyed the voyage immensely.

Surprise in Landing

"At San Francisco a group on the dock held a huge bouquet of American Beauty roses and a corsage of gardenias. I could not help but express to my friends that they must plan to meet some great personage. Imagine how surprised and thrilled I was when we landed and I found they were for me. Mr. Horst met me

Young Girls Hit On Leaving Bus

AUMSVILLE, Oct. 8. — As Emily Reynolds, 10, and her sister, Margaret Reynolds, 6, got off the school bus at their home this afternoon at 4:15 o'clock, they were struck by an automobile driven by L. D. McAllister. The accident occurred one and one-half miles west of town.

Margaret suffered a broken leg and her face was badly cut. She was taken to the Salem general hospital.

Emily was thrown across the road, but was able to get up and walk to her home, though she is reported to be suffering from shock and bruises.

McAllister is clerk in the Senator hotel here, according to report from the state police, who investigated the accident.

According to the state police, the girls went around behind the school bus and were struck as they walked out in front of the approaching car.

Sunday Services For Oak Grove Church to Begin at 10 O'clock

OAK GROVE, Oct. 8. — Robert Farmer, freshman at Willamette university, spent the weekend with his parents here.

Services begin at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, starting this month, at the Oak Grove Methodist church.

Burtis Moves Here

SHAW, Oct. 8. — Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Burtis, who have been living at Shaw for the past 10 years have moved to Salem, so Burtis will be nearer to his work as watchman at the state highway department.

Call Townsend Club

AUMSVILLE, Oct. 8. — The Townsend club will hold a meeting at the schoolhouse Thursday at 8 p. m.

Here to Make Home

KEIZER, Oct. 7. — Mrs. E. E. Burton of Danville, Kentucky, has been a guest the past week at the H. R. Irvine home. Mrs. Burton brought her grandson, Robert T. Irvine, age 11, to make his home with the Irvines, his parents having passed away within the last year. He is enrolled in the Keizer school.

Large Crowd Out For Dedication

GERVAIS, Oct. 8. — Dr. Bruce Baxter of Willamette university made the address at the dedication of the new high school building held in the auditorium Sunday afternoon. He spoke on the value of education. The program was carried out as announced except that State Superintendent of Schools C. A. Howard presented the flag in the absence of W. Hedlund and G. J. Moisan presented the picture of George Washington for Mr. Struble, who was unable to be present. On the stage were seated Supt. Howard, County School Superintendent Mrs. Fulkerson, Sam H. Brown, Dr. Baxter, A. B. Minaker, master of ceremonies, F. A. Gallegly, principal of the school, Father William S. Walsh, G. T. Wadsworth, I. V. McAdoo and members of the high and grade school boards and the city council.

The large assemblage was given the privilege of inspecting the new building and all gave expressions of satisfaction of the work done by those who had the management of the project.

Hawkins Resigns As Board Member

AUBURN, Oct. 5. — The Auburn Woman's club, owing to the employment of the greater part of its officers and members, will postpone its October meeting until November. The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs.

Teacher is Speaker

WOODBURN, Oct. 8. — The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid society will meet at the church Wednesday afternoon, October 9, at 2 o'clock. Miss Muriel White of the high school faculty will give a talk on "Health," and there will be vocal selections by Mrs. Donald Orr. Hostesses will be Mrs. E. J. Allen, Mrs. Henry Layman and Mrs. P. G. Vickers.

her, first year of school at Auburn. The G. C. Armstrong's have moved into the former residence of Harvey Armstrong who has moved into the Fruitland district.

Ben H. Hawkins has resigned from the position of chairman of the local school board. He has occupied a position on the board for the past six years. Lloyd A. Lee will take his place as chairman.

Miss Martha Wirth of this community and Claude Burford were quietly married at Vancouver, Wash., September 14. They are now residing on Monroe avenue. Several pre-nuptial affairs were arranged for Mrs. Burford.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Olmsted have moved into the place formerly occupied by the C. C. Armstrong family. Their eldest daughter, Marguerite, is beginning at the boat. San Francisco and its streets were particularly interesting to me. How each one came into Market street. Golden Gate park was a delightfully picturesque place to meander about among the palms and lovely gardens.

"As a guest of Mr. Horst, owner of the Horst company hop yard at Independence, I had the opportunity to visit two night clubs and go to a yacht club luncheon."

Miss Dickson visited Hollywood and Beverly Hills and at a concert in Los Angeles sat behind one of her favorite movie heroes, Ricardo Cortez.

Sees Exposition

"The San Diego exposition to me was much like our state fairs. Balboa park was most interesting and beautiful. While there I was a guest for dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson. Mrs. Patterson formerly lived in Independence," she continued.

