

Keizer Community Club Holds Annual Homecoming Gathering

McNarys are Club Guests

Glad From Weeks' Garden for Senator's Wife Elicit Kiss

KEIZER, Oct. 12 — The community club meeting Friday night was well attended and an interesting homecoming program was given. A short business session was presided over by Mrs. Albert Minturn, Dorothy Ralston is secretary.

A magazine exchange was announced with the club secretary in charge. A community sing was led by Dave Saucy.

Program Given
Mrs. William Blake read the program: "Past History of Keizer," Mrs. G. N. Thompson; two solos by Rogers, the first solo being dedicated to the McNary baby.

Weeks, came forward and presented Mrs. McNary with a beautiful bouquet of gladioli, and amid silence, Senator McNary stooped and placed a kiss on the brow of the little girl.

McNary then responded to the oration given them. He had attended school in the old schoolhouse which 19 years ago was replaced by the modern one. He reminisced of the early days and spoke tenderly of some scenes of his boyhood.

Refreshments were served in charge of Mrs. Roy Nelson, Mrs. H. R. Irvine and Betty Irvine, Mrs. Arch Claggett and Mrs. Ben Claggett poured and Mrs. Martin Miller (Harriet Claggett) and Mrs. Thompson served the cake.

On display in the school room were art and pencil sketches by the children, and exhibits by the boys camp cooking club, boys building club, girls' sewing club and girls' cooking club.

Mr. and Mrs. Clold Cox of Elwood, Neb., are living in the house on the old Somers place owned by Elmer Lorence, Mrs. Cox is a sister of Hayes Hibbs who also came from Nebraska and has lived here about a year.

Victor Point Place
The acreage just across from the Brewer sawmill has been purchased by Jacob Severson, who owns an adjoining farm. The property was formerly owned Herman Strom and Fred Birch has been living in the house on the place.

School children enjoyed a holiday Friday while the teacher, Miss Jeanne Oeder, attended the teachers' institute at Salem.

Veteran's Paper Issued for CCC Youths at Falls

SILVER FALLS, Oct. 12.—The first issue of "The Veterans Squawker" with Franklin P. Cain as editor, came off the press Wednesday. The paper is to be published semi-monthly at Camp Mill City. The reporters are Walter Regnall, Cecil Saulcer, Arthur Cline, Hugh Martin, Ernest Harman and John Waltrath, with the camp heads also contributing.

