Sour Milk Recipes Center Of Round Table Discussion

SOUR MILK or cream imparts a tenderness to cookies and cakes that sweet milk cannot. There are thousands of recipes for all sorts of goodies calling for sour milk. Any of these are eligible in this week's Round Table contest.

Only one recipe from each contributor will be allowed this week. The contest ends Thursday noon, October 24, with three cash prizes to be awarded Friday morning.

Following are more pork recipes:

Roast Pork Oranges

1 loin pork
6 oranges
6 sweet potatoes
6 marshmallows
Butter
Flour
Salt
Pepper

Have a loin of pork prepared at the market with the chine bone sawed loose from the ribs. Wipe the meat with a damp cloth, dredge with flour, and season with salt and pepper. Place roast in a rack in an uncovered roasting pan. Seal for 15 minutes in a hot oven (450 degrees F.). Reduce the temperature to 325 degrees F., and continue cooking until the roast is done. Allow 30 minutes per pound for roasting.

Cut a slice off the top of the orange and scoop out the pulp. Scallop the edges with a sharp knife. Pare and boil the sweet potatoes. Mash; mix with some of the orange pulp, season with salt, pepper and butter. Fill the orange cups with this mixture and place in oven to heat two or three minutes before serving time. Remove from the oven, top each orange with a marshmallow and put back in the oven to puff and slightly brown the marshmallows. Serve orange cups around roast pork on a large platter. Serves six.

6 slices pineapple
2 stalks celery
3 or 4 peppercorns
1 slice onion
1/2 cup pineapple juice
3 cups water
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon paprika

Select shoulder end of pork. Remove bones and score skin. Make small slit in roast and insert onion, and sprinkle with salt and pepper. Brown on both sides in hot oven for 15 minutes. Lay washed prunes and pineapple slices, cut in halves around roast and add sliced celery, peppercorns, nutmeg, paprika and water. Bake three-quarters of an hour longer in a hot oven. Reduce heat, add pineapple juice, and continue roasting one and one-half hours. Serve prunes and pineapple around roast. Serves 8.
