DALLAS, Nov. 6.—Teachers of Polk county will hold an all day institute in Dallas, Friday, November 8, in the auditorium of the high school. Dr. Bruce Baxter, president of Willamette university, will deliver the main address.

Others appearing on the program are: Lynn Gubser, superintendent of the Yamhill county schools; Harold W. Adams, city superintendent of Corvallis and president of the state teacher's association and State Superintendent Charles A. Howard, of Salem.

Instructors listed during the departmental sessions, instructors will be Miss Blanche Dugard, Miss Neva Dallas, Miss Edith Norton, Miss Ruth McClure, Miss Merna Fletcher and Miss Florence Beardsley, all of the Monmouth Normal school. Arrangements for the institute are in charge of Josiah Willis, county school superintendent of Polk county.

With Monday, November 11, a holiday as well as Friday, school children of the county are anticipating a real vacation period.

Violet Davenport Is Recent Bride

WEST STAYTON, Nov. 6.—Violet M. Davenport and Arthur Van Den Driehche were married Thursday afternoon. The marriage was solemnized by Rev. Grover Birtchet at the First Presbyterian church in Salem.

The bride's dress was dark blue with dark accessories. Present were the groom's foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Price of Mansfield, Wash., the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Fox of West Stayton and Mr. and Mrs. Wash and son Russel. The young couple left for Mansfield Friday, where they will make their home on the groom's farm.

Mrs. O. O. Lacy and daughter Lois left the last of the week for Dundee where they will work in a walnut cannery.

Boy Scouts Meet

WOODBURN, Nov. 6.—The Panther Patrol of Boy Scouts, troop 64 of Woodburn, met at the Washington junior high school Monday afternoon with Scoutmaster Ralph Nelson in charge. All the members have passed their tenderfoot tests. Robert Renn was received as a new member and John Hanrahan was elected reporter.

Farmers' Union News

DAYTON, Nov. 6.—James Richardson, member of the Unity local farmers' union, who left here October 20, accompanied Bruce Struve of Sherwood in a truck loaded with six tons of dried prunes to be disposed of in North Dakota, is near home on his return. The prunes sold well and the two men attended the farmers' union state convention at Dickenson, N. D., and report an interesting meeting.

Enroute they were in the earthquake at Helena, Mont. The highway is in good condition and where needed is cleared of snow every day.

BETHEL, Nov. 6.—W. C. Johnson was voted into the membership of Bethel local of the Farmers' union at the closed meeting held Monday night. Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Runner were given the obligations of the organization.

J. R. Carruthers lead the group singing. Mrs. Harry Martin and Mrs. Clare Strawn were in charge of refreshments. The Strawns were accompanied by relatives from McLaughlin, S. D. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Strawn, Lorraine, Billy and Raymond Strawn, who plan to make their home in the vicinity if they can find a suitable location.

SWEGLE, Nov. 6.—A delightful program was presented at the Swegle community club meeting Friday night by Mrs. C. B. Mudd, pianist; Mrs. Clarence Bowes, violinist, and Mrs. Avis Cannon, flutist. Mrs. Mudd also gave some readings. Refreshments were served.

RICKEY, Nov. 6.—Douglas Flood as a soloist, and Jeroldine Killinger as a yodler, will be two of the new artists that will be featured at the community club meeting Friday night. Mrs. A. E. LaBranche, Laura Crabb and Mrs. M. M. Magee are in charge of the program; Loyal Sheridan and Mrs. W. Flood, refreshments, and Mrs. R. Ficus, Mrs. W. H. Humphreys and Mrs. P. B. Beck, reception committee.

Each family is asked to bring one-half dozen sandwiches and a pie. Admission is free and the public is invited.

Delegates Report About Convention

MONMOUTH, Nov. 6.—A mass meeting of Monmouth citizens and Townsend club members was held Tuesday night in the high school gymnasium to welcome Monmouth's Townsend delegates, Arthur Moore, joint regional organizer of Townsend Congressional district No. 1, and Mrs. Inez Miller, vice president of the local club, who represented Monmouth's organization at the Chicago convention.

Interesting sidelights of the convention were portrayed by each of the delegates, and both expressed a firm conviction that the Chicago convention was highly profitable toward strengthening the Townsend cause, and that success will attend their hopes not later than 1938. Cheers from the audience punctuated their statements.

Moore related that the hotel management which housed the thousands of delegates, expressed amazement when liquor sales of the huge establishment registered only one per cent greater throughout the convention than normally. Visitors at last night's meeting included E. A. Weddle, an Independence delegate, who also spoke briefly. Thomas H. Gentle presided. The Monmouth club will sponsor an oyster supper next Tuesday night.

Liberty Sunday School Takes Two Banners at Gathering For District

LIBERTY, Nov. 6.—Liberty Sunday school was well represented at the semi-annual convention of the Red Hills S. S. district at Salem Heights Sunday, and received the award given to the school with largest attendance present. Turner Tells About Ethiopia

Dallas Woman's Club Also Observes Art Week at Session

DALLAS, Nov. 6.—R. R. Turner, city school superintendent, was the speaker for the November meeting of the Dallas Woman's club, Tuesday afternoon in the library hall. Turner presented "The Ethiopian Situation": relating the past history of this hitherto little known nation. He stated that Ethiopia is unique in many ways; it has never known a famine, depression or unemployment; it has been a Christian nation longer than any other and never under the rule of any other country.

He outlined the events since 1850 which have led up to the present time, with Italy now invading Ethiopia for the purpose of adding this country to other African owned territory, both for the purpose of expansion of its population and natural resources.

Observe Art Week In observance of national art week, Mrs. Oscar Hayter told of the life of Vermeer, the Dutch painter, and exhibited a number of his pictures which showed his tendency to depict interior scenes and persons in home occupations. Miss Nadine Milhollen, a member of the high school faculty sang two vocal solos accompanied by Joseph Hartley.

Mrs. William Swindells, chairman of the finance committee reported that three benefits have been planned for the winter, the first will be the Oregonian cooking school at the Christian church, Wednesday afternoon, November 20; the second locally produced play, "Casey's Trial", at the Majestic theater, December 12, and

Mary Cummins to Reside in Kansas

Jefferson, Nov. 6 — Mrs. Mary Cummins, a resident here for about 30 years, expects to leave soon for Sterling, Kan., where she will make her home with her brother, W. J. Barron.

She is selling all of her household goods at her home. Mr. and Mrs. Kari Kihns entertained Sunday with a family dinner, at their home on the Greens Bridge road. Covers were laid for

Mr. and Mrs. Lauren Stettler of Chemawa, Miss Laura Kihns of Salem, Walter Kihns of Scio, Miss Helen Kihns, George and John Kihns and Mr. and Mrs. Kihns.

Mr. and Mrs. Clintor Hart, who have been taking care of Mrs. Main's property here while she is away from home, are moving to the E. C. Hart farm near Greens Bridge.

Rev. J. M. Hill, pastor of the local Christian church, has leased Mrs. Josie Looney's property north of the schoolhouse and expects to move his family from Eugene next week. The interior is being redecorated before the family moves.

The school clerk has completed taking the census and reports 139 children in the district, an increase of seven over last year. The Methodist Brotherhood met Monday night at the church with George Lewis of Sitka, Alaska, who is attending Willamette university, as guest speaker. Music was furnished by the Crawford school boys' quartet and vocal and violin solos by Mr. Lewis.
