

Students at Salem Heights Hold Exhibit During Book Week

Authors Are Studied Too

British Possessions Theme of Debate With Liberty

SALEM HEIGHTS, Nov. 25.—Book week was observed last week in the Salem Heights school, reports Mrs. Agnes Booth, principal. Study of American authors and book reports were made by the advanced grades. Miss Luetta Baker, instructor of the third and fourth grade, exhibited articles made by her students, each one characterizing the book each student had read for book week. The exhibit was excellent and decidedly interesting, showing much thought and preparation on the part of the children. An interesting item is the number of books read by the entire student body, 175 being the total.

Organize Club Work

The 4-H club girls group has organized again this year, the girls choosing cooking as their project. Leaders chosen for this group are the Misses Dorothy and Edith Douglas. Officers elected are Mildred Rothweiler, president; Louis Hansen, vice president; Patsy Manning, secretary-treasurer; Margaret Kasberg, reporter.

Students in Debate

A debate was held by Salem Heights Friday afternoon with Liberty school. The topic, Resolved—"That India is More Important to Great Britain than her African Possessions." Students from Mrs. Smith's room took the negative, with Liberty school taking the affirmative. The Liberty team was Woody Carson, Muriel Baker and Ruth Brownlee; the Salem Heights team, Jean Gordon, Bob Vogt, Wendell Trudgode, Charles Beardsley acted as chairman. Rehearsals will start this week on the Christmas program to be given December 19. Casts will be chosen and plans laid this week. Mr. Jones, the school janitor, is ill with influenza. He is improving but the 4-H boys' woodwork class will be discontinued until his return.

Polk Jerseys Now Hold Nine Records

DALLAS, Nov. 25.—Polk county Jerseys now hold nine of the 18 butterfat records for the entire Jersey breed. Of nine records for animals milked for a full 365 days, four were in Polk county. In the 305 day class, or farmer's class, five of the nine records are credited to Polk county. These are held by Harry D. Illiff, M. N. Tibbles, L. A. Hurlburt and F. A. Lynn, the one held by Lynn has been standing for a number of years, and the others may continue to do so, since they are of unusually high.

In the 365 day class the owners and records are as follows:

- H. D. Illiff, senior yearling, 829 pounds butterfat.
- M. N. Tibbles, senior 2-year-old, 939 pounds butterfat.
- F. E. Lynn, junior 3-year-old, 994 pounds butterfat.
- L. A. Hurlburt, senior 3-year-old, 1055 pounds butterfat.

In the 305 day class the records held by Polk county herds are:

- H. D. Illiff, senior yearling, 742 pounds butterfat.
- H. D. Illiff, junior 2-year-old, 689 pounds butterfat.
- H. D. Illiff, senior 3-year-old, 926 pounds butterfat.
- L. A. Hurlburt, senior 2-year-old, 865 pounds butterfat.
- L. A. Hurlburt, mature cow, 893 pounds butterfat.
- L. A. Hurlburt, has a mature cow that has produced more milk in 305 days than any other Jersey of any age, having produced 19,922 pounds of milk in ten months.

Joint Community and Pension Club Takes in Group of 31 Members

CLEAR LAKE, Nov. 25.—The special meeting of the joint-community-Townsend club held at the Clear Lake schoolhouse Sunday afternoon drew a full house. Dr. H. C. Epley brought his Townsend chorus of 56 members and furnished a delightful program of chorus numbers and a solo, "The New Jerusalem," sung by Mr. Friesen. Mrs. Roy Essen of North Howell, gave two readings. Dr. Epley gave a forceful address on the Townsend plan. Thirty-one new members were secured. The next meeting will be held in about two weeks, the place to be announced later.

Grangers' News

LIBERTY, Nov. 25.—The Red Hills grange will meet Tuesday night at 8 o'clock. All members are urged to attend, as a vote will be taken on the proposed building site.

RICKREALL, Nov. 25.—A 7:30 o'clock dinner, cooked and served by the men, was a decided success Friday night at the grange meeting. The men left the kitchen in "apple pie" order and were awarded a rising vote of thanks by the women.

Open house, which was to have been held Friday night in Rickreall, has been postponed until some time in January on account of conflicting meetings.

It was decided to hold Thanksgiving dinner in the hall this year serving at 1 p. m. and spending the afternoon in a social way.

R. W. Hoeg, legislative chairman, made an interesting outline of some of the measures passed at the recent legislative session.

Choir Practicing For Yule Concert

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 25.—William Popp of Portland, who owns the property now being rented by Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Ferschweiler, has traded this property for land near Portland. Mr. and Mrs. Ferschweiler are preparing to move soon. The new owners will move in about December 1.

