Beginning Today!

We will start the disposal of excess merchandise preparatory to our moving to our new location, on Court street, the first of the year.

Some lines we now carry will be closed out entirely, while others will be reduced to a moving point.

We will from day to day select different items from our stocks and will put these items out at a price that will move them quickly.

Every day will be bargain day at Shipley's between now and moving day. Make it a point to come in every day and see "what's new."

We will not, of course, be able to advertise all of the items to be closed out, but as an example—for today we will have—

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
If you're at the age and weight when the clatter of your frock depends on flatness of soft folds—here's your dress! That decorative jabot does more than frame the face softly, it most effectively controls too ample curves, and lends grace and dignity to the wearer. The clever panel of the skirt that rises in a slenderizing center point is very "kind" to a waistline that doesn't crave too much emphasis! The decorative little buttons running down the jabot and up the sleeves provide an opportunity for a sparkling crystal note. Choose soft drapable crepe or satin, and enjoy new poise and assurance.

Pattern 2489 is available in sizes 16, 18, 20, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 40, 42 and 44. Size 36 takes 4 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams Pattern. Write plainly name, address and zip number. Be sure to state size.

Important to send for your new Anne Adams Pattern Book for fall and winter! It pictures the newest styles and notions new fabrics and shows how you can outfit yourself and your family—easily and inexpensively. Gives pattern-designs for lovely gifts, and tells how to look more becoming in your own clothes and accessories to your own personality. Price of book fifteen cents. Book and pattern together, twenty-five cents.