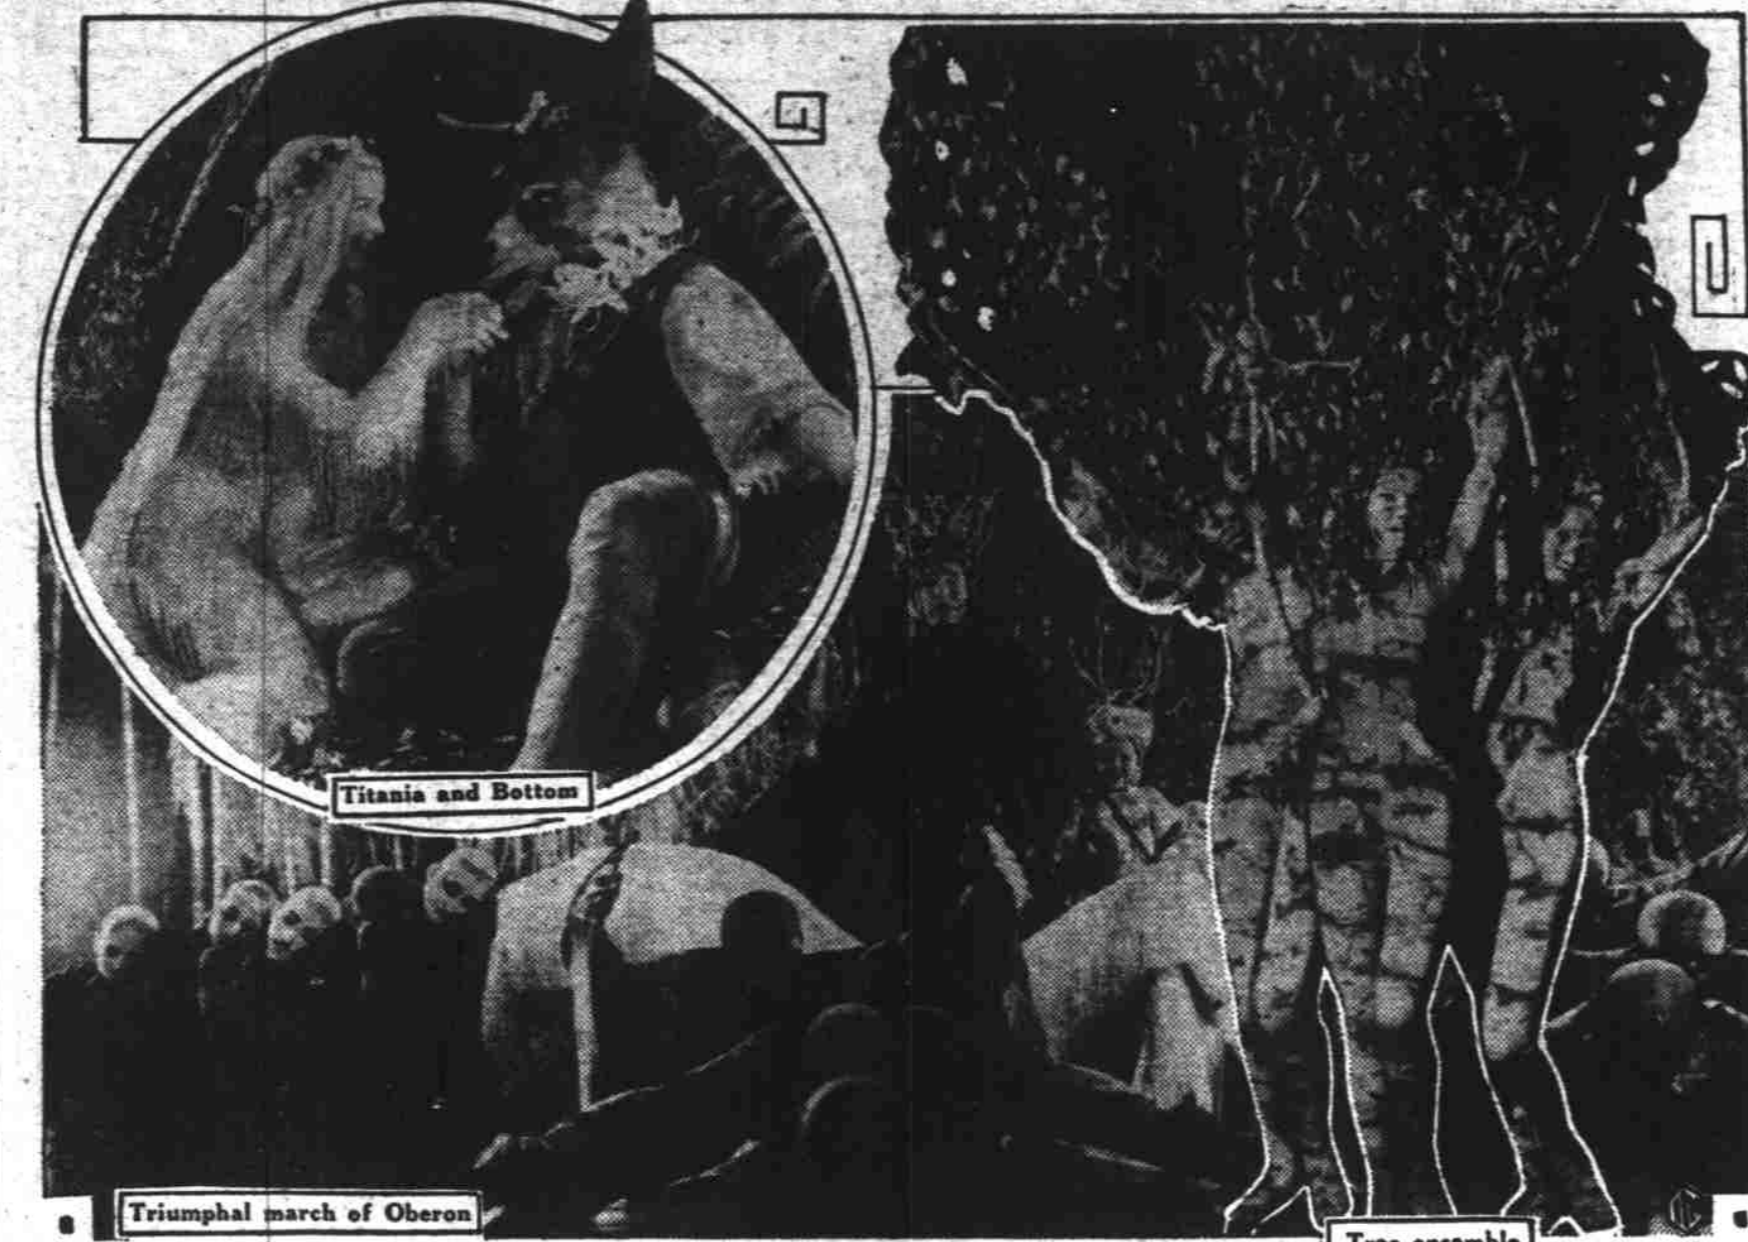

With the approach of the rainy season, remodeling of the recreation and mess hall is well under way. Weekly entertainments through the winter months are anticipated for the veterans and their friends.

Doctor Suckow has accepted the position as surgeon at Bonville dam for the national hospital association of Portland. The new physician has not yet been selected.

Tractor-Driven Plow is Latest Aid in Fighting Fire in Oregon Forests

A 70-degree V-shaped plowblade attached to a 35-horsepower tractor and so turned to cast brush, debris and small trees to the side of the fire line, is the recent development of the forest service to save time in forest fire fighting and avoid the tedious work of clearing brush ahead of plows used for fire trail construction.

Hollywood Makes History in Staging Shakespeare's Fantasy

These striking scenes from the new film version of Shakespeare's "Midsummer Night's Dream" are indicative of the spectacular and lavish scale on which the fantasy was staged. Max Reinhardt, famous European director, was brought over to supervise the production. Nijinska created the dance effects, and an all-star cast took the classic roles. The production has been hailed as marking a new milestone in Hollywood's history and ushers in a series of film versions of Shakespeare.

Hazel Green Uses New School Stage

Reception for Teachers Draws Out Large Attendance

HAZEL GREEN, Oct. 12.—The largest crowd ever assembled in the district was present Friday night at the reception to the teachers, Mrs. Ross Miles and Miss Geraldine Fry, sponsored by the community club. Mrs. Alvin Van Cleave, vice-president, was in charge.

