Liberty.—A wedding of much local interest is that which united Miss Mildred Ruth Banks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Banks of Ukiah, Cal., and Glen Marshall Leek of Liberty, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Leek, in the First Christian church of Eugene Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. Dr. A. H. Chapman of Northwest Christian college read the impressive double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a floor-length dress of white mousseline de soie with waist length veil of net and silver cloth. She carried an arm bouquet of autumn flowers. Preceding the ceremony which took place before an altar decorated with beautiful autumn leaves and banded with fern, the candles were lighted by Ray M. Heckart, brother of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Smith sang "Till the Sands of the Desert Grow Cold" with Mrs. Ed Caldwell, accompanist.

The wedding was followed by an informal reception. The bride's cake was cut by Mrs. Ray Pemberton. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Frank Barnett, Mrs. J. V. Chandler, Miss Grace Chandler and Mrs. Glen Barnett. A special honor guest was Mrs. M. E. Cole, 90, of Portland.

Those attending from here were Mr. and Mrs. Leek, Hazel and Mildred Leek, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Sargent, the Misses Echo, Wilma and Mary Sargent, Miss Laura Anderson and Frank Hauser.

Following a wedding trip to the coast the young couple will be at home at 245 East 11th street, Eugene. Both will continue with their studies at the Eugene Bible Institute. Mr. Leek is a graduate of Salem high school and was prominent in local church and Christian Endeavor circles and the First Christian church in Salem.

Wacoona.—Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Brundage were hosts at a "500" party Saturday night. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. Stafford, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Felton, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Glrod, M. and Mrs. Julian De Jardin, Mr. and Mrs. Allyn Nusom, all of this community, Mrs. Leslie Roll of Rochester, N. Y., and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Brundage.

High score was won by Mrs. Stafford and Allyn Nusom. Mrs. Felton and C. M. Hall received low score.

Sunnyside.—The marriage of Miss Esther Lorene Heckart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Heckart, to Kenneth Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Cole, was solemnized at a lovely candlelight ceremony Saturday night at the home of the bride at Sunnyside. Rev. Guy Drill read the service at 7:30 o'clock before a large group of relatives and close friends.

The bride wore a floor length dress of white mousseline de soie with waist length veil of net and silver cloth. She carried an arm bouquet of autumn flowers. Preceding the ceremony which took place before an altar decorated with beautiful autumn leaves and banded with fern, the candles were lighted by Ray M. Heckart, brother of the bride.
