

Better Homes and Gardens Club of Cloverdale Region Active

Teacher Club Studying Art

Rural School Boys Taken to Turner for Hoop Practice Weekly

CLOVERDALE, Nov. 16.—The B. C. Teachers' club met Tuesday night at the Cloverdale school house. They began their study of art and their first project will be painting plaques, directed by Mrs. Agnes Booth.

Those present were: Ethel L. Galpin of Sunnyside, Helen Kins of Jefferson, Leota Sloan, Lottie Black and Mary F. Gibson of Marion, C. D. Chorpensing of West Stayton, Emily Van Santen and La Verna Whitehead of Turner, Agnes Christina Wadsworth Booth of Salem Heights, Cyette Barnett and Arthur W. J. Bestwater of Cloverdale.

The club will meet again November 26 at 7:30 p. m. in the Cloverdale school house. All surrounding teachers are invited.

Arthur Bestwater takes five of the Cloverdale boys into Turner every Wednesday for basketball practice. They are Gordon Kunkle, John Schifferer, Russell Fisher, Lowell Hadley and Herbert Booth.

Boys are selected from the fifth to the eighth grades from Turner and each of the surrounding schools and meet at Turner where they choose sides for practice.

Prof. L. J. Urhammer is coaching them. This is to prepare the boys for their high school basketball career. The children are enjoying it greatly.

William Anderson left for Lansing, Mich., Wednesday night, where he will spend Thanksgiving with an older sister and other relatives. He was born in Michigan but left almost 50 years ago and this is his first trip back there.

He will return via California where he will stop at Ventura for Christmas with three of his daughters and his son.

Garden Club to Meet
The Better Homes and Gardens club will meet at Mrs. J. W. Schifferer's home next Tuesday afternoon. Any one interested in flowers is invited. Each person is to bring one bulb for exchange.

Mrs. Winnie Weishaar and Mrs. James of Medford were guests of Mrs. Herman Wipper the first of this week, while enroute to Portland.

Back From California

STAYTON, Nov. 16.—Mrs. Frank Lindeman and Mrs. Kate Boedighelmer have returned from a trip to Los Angeles and Sacramento, Calif.

Lettermen Club at Hubbard High Taking Steps to Become Service Organization for Entire School

HUBBARD, Nov. 15.—Members of the "I" club, the lettermen's association of the Hubbard high school, are formulating plans for becoming the service club of the school. They will make an effort to increase interest in athletics, both in the student body and the community as a whole.

Care of athletic equipment and a general building up of the athletic facilities of the plant will also be part of their objective. Their plans include writing a history of the athletic events of the school and keeping a record of the current athletic affairs.

S. W. Maupin of Woodburn, was chief speaker at the meeting of the Hubbard Townsend club held Wednesday night, at the city hall. Maupin, who was a delegate to the recent Town-

Business Club Hear Speakers

INDEPENDENCE, Nov. 16.—The Independence chamber of commerce met Tuesday night in the basement of the Presbyterian church for dinner and business meeting. The program of the evening was made up of three local speakers. Mr. E. A. Weddie, president of the Townsend club, gave a report on his trip at the convention, his report was on the scenic part of his trip.

Coach Loren Mort was cheered over his team victory over Dallas on Armistice day. He gave a short talk on the games played this year and the good cooperation and sportsmanship of this year's team.

At a recent meeting a motion had been made to investigate whether the first and third Tuesdays would be a better meeting night than the second and fourth Tuesdays. Investigation revealed that the Eastern Stars and Rebels met on alternate Tuesday nights, so a motion was made not to change the regular meeting time.

There was a short discussion on the local labor relief program. The chamber is trying to aid local needy people to get work here instead of outside help.

President Maurice J. Butler was able to preside at the meeting. He has been confined with rheumatism for about a month. He appointed Howard Dickson, R. K. Montgomery, Bert Percy and J. H. Hart to the Greater Williamette Valley committee. Principal Paul E. Robinson was announced the champion of the Oak Knoll Golf tournament.

Next meeting date coming so near the Thanksgiving vacation, a motion was made to omit this meeting. The second Tuesday in December will be the next date.

Mrs. Ray Lacey to Head Kingwood Club

KINGWOOD, Nov. 16.—Matrons of the Book and Thimble club were entertained Thursday afternoon at the first meeting of the season by Mrs. Ray Lacey. In addition to a full attendance of the club membership, Mesdames Handley, Saunders and Dalton Castle were invited guests.

Annual election of officers resulted in the selection of Mrs. Lacey as president, Mrs. Fred Kubin secretary and Mrs. Charles Adams treasurer.

Mrs. Adams will be hostess on Thursday, November 27, with Mrs. L. F. Brown and Mrs. Ross Damrell in charge of entertainment.