The numbers of the program were: Flag presentation by four boys and recitation; Yoshie Yoshida; presentation of the 15 beginners and song by them with Mrs. Miles, accompanist; songs by advanced pupils and community singing. Mrs. Miles at the piano, Helea Fleming violin; a reading, Charlotte Massie; violin solo, Helen Fleming, with Eileen Clemens, accompanist.

Tells Building Costs
Kenneth Bayne, chairman of the school board, gave a report of expenditures for the addition, the magic used to balance the budget was explained. The stage is beautiful and well arranged, new windows were added to the south of advanced room, new steps to main entrance of school, a garage in basement. The wiring for the addition and added wiring for use of plate and toasters in the basement was a gift from the Japanese patrons.

The remainder of the basement has a concrete floor giving more space for a lunch room and play during winter. The primary room is using two seated desks for the first grade which adds to problems of discipline. The teacher has four grades. New single desks are needed, also the inside stairway planned for the basement. The board has applied for federal funds to paint the building inside and outside.

A rising vote of thanks was given the board for the splendid work done: Kenneth Bayne, chairman, Alois Duda, Rudolph Wacken, Herman Wacken, clerk. Decorations lovely
For the reception for the teachers, Mrs. Ross Miles and Miss Geraldine Fry, Mrs. Herman Wacken, Jr., clerk, and Mrs. Kenneth Bayne, wife of the chairman, introduced to the line. The rooms were beautifully decorated with sinias, ferns and autumn leaves. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Edward Dunigan, Jr., Mrs. Maurice Dunigan and Mrs. Julius Slatum.