"I enjoyed the trip, it was beautiful in California, but I was glad to get back home to Oregon where all the scenery is lovely and real instead of artificial," was her final comment.

Sees Exposition

"The San Diego exposition to me was much like our state fairs. Balboa park was most interesting and beautiful. While there I was a guest for dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson. Mrs. Patterson formerly lived in Independence," she continued.

"I enjoyed the trip, it was beautiful in California, but I was glad to get back home to Oregon where all the scenery is lovely and real instead of artificial," was her final comment.

Sees Exposition

"The San Diego exposition to me was much like our state fairs. Balboa park was most interesting and beautiful. While there I was a guest for dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson. Mrs. Patterson formerly lived in Independence," she continued.

"I enjoyed the trip, it was beautiful in California, but I was glad to get back home to Oregon where all the scenery is lovely and real instead of artificial," was her final comment.

Sees Exposition

"The San Diego exposition to me was much like our state fairs. Balboa park was most interesting and beautiful. While there I was a guest for dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson. Mrs. Patterson formerly lived in Independence," she continued.

"I enjoyed the trip, it was beautiful in California, but I was glad to get back home to Oregon where all the scenery is lovely and real instead of artificial," was her final comment.

Sees Exposition

"The San Diego exposition to me was much like our state fairs. Balboa park was most interesting and beautiful. While there I was a guest for dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson. Mrs. Patterson formerly lived in Independence," she continued.

"I enjoyed the trip, it was beautiful in California, but I was glad to get back home to Oregon where all the scenery is lovely and real instead of artificial," was her final comment.

Sees Exposition

"The San Diego exposition to me was much like our state fairs. Balboa park was most interesting and beautiful. While there I was a guest for dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson. Mrs. Patterson formerly lived in Independence," she continued.

"I enjoyed the trip, it was beautiful in California, but I was glad to get back home to Oregon where all the scenery is lovely and real instead of artificial," was her final comment.

Queen of Hopland Has Royal Time On Trip to California But is Glad To Return to Greenland in Oregon

INDEPENDENCE, Oct. 9. — Miss Joan Dickson, queen of the second annual Hoopla Fete, returned from her trip to California and the San Diego exposition, which she won for being this year's ruler of hopland.

When asked about her trip, she replied, "Oh, I've had a wonderful time. Everyone has been so nice to me. I've seen so many beautiful places I feel as though I had been to fairyland. Sailing on the S. S. Alexander, we left Seattle September 10, first going to Victoria, B. C. This was a thrill I hadn't expected. My first experience on the ocean was not so much fun at first, but in a few days I was able to make friends and enjoyed the voyage immensely.

Surprise in Landing

"At San Francisco a group on the dock held a huge bouquet of American Beauty roses and a corsage of gardenias. I could not help but express to my friends that they must plan to meet some great personage. Imagine how surprised and thrilled I was when we landed and I found they were for me. Mr. Horst met me

Young Girls Hit On Leaving Bus

AUMSVILLE, Oct. 8. — As Emily Reynolds, 10, and her sister, Margaret Reynolds, 6, got off the school bus at their home this afternoon at 4:15 o'clock, they were struck by an automobile driven by L. D. McAllister. The accident occurred one and one-half miles west of town.

Margaret suffered a broken leg and her face was badly cut. She was taken to the Salem general hospital.

Emily was thrown across the road, but was able to get up and walk to her home, though she is reported to be suffering from shock and bruises.

McAllister is clerk in the Senator hotel here, according to report from the state police, who investigated the accident.

According to the state police, the girls went around behind the school bus and were struck as they walked out in front of the approaching car.

Sunday Services For Oak Grove Church to Begin at 10 O'clock

OAK GROVE, Oct. 8. — Robert Farmer, freshman at Willamette university, spent the weekend with his parents here.

Services begin at 10 o'clock Sunday morning, starting this month, at the Oak Grove Methodist church.

Burtis Moves Here

SHAW, Oct. 8. — Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Burtis, who have been living at Shaw for the past 10 years have moved to Salem, so Burtis will be nearer to his work as watchman at the state highway department.

Call Townsend Club

AUMSVILLE, Oct. 8. — The Townsend club will hold a meeting at the schoolhouse Thursday at 8 p. m.

Here to Make Home

KEIZER, Oct. 7. — Mrs. E. E. Burton of Danville, Kentucky, has been a guest the past week at the H. R. Irvine home. Mrs. Burton brought her grandson, Robert T. Irvine, age 11, to make his home with the Irvines, his parents having passed away within the last year. He is enrolled in the Keizer school.

