

Miss Varley Has Plans for Nuptial

AN announcement of much interest to the younger set is the engagement and forthcoming marriage of Miss Daisy Varley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Varley and James Sehon, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Sehon. The news was told at a bridge party for which Miss Elva Sehon was hostess Thursday evening at her home. The date for the wedding has been set for Thanksgiving day, November 25th. The couple are prominent in Salem, both having graduated from Salem schools. Mr. Sehon attended Willamette university and was a member of Alpha Psi Delta fraternity.

The Sehon home was attractively decorated with fall flowers, orange and yellow being the color scheme. A supper was served later in the evening.

Guests bidden were Mrs. Vern Mathis, Mrs. Robert Kitchen, Mrs. Warren Keeney, Mrs. Kenneth Barker, Mrs. Alice Turner, Mrs. J. M. Sehon and Mrs. R. C. Varley and the Misses Lucille Rolow, Elvina Kasberg, Dorothy Tucker, Gladys Hanson, Gwendolyn Hunt, Frances Stewart, Roberta Varley, Hazel Irons, Ruth Chapman, Jean Cladek, Colleen Mennis, Alice Speck and Margaret Nunn.

Girl Reserves Retreat at Chemawa

All Salem, Silverton, and Chemawa high school girls reserves are retreating at 9:30 Sunday morning to the Chemawa Indian school. Miss Elizabeth Hayes is general chairman of the committee in charge. The Salem girls with Gwen Gallaher in charge, are arranging the music. Miss Mohr and the Chemawa girls will give the worship. Miss Elaine Cowler will give the ceremonial. Miss Elizabeth Gallaher will be the principal speaker and has chosen for her subject "Ideals and Aims of the Girl Reserve Movement." Mrs. H. Jockensen, leader of the high school group, will accompany the girls. Mrs. George Lewis, Mrs. Percy Kelly, and Mrs. A. F. Hayes are furnishing the transportation.

Wallace Road—Mrs. James Imah was a charming hostess to members of the Sweet Briar club, at the initial meeting of the season, at her country home on the Wallace road, Wednesday afternoon. Election of officers was the main business of the day. Mrs. Ed Pratt, president; Mrs. Glen Adams, vice-president; and Mrs. C. C. Chaffee, secretary-treasurer. Mrs. Glen Adams will entertain the group in two weeks.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

The woman who wears size forty-odd, and thinks that daintiness and femininity aren't for her, is only fooling herself, for these charms know no age nor weight. Femininity may be definitely remedied by well-designed clothes, such as Pattern 2495. Note the slenderizing, soft-line skirt and panel which make the hips a matter of little moment, and the way the bodice ties so cleverly with soft ends over a dainty vestee of lace or metal-shot material. Aren't you already convinced that there's lots of feminine appeal in this rather dressy frock? Choose a dull satin or soft-tone crepe.

Pattern 2495 is available in sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48. Size 36 takes 4 yards 39 inch fabric and 3/4 yard 36 inch lace. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. Be sure to state size.

Important to send for your new Anne Adams Pattern Book for fall and winter! It pictures the newest styles and glorious new fabrics and shows how you can outfit yourself and your family—easily and inexpensively. Gives pattern designs for lovely gifts, and tells how to look more charming by suiting your clothes and accessories to your personality. Price of book fifteen cents. Book and pattern together, twenty-five cents.

Address orders to The Oregon Statesman Pattern Dept., 315 South Commercial Street, Salem, Ore. Make necessary enclosures. Your order will be promptly attended to. Orders customarily sent within four days from the time received by The Statesman.