The St. Louis choir began practice on the Mass of the Resurrection by Daniel H. Wilson, which they will sing for Christmas. The choir members include: Tenor, Joe Schomus; bass, Dave Dubois; soprano, Hazel Laschepelle, Alvin Manning and Francis Saalfeld; altos, May and Adaline Manning; Mrs. Joe Schomus, organist.

Alvin Manning has completed work on his new chicken house which will accommodate 500 hens. He is now plumbing this building.

Church Honors Early Member

Esson Stresses Growth in Address at Annual Homecoming

By LILLIE L. MADSEN
SILVERTON, Nov. 25.—Mrs. John Wolfard, present at the 11th annual homecoming of the Christian church at Silverton, held Sunday, is the only living charter member of the church. It was organized at Silverton 47 years ago. Fred Mascher, another charter member, died some months ago.

Special honor were given others who have been long time members of the Christian church either at Silverton or elsewhere. Mrs. Lettie Burch, 87, first joined the church in 1874 at Vicksburg, Minn., and has been a member here since 1900; Lucy Wray, 77; Lavinia Benson, 79, and Charles McKee, 72. Mention was made of Adam Burns, 84, who for many years has attended the Silverton reunions. Last summer he gave up driving his own car and for a time was somewhat concerned as to how he would attend this year's service. But he called upon an oldtime friend, J. N. Wittzel, 86, to bring him to Silverton for the occasion. Both are from Salem.

Early S. S. Heads

Those who have served as Sunday school superintendents since the inception of the Bible school of the Christian church are Perry Burch, Fred Mascher, D. F. Clark, C. M. Wray, W. C. Andrews, Gordon McCall, May Osborne, Mrs. T. E. Preston, Violet Crawford, James Bonner and F. M. Powell.

Among the out-of-town visitors seen in Sunday's congregation of several hundred were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Essen, Mr. and Mrs. J. Coomier, Mrs. Al Cline of Howell Prairie, Adam Burns, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Sargent and family of Salem, Mrs. Ray Charlesworth and daughter, Gavena, of Toledo.

Greetings were read from Mr. and Mrs. George Fleisman, Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Bennett of Portland. Mrs. Carl Specht read the greetings.

Esson Speaker

Mrs. John Hoblitt was chairman of the day. At the morning session, Rev. Albyn Essen of Albany spoke, stressing the point that if you reach after things worthwhile you will get them.

In Veterans Hospital

MOUNTAIN VIEW, Nov. 25.—Albert Bouffleur is in the Veterans' hospital in Portland for treatment of malignant carbuncles which disable both his hands. He expects to be there for some time.

Community Clubs

SUNNYSIDE, Nov. 25.—Community club met in regular session for business Friday. Standing committee recommended remaining in the county federation of clubs and paying the one dollar fee for membership. Discussion was given to the Christmas program and treats for the children and fixing the date as the third Friday in December. A candy sale was held by the boys of the school to buy lighting ornaments for the Christmas tree. A collection was taken resulting in $1.60 to be used in a fund for the Christmas treat. Program followed: Song, "Whispering Hope," by Helen and Hulda Beckley; piano solo by Miss Betty Brown.

CLEAR LAKE, Nov. 25.—The Clear Lake community club met Friday evening. Mrs. Carpenter presided in the absence of both the president and vice-president. On report that the president, Clifford Orey, would return about the first of the year, Mrs. T. C. Mason was elected as temporary president to serve until his return.

ROBERTS, Nov. 25.—Roberts community club held its regular meeting Saturday night. Plans were made for the Christmas program with the church, school, grange and community club. Mrs. G. S. Higgins and Mrs. C. O. Noble will be in charge of this program which will be given Friday night, Dec. 20.

Mrs. Alice Coolidge donated a picture to raise funds for the Christmas candy. The picture will be at Roberts store in charge of Mrs. Roy J. Rice. The next meeting will be held December 7, instead of the regular meeting night. The program committee is Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Johnston and Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Fidler. Committees for December are reception, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Pettyjohn and Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Davenport; refreshment, Mrs. Robert Judson, Mrs. B. S. Klee, Mrs. Clifford Thomas and Mrs. Esther Query.

The program consisted of songs by the community; upper grades, harmonica band, accompanied by the teacher, Mrs. Elsie Carpenter; recitation, Irene Selmer; recitation, Lillian Mullen; accordion program consisting of group singing of old-time hymns, led by Mrs. Ben Gifford with Miss Rita Rahn at the piano; invocation by Cecil Sargent of Salem; address of welcome, Lynn Neal; numbers by the junior choir directed by Miss Rahn; Hawaiian guitar duet, Harold and Olive Roop; reading, P. A. Prather; male quartet selections, Gus Herr, H. A. Pickett, Dan Geiser, Emil Oeder; vocal duet, Mary and Wilma Sargent.
