

Meyer Store Here 5 Years

Helps Parent Institution Celebrate 13th Year, Next Ten Days

The Salem store of Fred Meyer, Inc., 170 North Liberty street, itself five years old, will help Meyer celebrate his 13th year in business in Oregon by staging an anniversary sale for ten days beginning today. It was announced yesterday by M. R. Milburn, Salem store manager. Milburn opened Meyer's first store here and continues to direct it.

"Mr. Meyer opened his first store 13 years ago in Portland," Milburn recounted. "It was a general food market and, as Fred Meyer stores remain today, it was independently, home owned in Oregon."

"These stores are operated with an interest in reaching the consumer's cost of living. Standard goods, Oregon made wherever possible, are offered at reasonable prices. Large quantities buying makes this possible."

Foodstuffs sold by Fred Meyer average 95 per cent Oregon products, according to Tony Elia, food division manager of the Salem store. At least 75 per cent of all Meyer stocks are Oregon products, Milburn estimated. Fred Meyer purchased his first store here five years ago July 15 and, when it was burned out by the Breyman block fire, opened the present store in its central location three years ago. So heavy has its patronage become that extra clerks have been added in both the general drug, candy, tobacco and cosmetics department and in the food division. This store will be closed Monday, Armistice day.

Help Celebrate

They'll help Fred Meyer, independent Oregon merchant of drugs, sundries and foods, celebrate his 13th anniversary in the business by giving Salem residents special bargains for ten days beginning today, says M. R. Milburn, above, manager, and Tony Elia, below, food division manager, of the Salem Fred Meyer store.
