

Annual School Budget Meeting at Woodburn Slated Saturday

$11,654 Levy May Be Made

Two Men Haled Into Court for Hunting Minus Legal Permit

By MRS. LOUISE COVEY
Staff Correspondent
WOODBURN, Oct. 18.—The Woodburn annual school budget meeting will be held Saturday afternoon in the auditorium of the Lincoln grade school building, beginning at 2 o'clock. This meeting is open to all legal voters of the Woodburn district.

The school budget will be considered and voted on. A total of $11,654 is to be raised by tax according to the published budget as prepared by the school budget committee. $4,000 of this sum is to be used to retire bonded indebtedness, $1,400 for interest on bonds, $2,000 for principal on warrants and $200 for interest on warrant used for debt service.

E. J. Allen, chairman of the school board, will preside at the meeting Saturday.

Court Cases
The following cases appeared in Judge Orerton's court the past week: Xavier Eckhout, arrested for hunting without a license, pleaded not guilty. As there was no evidence that he was not on his own property and as he stated he was shooting a hawk, the case was dismissed. Paul Bucholz was also arrested for hunting without a license and entered a plea of guilty to the charge and was given a fine of $25 and $3.25.

Carl Fessler paid a fine of $5 and $2.25 costs for driving a motor truck without clearance lights or rear light. Albin Halter paid the same amount for driving with four persons in the driver's seat of his car. Albert Anderson, arrested for driving a truck for the transportation of property for compensation without P.U.C. plates, entered a plea of guilty and paid a fine of $15 and costs.

Frank Nosack, arrested on complaint of Marie Nosack for disturbing the peace in a public place while intoxicated, pleaded guilty to the charge and was fined $10 and costs of $5.05, and sentenced to 30 days in the county jail. The jail sentence was suspended.

The first fall meeting of the Past Matrons club of Evergreen chapter, Order of the Eastern Star was held at the home of the president, Mrs. Lillian Bitney Wednesday night. A short business session was held and it was decided to plan for a kitchen sale, including aprons and useful articles for the kitchen, to be held at the annual election of officers at the Masonic temple, December 9. After the business session the members were served refreshments by Miss Gladys Adams, at an attractively arranged dining table. A lighted birthday cake was presented Mrs. Carrie Young in honor of her 80th birthday.

Celesta Made for Noted Composer is Heard at Monmouth

MONMOUTH, Oct. 18.—The Alicia McKelroy ensemble of Portland featuring five artists presented a splendid concert Wednesday night in the auditorium of the Oregon Normal school. Their instruments included a celesta, a rare instrument which Miss McKelroy explained was used in Paris about 1865. One of these instruments was made, she said, for Tschakowsky, Russian composer, who introduced it in St. Petersburg.

Women Surprise Mrs. I. Lawson

Family to Leave Soon for Eastern Oregon; Kelle Home

GATES, Oct. 18.—A large crowd composed of friends and members of the Woman's club, surprised Mrs. Irwin Lawson with a handkerchief shower and a farewell party Tuesday night at the club rooms. Mrs. Lawson was president of the woman's club last year. Mr. and Mrs. Lawson left Thursday morning for eastern Oregon. They plan to go to Idaho and different places before locating. Mrs. Lawson's son, Robert Willis, a senior in high school, will remain until school is out, with the Oliver Farman family.

Buy Lawson Place
Mr. and Mrs. C. B. McKee of Covina, Calif., have bought the Irwin Lawson place.

Oliver Farman, Howard Farman and Alwine Porter left for Marcola this week where they have employment in a sawmill. William Kelle, who is stationed at Bremerton, is home for a 10-day furlough.

Bible Meeting Slated Sunday by Evangelist For Turner Christians

STAYTON, Oct. 18.—The revival services being conducted at the Church of Christ by Evangelist Elmer Fawcett will feature a special bible meeting Sunday night on the theme "Why I Believe the Bible is the Word of God." In this message the evangelist will reveal some of the latest discoveries in the field of archeology which relate to Bible history. He will also answer the question, "Do Science and the Bible Agree?" Film slides on the history of the bible will be shown early in the service. There will also be a display of old bibles. This series of meetings will continue the next week with services each night, except Saturday, at 7:30 o'clock.

Get Two Offices
Mrs. Coble de Lespinasse of Hubbard, was re-elected grand mistress of finance at the meeting of the grand temple of Pythian Sisters held in Portland this week. She was also appointed state press correspondent for the ninth consecutive year. Mrs. Pearl Kinzer of Salem, who is a member of Arion temple of Hubbard, was elected representative to supreme temple which will be held in Detroit. She will hold the office for four years. The Hubbard lodge has the distinction not shared by any of the much larger lodges in the state of having two members in the state offices.

Visitors at Hubbard
Dr. and Mrs. G. A. F. de Lespinasse, of Tacoma, are visiting for several weeks at the home of their son, Dr. A. F. de Lespinasse. Paul Eaton and John Davidson, of C. C. Camp Lowell were house guests at the home of Mrs. Marie Claypool, formerly visiting her son, Delmar, formerly a member of the camp.

Low Water Rate Brings More Use

WOODBURN, Oct. 17.—The city council has notified property owners that they must take care of all leaves which fall on their property and parking. The city will take care of leaves falling in the streets but they will not haul away any that have been raked into the streets.

At the regular meeting of the council held Tuesday night, they agreed to extend the water service to the Lindkein home across the highway on condition that Lindkein pay $50 of the cost of extending the main along the highway, the money to be refunded if he secures two more water users within two years.

A report given by Recorder Beach said that much more water had been used during the summer this year, than during the same months the previous year, due to the lowered water rate put in effect for the summer months.

Decrease City Budget $2050

Estimated Expenditures up For Taxpayers' O. K. 7th

SILVERTON, Oct. 18.—A decrease of $2050 in the estimated budget for 1936 is shown over the 1935 budget, according to figures made at the meeting of the Silverton budget committee. This week. Estimated expenditures for 1936 total $19,195 and for 1935 they totaled $21,245.

The highest item comes under the heading of indebtedness, sewer bonds being listed at $7500. Next in line is the light item of $2200. Salaries furnishes the third highest item with the chief of police receiving $1100, the highest salary paid by the city of Silverton. The city fire department will, according to estimates, cost the city $1400, while the health and library will be held to $500.

The total maintenance and repairs, including paved streets, has been held down to $2250. For interest $1950 will be paid out during the year. Estimates for materials and supplies, which includes the light bill, is set at $3,525.

In the estimated receipts column, the road fund, from a tax levied by the county court, brings in the largest, $4000. Following second, is the redeeming of sewer bonds, $2500. The light fund, from a 2 mill tax authorized by the people, should furnish $2200, the fire fund, a one-mill authorized tax, $1100, and the park fund a one-half mill authorized tax, $510.

Serving on the budget committee were E. H. Banks, R. B. Duncan, H. B. Latham, George W. Hubbs, M. F. Conrad and Earl J. Adams.

A meeting of the levying board will be held November 7 at 7:30