Turner High School Plans High Jinks

TURNER, Nov. 16.—The high school will put on their annual carnival Friday night, November 22, at 7:30 o'clock, with a short program given in the auditorium, which will include two short plays and music; basket ball games will follow in the gym, also other attractions will occupy various booths.

Asylum is Setting For School Farce

"One Mad Night" Mystery Play Will Be Given December 6

SILVERTON, Nov. 16.—"One Mad Night," a mystery farce, will be presented at the Silverton high school December 6, according to announcements by Guy DeLay, dramatic coach for the school.

Fourteen characters have been chosen with Glenn Bridwell, who distinguished himself as mayor of Silverton, taking the lead. Others taking part include Robert Yukum, Frank Vaughn, Lyle Pettyjohn, Lyle Specht, Henry Holstad, Margery Hillman, Lois Gay, Alice Miles, Jean Tomison Irma Boesch, Maxine Mann, Ruth Farnroe and Bob Hauge.

Committees selected to arrange the affair include: Costumes Mary Alfred, Janet Comstock, Ruth Shepherd, Josephine Spencer; properties, Macine Morgan, Vance Lee, Mary Jane Nofsker, Mary Ellen McClain; stage setting, Virginia Brown, Arland Schwab, Margery Inman, Eleanor Bolme. Directors, Eileen Stanton, Ruth Nelson, Beatrice Leonard, Ruth Thompson. Lights, Glenn Bridwell, Carl Schuster, Arland Schwab. Music, Louise Holm, Frank Holstad, Betty Frances, Opal Bolme.

The setting of the play is in an insane asylum and many of the cast will take the parts of inmates.

Digerness Closing Estate And May Leave Silverton

SILVERTON, Nov. 16.—To close the N. Digerness store estate, Knute Digerness, who has been acting as manager since his father's death will hold a sale lasting the remainder of this month and throughout December. Digerness purchased the store some 25 years ago and it has been managed by some member of the family continuously since. Knute Digerness intends to close the store. It is understood that he does not intend to leave Silverton.

Robbins Entertain

OAKDALE, Nov. 16.—Mr. and Mrs. Reese Robbins entertained with dinner in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Robbins of Spokane Tuesday. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bird of Pioneer, Mr. and Mrs. Art Becker and son, Billie, and Paul Robbins. Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Robbins returned home Wednesday.

Car Demonstration Leads to Injuries When Fog Comes in

GERVAIS, Nov. 16.—Ross E. McDougall is recovering from a sprained neck and left shoulder he sustained while out for a demonstration in a Chevrolet coupe. While driving they encountered a dense fog, the hind wheel struck a low guard over a small culvert overturning it. McDougall was more injured than the salesman or the car.

Speaker Set for Townsend Meet

TURNER, Nov. 16.—Turner Townsend club will meet Tuesday night, November 19, with a program of music, both vocal and instrumental, and a guest speaker.

The public is welcome to attend. Mrs. R. J. Watson has closed her home as has been her custom for the past two winters, and gone to Portland to reside with her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Freedon, till spring.

Mrs. Frank Baker, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Lyle and Keith Roberts, all of Portland, and at one time residents of Turner, attended the burial service for G. W. Moore, at Twin Oak cemetery Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. George Brower has been called to Astoria for an indefinite stay with an invalid sister, Mrs. Lilly Hansen.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bear and young son, Billy, returned this weekend from a ten-day stay at Newport. They met several residents known to Turner people.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Palmer and daughter, Peggy, also Eber and Westley Cornelius and Miss Martha Cornelius, who are relatives of T. B. Funston, Turner resident, and Willard B. Bear, who is a member of the Newport high school faculty.

Quilting Party Held At Pioneer Residence

PIONEER, Nov. 16.—Mrs. Roy Kinlon entertained with a quilting for her sister, Miss Marie Thies, Thursday afternoon at her home. Those who helped quilt were Mrs. Will Thies, Mrs. Dorel Bird, Mrs. John Keller, sr., Mrs. Chet Neswald, Mrs. Howard Coy, Mrs. Will Kinlon, Mrs. Robert Hughes, Mrs. Steve Thies, Mrs. Andrew Thies, Mrs. Johnnie Keller, Jr., Mrs. Frank Dornhecker and Mrs. Clyde Robbins. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

Leonard Mummert, who went to Sioux City, Ia., a few weeks ago to help husk corn, returned this week. His brother-in-law returned with him.

Johnstons Make Changes at Home

Community Club Women of Lyons Surprise Mrs. McCall

LYONS, Nov. 16.—George Huffman returned home this week from eastern Oregon where he has been stationed with a CCC camp. He doesn't expect to go back to the camp work this winter.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Johnston are making considerable improvements in the interior of their home. G. P. Johnston is helping.

