Two Youths Face Car Theft Charge

Shields and Schenck Are Arrested at Training School; Bail High

WOODBURN, Nov. 1. - Ray-mond Shields and Robert Schenck, escaped from the state training school several weeks ago and stole the A. L. Harader car, were arrested at the school to which they had been returned, and appeared in Judge Overton's court to answer to the charge of having in their possession a stolen motor vehicle. They will have a preliminary hearing November 19 at 10 a. m. Their bail was fixed at $1000 and they were committed for examination to the sheriff at Salem.

Willard Johnson Robertson appeared in Judge Overton's court to answer to the charge of driving at night without a rear light. He entered a plea of guilty and was given a fine of $5 and costs, which was suspended due to the destitute circumstances of the family.

Alvin Leroy Miller, arrested for driving with no operator's license, entered a plea of guilty and was fined $5 and $3.25 costs which he could not pay and was committed to the county jail.

James Andra Crockett was also wiven a jail sentence after pleading gellty to a charge of driving with no muffler on his car. He was fined $5 and $3.25 costs, which he was unable to pay.

George Campbell, arrested for driving a four-wheeled trailer attached to his car, with no license plates on the trailer, paid a fine of $5 and costs of $2.25.

Arthur Carl Sugai entered a plea of guilty to the charge of driving a truck for compensation without having a chauffeur's license. He paid a fine of $5 and costs of $2.25.

Wesley A. McDaniel entered a plea of guilty to the charge of driving a motor truck at a speed of 47 miles an hour and paid a fing of $5 and costs.
