Catholic Daughters Vote Financial Aid to City Library

By LORETTA E. DEHLER
 Staff Correspondent
 MT. ANGEL, Oct. 17.—Special meetings of the Young Ladies and Young Men's Societies were called this week in St. Mary's school to acquaint the members with the part the societies are to take in the coming year church bazaar, November 10 and 11. Committees were appointed to take charge of the various booths. A letter was read from Father Alcun, pastor, who is in Mexico. Father Alcun is much improved and expects to be back in Mt. Angel next Sunday. After the adjournment of the business sessions the young men and women met for a social gathering in the auditorium and dancing was enjoyed until a late hour.

Daughters Meet
 A business meeting of the Catholic Daughters of America was held at St. Mary's school Monday evening. Mrs. Valerie Begin presided. Mrs. Tillie Zollner will succeed Mrs. E. Stolle as hostess. It was decided at the meeting that the Daughters would give financial aid to the new public library.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Van Dyke and wife daughter, Charlotte Ann, of Olympia, visit: over the weekend at the home of Mrs. Van Dyke's mother, Mrs. Kate Kruse. Mr. and Mrs. Walt Clemer of Portland were also guests at the Kruse home.

Anton Risher, who was accidentally struck down by a car here Saturday, breaking his leg and causing other injuries, has developed pneumonia and is considered in a critical condition.

Heavy Machine is Stuck in Peat Bog On Jefferson Farm

NORTH HOWELL, Oct. 17.—The Hostetter ditcher and tile laying machine, which has been operating on the R. C. Jefferson farm all week, broke through the peat bog surface Tuesday afternoon and mired down in the sticky clay soil underneath.

The heavy machine was unable to move out under its own power and the situation seems rather discouraging.

Vocational Paper Is Released Here

The October issue of the Vocational Oregonian, published by the state board for vocational education, has been released from the press and copies mailed to school officials and others interested in vocational education. It was edited under the supervision of O. D. Adams, state director of vocational education. The paper contains an account of a federal survey of vocational education in Portland, a story concerning the statewide tour of Portland's George L. Baker first aid car and news of the different departments working under the state board for vocational education.

Annual Red Cross Gathering Slated

DALLAS, Oct. 17.—Members of the Polk county chapter of the American Red Cross will hold their annual meeting, Tuesday night, October 22, in the county court room, Dallas, according to Dr. A. B. Starbuck, chairman.

Plans for the roll call from November 11 to 28 inclusive, will be presented by Douglas Moore, roll call director for the Pacific branch. Moore will come to the Polk county chapter from the regional meeting being held in Portland that same day. Mrs. Charles N. Bilyeu, secretary of the chapter, expects to attend the meeting in Portland.

Under the plan followed by the Polk county chapter each branch retains its own funds and disburses same in its own community. Independence is represented by Mrs. F. W. Berry, Monmouth; by Miss Laura J. Taylor, Grand Ronde; by Mrs. Bessie Brandstetter.