How is Your Garden?

Request to Narrow Choice of Shrubs to Two Proves to Be Real Problem

By LILLIE L. MADSEN
THINGS to do in your garden this week:

This is peony planting time. It will continue peony planting time for a few weeks to come—if the weather continues too deep. Ordinary garden soil, a little on the heavy side will do nicely for peonies. It is well to add some fertilizer to the soil before planting. Be careful, if barnyard manure is used, that it is old and does not come in direct contact with the bulb. Do not set your peonies too deep. Make the leaves from your lawn. Leaves from oak trees, walnuts and many other trees do not prove helpful to lawn grass if left on the ground. Make a compact heap of the leaves or use them for mulch in the azalea bed.

Plant Hyacinths
It is time to plant hyacinths. Set them six inches deep on a little cushion of sand to insure drainage. They should be planted about six inches apart. Come spring you will be very glad you thought to set out a few of the fragrant flowering bulbs "last October."

If you have enjoyed the crocuses growing under the trees in your neighbor's lawn, you might buy a dozen bulbs and plant them now.
If your azaleas did not do so well last spring, you might try getting some aluminum sulphate and put a teaspoonful around each. At the same time try giving the laurels some too.

Hints About Roses
I went to the rose show at Portland October 4 and 5 to view what was nice in October roses. There were several things I noticed about the roses besides the names of the winners. I noticed that the Johanna Hill, a pale yellow, was one of the best keeping roses and always it was unusually lovely, attracting much admiration from show-goers. Evidently the judges agreed, for several of the Johanna Hill entries carried ribbons in their classes.

I also noted that the E. G. Hill was again among the tops of the judging. And another thing about the Hill, on the second day it was as lovely as on the first. That is something to pay attention to if you happen to be interested in roses as a cut flower. The Etolite de Hollande, which I always adore, was prone to take on a little of the bluish tint on its second day out—which is not a desirable characteristic. A lovely red rose which is not common—at least to me—was the Pres Jac Smit. The Hoosier Beauty, a red, and the Angele Pernet also attracted my eye.

Questions Answered
Question: Can I plant azaleas this time of the year and in what kind of soil? Should I mulch them?
Answer: By all means plant azaleas now if you can. The soil should be lime-free. Fertilize with a mulch of old cow manure, or leaf mould or peat moss. Do not dig the fertilizer in for fear of disturbing the roots, if the azaleas are already planted. A leaf mulch is also good.
Question: Should I prune my azaleas to make them bloom more profusely?
Answer: Azaleas should not be pruned, except to remove old blooms.
Question: You have mentioned several times a shrub with grey-green foliage, which sets its flowers in autumn and which you describe as very beautiful. I believe you said it was related to the snow-ball family. Will you tell me the name again and where it can be secured?

Answer: I believe you must mean the viburnum Carlesii. If you will send me a self-addressed envelope, I'll be glad to send you the name of a dealer.

Much Seeding is Done at Bottom

Adjoining Districts Will Meet to Organize New Club

By LUTHER CHAPIN
Staff Correspondent
CLEAR LAKE, Oct. 12.—Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Mason returned Friday evening from a hunting trip in eastern Oregon. Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Smith returned on Wednesday. They report seeing dozens of deer but very few bucks. The Smiths got one deer.
"Much of the seeding of fall crops is done in the Bottom and the recent rains wet the ground for winter plowing."
Mrs. Lottie Johnston of Portland, niece of C. C. Russell, is spending a week at the Russell home in South Bottom.
Meeting is Thursday
A joint community Townsend meeting was held at the Clear Lake schoolhouse Thursday night. Arthur Moore, district organizer, was present and gave a clear outline of the Townsend plan. It was voted to meet again next Thursday night at the same place to complete the organization. Every one interested in the movement is urged to be present. Officers will be elected at this meeting.
