Chapter G Guests For Luncheon At 1 P. M.

CHAPTER G of P. E. O. Sisterhood will be luncheon guests today at the home of Mrs. F. W. Lange at 1 o'clock. The table will be centered with a bowl of colored balls studded with cellophane spikes. Red candles and holly will complete the Christmas motif.

Places will be laid for 25. Assisting hostesses are Mrs. Earl Cooley, Mrs. Silas Gaiser and Miss Josephine Gray.

Gifts will be exchanged about the Christmas tree and Mrs. W. H. Wirtz will talk on the origin of carols. Mrs. E. J. Huffman will present the story "Where Love Is" by Tolstoy and roll call will be answered with early Christmas recollections.

Christmas Concert in Church Monday

A pre-Christmas musicale coming just at the season when music is most acceptable is the concert planned by the choir of the American Lutheran church, the Madrigal club and the Civic Male chorus.

Prof. E. W. Hobson will direct the three groups Monday night, December 23rd, at the American Lutheran church.

Soloists include Miss Josephine Bross, Miss Lourene Brietzke, Miss Frances Nelson, Miss Aldine Smith, Mrs. J. A. Sholseth, Ronald Craven, Everett Craven and Secondo Scardi.

Woodburn.—Miss Ethel Tressider, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Tressider, and Alfred Juve, son of Mrs. Sophia Juve, were married Sunday afternoon at a simple wedding ceremony performed at the D. J. Gillanders home on East Cleveland street. Rev. Gillanders reading the simple ring ceremony in the presence of the two immediate families. The couple were attended by Miss Agnes Juve, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid and Charles Tressider, brother of the bride, as best man.

After the ceremony a wedding dinner was served for the bridal party and relatives at the Juve home. Both Mr. and Mrs. Juve are well known among the younger set of Woodburn. They will make their home on their farm west of Woodburn.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
"I'd give anything to be slim!" says the forty-eight. Then "dress it off"—with a slim-line, beltless frock such as this, which is easy to make, and simply brimming over with distinction. Well-placed tucks mold the natural waistline with subtle restraint, thus making a belt unnecessary. A simple, pointed yoke extends low in the bodice, detracting from a too heavy bust, while clever diagonals both back and front reduce side-to-side hip measurement. Sheer wool, or dull crepe create a charming daytime style; or realize its possibilities for semi-formal wear in satin, ankle-length, with softly puffed sleeves. The yoke and sleeves may contrast.

Pattern 2503 is available in sizes 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46 and 48. Size 36 takes 4 1/2 yards 39 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. Be sure to state size.

Don't wait! Send now for the winter pattern book! You need all the advice Anne Adams give you on keeping the family thrifty and attractively dressed. You need to know more about clothes etiquette, more about fabrics and fashions, more about glorifying your type! You'll welcome the timely tips on Christmas gift problems too. Price of book fifteen cents. Book and pattern together twenty-five cents.

Address orders to The Oregon Statesman Pattern Dept., 215 South Commercial street, Salem, Ore. Make necessary enclosure. Your order will be promptly attended to.

Orders customarily are filled within four days from the time received by The Statesman.
