Monmouth Church Programs Listed

MONMOUTH, Dec. 20.—Programs symbolic of the season will be presented at all of Monmouth's churches Sunday. Special musical features in addition to the regular choir offerings, were presented last Sunday night, a custom which has become traditional in Monmouth since so many students of Oregon Normal school assist with the music in all local churches, and these offerings are featured on the Sunday night before vacation time because most of the students are away during the holidays.

At the Christian church the night of December 22, Mrs. V. V. Caldwell will direct the presentation of a pageant. A Christmas program and tree with distribution of gifts for children will be the Evangelical church feature Sunday night, and a similar plan is being arranged for the same night at the Baptist church.

Labish Center Sunday School to Give Yule Program After C. E.

LABISH CENTER, Dec. 20.—The Sunday school's Christmas program will be given Sunday night following Endeavor service. A playlet, "Christmas at Piney Ridge," by the young people's class, as well as readings, songs, etc., by the juniors will be presented.

The school teachers, Mrs. Bisanz and Mrs. Burrell have released the program for their entertainment, which will be Monday night at the schools. It includes a song, by the school; welcome by Wallace Bloom; playlet, "Santa's Recovery," lower grades; accordion solo, Edward Roosa; play, "Grandma's Christmas at Guest," upper grades; reading, Marvin French; guitar solo, Leslie Klampe; quartet and pantomime, "Star of the East"; play, "Aunt Van Dorn's Merry Christmas," upper grades; song by the school and Santa's visit.

Services in English and German Scheduled On Christmas Morning

The annual Christmas program of the Bethany Evangelical and Reformed church school will be given Sunday night at 7:30 o'clock, and on Christmas day German services will be held at 10 o'clock in the morning and English services at 11 o'clock.

The Sunday night program will consist of three parts: Community singing, children's program and a pageant. The public is invited.

 - Vocal duet, Yvonne Walters and Doris Kruger.
 - Reading, "The Other Wise Man" by Miss Jean Hawkins.
- A short talk by the pastor on the subject, "Wise Men Still Seek Christ," will conclude the program.

One-Act Play Is Feature of Yule

A beautiful and colorful one-act play will be given by the children of the Foursquare church Sunday night. They program will open with a beautiful procession of white-robed girls marching and singing "Silent Night, Holy Night" by candle light. Children will be dressed as shepherds and kings, the platform being beautifully decorated to depict a manger scene. Sunday morning, a program will also be given by young people and children as the Sunday school enjoys the annual Christmas tree. There will be no service Christmas night, but Friday night, December 27, the Rev. and Mrs. Balderson from Cleveland, Ohio, will conduct a special evangelistic service. Rev. and Mrs. Balderson will be at the local church during the absence of the present pastors, Rev. Miss Edith Campbell and Ena Hanson, who will pastor the Portland Foursquare church while Rev. and Mrs. H. W. Jefferies take a trip around the world.

Cantatas Will Be Sung By Nazarene Choir at Two Services Sunday

The Sunday school of the Church of the Nazarene, will open at 9:45 a. m. Sunday for the study of the Christmas lesson. At the close of the Sunday school period, the children will receive presents given by the Sunday school. At the 11 o'clock worship hour the choir will sing a Christmas cantata, "The Manger of Bethlehem." Following the cantata the pastor will give the Christmas sermon. "Unwrapping the first Christmas package." At 6:30 the young people will have a Christmas service. At 7:30 the Sunday school children will give their program consisting of songs, recitations, and dialogues. Following this program, the choir will sing another Christmas Cantata, "King All Glorious."
