Hand-to-Mouth Grain Policy in Europe Forces Prices Down

Nations Seeking to Force Prices Down: Canada Slump Reflected .

CHICAGO, Nov. 5 .- (AP)-Indications European countries were adopting a hand-to-mouth wheat purchase policy that keeps import buying at a minimum led to lower prices everywhere today.

Chicago wheat futures fell to the lowest level in a week, following a setback at Winnipeg to 87-34 cents for May delivery, within 14 cent of the Canadian government's price to farmers for cash wheat. On the breaks in quotations, about 400,000 bushels of Canadian wheat were taken for shipment overseas.

Spasmodic rallies that ensued were reported as due to profittaking on the part of previous speculative sellers.

Wheat in Chicago closed nervous, % - % under yesterday's finish, Dec. 97 %-1/2, corn 14-% up, Dec. 58%-%, oats 1/8-1/4 off. and provisions showing 5 to 7 cents decline.

Potato Prices Set New Highs

Top is $2.50; Onions in Demand With Lack of Source Shipment

PORTLAND, Nov. 5 -(AP)- An advance of half a cent a pound in standard, prime first and first butter prices was reported by the produce exchange.

Artificial prices continued in the egg market. Eastern eggs were sold at handsome profits while the local product remained unsold and in volume, More eastern carloads were reported moving to the coast.

Apples Cornered With most of the apples held locally owned by growers, the latter were demanding higher prices with orders not to sell at current values. Recent sales were fractionally up.

Indicating the demoralized state of the local walnut trade as a result of the fight to force the co-ops out of business, was the lowest general price in years here and little desire on the part of retailers to purchase,

Comb honey was practically off the market and extracted stock is scarce and higher priced. Onions were firmer and spots a trifle higher with nothing coming from the source. Hothouse tomatoes were at the record mark for the season at 17-1/2 c, although a small volume was reported a fraction higher,

Parties Held by Strawberries in Falls Area Thought Unharmed Grade Students Due to Extreme Weather

SILVER FALLS, Nov. 5-Cold weather still prevails in the falls area. A blanket of snow remains on the trees and bushes with the autumn leaves still clinging. Long time residents do not recall an October snow. Little damage is being done to the strawberries as the fields are practically covered with a protecting coat of snow.