Miss Clea Crabtree spent several days visiting relatives in Portland the past week.

Surprise Mrs. McCall
The women of the community club met at the home of Mrs. Stacey McCall Wednesday afternoon, surprising her in honor of her birthday.

J. H. Johnston is having the house occupied by L. C. Trask wired for electricity. Ted Taylor of Stayton is doing the work.

Dallas Children Awarded Prizes

DALLAS, Nov. 16.—After a delay of some two weeks due to the weather conditions, the annual Halloween parade for the school children was held Thursday evening. Because of rain it was necessary to have the children assemble in the junior high gymnasium and then march across the stage of the auditorium for the judging of costumes. Prizes are awarded in each room for the best witch, ghost, pumpkin, ugliest mask and most original costume. A grand prize for the second consecutive year was awarded to Phyllis Dickey, who wore a modified ballet costume of laurel leaves and holly berries. The event is sponsored by the American Legion and prizes donated by the merchants.

Wedding Date Set for Sublimity Couple at St. Boniface Church

SUBLIMITY, Nov. 16.—Adolph H. Riesterer and Miss Monica Blades of Aumsville are to be married on Tuesday, November 19, at 9 o'clock, at the St. Boniface church here.

Lawrence Hendricks of Sublimity and Miss Rose Baker of Estacada, will be married in the near future.

Remodeling Talk Heard From Aid

RICKREALL, Nov. 16.—The Rickreall Ladies' Aid held its first meeting Wednesday in their new meeting place. After a brief business session, a new flower committee was appointed: Mrs. W. O. Hill, Mrs. Mary Burch, Mrs. J. O. Price. Remodeling the interior of the church was thoroughly discussed. Miss Caroline Burch was appointed to investigate costs of a kitchenette and chimney.

The Christmas party will be held in the church with a covered dish dinner at 1 p. m. and an exchange of gifts. Each member is requested to bring a cash donation to finance purchase of silverware. Committees appointed by the president are: Tree, Mrs. Derrell Hewitt; tables, Mrs. W. C. Kester, Mrs. T. W. Burch, Mrs. E. A. Hamilton; decorations and gifts, Mrs. V. A. Fox; table decorations, Mrs. T. W. Burch; coffee, Mrs. Jennie Dempsey.

The group decided not to work with the Red Cross. The men are to be entertained some time in January.

Development Club in Favor of Association

GERVAIS, Nov. 16.—The Gervais community Development club met Wednesday night at the Gervais Star office. Two major items of business were discussed, the holding of auctions at stated intervals and the endorsement of the Greater Willamette association. The next meeting is set for Wednesday night, November 27.

Presbyterian Club to Hold Annual Affair

INDEPENDENCE, Nov. 16.—The Presbyterian Needlecraft club met at the home of Mrs. A. B. Robinson Thursday afternoon for work and a social time.

The club members have set December 4 as the date of their annual bazaar, which will be held in the basement of the church. The bazaar will begin at 1:30 p. m. Starting at 5:30 p. m., a chicken dinner will be served by the ladies of the church.

New Dancing Class Started at Stayton

STAYTON, Nov. 16.—Miss Dorothy Smith who had been conducting tap dancing classes here has started a class in ball room dancing. Classes are held each Friday night at 7:30 at the Forrester hall.

Style Award Goes to Graham

Visit Portland Automobile Show Nov. 16-23 Inc., and COMPARE

LODER BROS. 445 Center Street Marion and Polk Counties

THE WORLD TODAY

Challenges You to Serious Thought and Study

Are you Worried, Anxious, Discouraged, Perplexed? Tired or Happy, You will find the BIG TABERNACLE full of good cheer and friendship and lots of music. In other words you will feel at home with the VENDEN BROS.

Students of History, Prophecy and Current World Problems Bring Your Bible and Study With Them

BIG TABERNACLE

Cottage and Marion Streets - - - - - Salem

YOU ARE WELCOME

D. E. VENDEN

M. L. VENDEN

Singing Evangelists

Opening Night, Sunday, Nov. 17

SEATS ARE FREE

The committee appreciates this opportunity of introducing to the city of Salem the VENDEN BROTHERS EVANGELISTIC COMPANY, promising a treat that will long be remembered. These men are Bible students and forceful speakers. We take great pleasure in introducing this organization to your city.

Signed—E. L. NEFF, Chairman—H. C. KEPHART, Secretary

L. M. SELTZER

and Bible Lecturers

BRING YOUR FRIENDS

AT THE PIANO

This Evangelistic Company is very fortunate in having Mr. L. M. Seltzer, a pipe organ and piano artist from Chicago. He is a special attraction to music lovers wherever he goes. He will be at the piano every night. Be sure to hear him and the Venden Bros. with their lively song service, solos and duets.