Large Crowd Out For Dedication

GERVAIS, Oct. 8. — Dr. Bruce Baxter of Willamette university made the address at the dedication of the new high school building held in the auditorium Sunday afternoon. He spoke on the value of education. The program was carried out as announced except that State Superintendent of Schools C. A. Howard presented the flag in the absence of W. Hedlund and G. J. Moisan presented the picture of George Washington for Mr. Struble, who was unable to be present. On the stage were seated Supt. Howard, County School Superintendent Mrs. Fulkerson, Sam H. Brown, Dr. Baxter, A. B. Minaker, master of ceremonies, F. A. Gallegly, principal of the school, Father William S. Walsh, G. T. Wadsworth, I. V. McAdoo and members of the high and grade school boards and the city council.

The large assemblage was given the privilege of inspecting the new building and all gave expressions of satisfaction of the work done by those who had the management of the project.

Hawkins Resigns As Board Member

AUBURN, Oct. 5. — The Auburn Woman's club, owing to the employment of the greater part of its officers and members, will postpone its October meeting until November. The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs.

Teacher is Speaker

WOODBURN, Oct. 8. — The Presbyterian Ladies' Aid society will meet at the church Wednesday afternoon, October 9, at 2 o'clock. Miss Muriel White of the high school faculty will give a talk on "Health," and there will be vocal selections by Mrs. Donald Orr. Hostesses will be Mrs. E. J. Allen, Mrs. Henry Layman and Mrs. P. G. Vickers.

her, first year of school at Auburn. The G. C. Armstrong's have moved into the former residence of Harvey Armstrong who has moved into the Fruitland district.

Ben H. Hawkins has resigned from the position of chairman of the local school board. He has occupied a position on the board for the past six years. Lloyd A. Lee will take his place as chairman.

Miss Martha Wirth of this community and Claude Burford were quietly married at Vancouver, Wash., September 14. They are now residing on Monroe avenue. Several pre-nuptial affairs were arranged for Mrs. Burford.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Olmsted have moved into the place formerly occupied by the C. C. Armstrong family. Their eldest daughter, Marguerite, is beginning at the boat. San Francisco and its streets were particularly interesting to me. How each one came into Market street. Golden Gate park was a delightfully picturesque place to meander about among the palms and lovely gardens.

"As a guest of Mr. Horst, owner of the Horst company hop yard at Independence, I had the opportunity to visit two night clubs and go to a yacht club luncheon."

Miss Dickson visited Hollywood and Beverly Hills and at a concert in Los Angeles sat behind one of her favorite movie heroes, Ricardo Cortez.

Sees Exposition

"The San Diego exposition to me was much like our state fairs. Balboa park was most interesting and beautiful. While there I was a guest for dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson. Mrs. Patterson formerly lived in Independence," she continued.

"I enjoyed the trip, it was beautiful in California, but I was glad to get back home to Oregon where all the scenery is lovely and real instead of artificial," was her final comment.

Sees Exposition

"The San Diego exposition to me was much like our state fairs. Balboa park was most interesting and beautiful. While there I was a guest for dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson. Mrs. Patterson formerly lived in Independence," she continued.

"I enjoyed the trip, it was beautiful in California, but I was glad to get back home to Oregon where all the scenery is lovely and real instead of artificial," was her final comment.

Sees Exposition

"The San Diego exposition to me was much like our state fairs. Balboa park was most interesting and beautiful. While there I was a guest for dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson. Mrs. Patterson formerly lived in Independence," she continued.

"I enjoyed the trip, it was beautiful in California, but I was glad to get back home to Oregon where all the scenery is lovely and real instead of artificial," was her final comment.

Sees Exposition

"The San Diego exposition to me was much like our state fairs. Balboa park was most interesting and beautiful. While there I was a guest for dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson. Mrs. Patterson formerly lived in Independence," she continued.

"I enjoyed the trip, it was beautiful in California, but I was glad to get back home to Oregon where all the scenery is lovely and real instead of artificial," was her final comment.

Sees Exposition

"The San Diego exposition to me was much like our state fairs. Balboa park was most interesting and beautiful. While there I was a guest for dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson. Mrs. Patterson formerly lived in Independence," she continued.

"I enjoyed the trip, it was beautiful in California, but I was glad to get back home to Oregon where all the scenery is lovely and real instead of artificial," was her final comment.

Sees Exposition

"The San Diego exposition to me was much like our state fairs. Balboa park was most interesting and beautiful. While there I was a guest for dinner of Mr. and Mrs. Patterson. Mrs. Patterson formerly lived in Independence," she continued.

"I enjoyed the trip, it was beautiful in California, but I was glad to get back home to Oregon where all the scenery is lovely and real instead of artificial," was her final comment.