Loud Speaker Is Bought For Games

School Board Clerk Shows Violin He Made to High Class

HIBBARD, Dec. 12.—The high school student body has purchased a loud speaker equipment to be used in the gymnasium in announcing basketball games this season. In addition the machine has a phonograph attachment that permits music to be broadcast to the gallery during the half time intermissions. E. Van Ness Johnson, principal of the high school states that this is the only loud speaker equipment in any of the high school gymnasiums of Oregon. It is believed that this equipment will improve the audience to games.

D. E. McArthur, clerk of the Hubbard school board, brought a violin of his own making to school Monday for display to the manual arts class. This was McArthur's first attempt at making violins and he intends to be making them from now on, as several orders have been received.

The following students of Hubbard high school have been placed on the honor roll for the second six weeks of the school year: Freshmen, Eileen Reimer, Fred Scheller, Harry Bennett, Duane Hatcher, Anna Koutny; sophomores, Shirley Bontrager, Harold Walter, Naomi Friend, Howard Hopkins, Max Moomaw; juniors, Warren Hatcher, Marie Boje, Doris Boyd; seniors, Junior Higginbotham, Gladys Ingalls, Billie Higginbotham, Ruth Jungnickel, Leland Kocher and Freida Voget.

Rosedale's Sick Reported on Mend

ROSEDALE, Dec. 12.—The interior of the school room is being repainted this week for the work is being done by Milo Ross.

William Novt, who underwent a serious appendicitis operation last week, is now improving at a local hospital.

Mrs. Martin Schmidt has returned from the hospital and is at her home convalescing from a recent operation.

The revival meetings at the church closed Sunday night. The attendance and interest was good. Evangelist Denver Hedrick returned to his home at Springfield Monday.
