Zonta Dinner Gay Event Held at Log Cabin

A LOG CABIN at Graber's south on the highway was the locale for the Zonta Christmas dinner Thursday night. All plans were kept secret for the party until the guests were taken to the cabin.

An old English theme was carried out in table decorations and gifts were exchanged. Miss Helen Barrett, Mrs. Margaret Rosecrans and Mrs. Eric Butler made up the committee.

Additional guests were Miss Gertrude Helen Butler and Miss Zoe Stockton. Members present were Miss Barbara Barnes, Miss Helen Yockey, Mrs. Lillian McDonald, Miss Nellie Schwab, Miss Hazel Cook, Dr. Helen Pearce, Miss Helen Louise Crosby, Miss Helen Barrett, Miss Kathryn Gunnell, Mrs. LaVerne Winkler, Mrs. Eric Butler, Mrs. Belle Niles Brown, Mrs. Margaret Rosecrans, Mrs. Ora McIntyre, Mrs. Winifred Herrick and Mrs. Victory Morris.

Cheerio Club Honored At Home Thursday

Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Walker were hosts for a Christmas party complimenting members of the Cheerio club Thursday. A decorated and lighted tree and baskets of poinsettias brightened the guest rooms. The serving table was centered with a miniature snow scene including Santa and his reindeer.

High scores for bridge were won by Mrs. Walter Nelson and Norman Hastings. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. James Uebelman, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Girod, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. Leon DuBois, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Orey, Dr. and Mrs. C. Ward Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whittemore and Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Walker.

Independence.—Mrs. Clarence Charboneau held high score for the contract play when the Wednesday bridge club met at the home of Mrs. Elmer E. Addison for a 1 o'clock luncheon and an afternoon of bridge. A delightful Christmas party was enjoyed by the members.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

A pretty frock that saves a "pretty penny" is what we're all seeking in these days of limited budgets, and when one as pretty as this beckons, we waste no time in making it ours. Both trim and smart, it's designed in sizes right up to forty-six, and boasts all the firm, figure-molding lines of an afternoon frock. An elongated bodice and skirt yoke, aided by darts, seems literally to melt away those hard-to-lose pounds there at the waistline, while cape-like sleeves set up on the shoulder minimize bulk at that particular point. The collarless neckline is so flattering to the throat. Any small-spaced print, stripe or check in pre-shrunk cotton is serviceable.

Pattern 2542 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, and 46. Size 36 takes 3 1/2 yards 36 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. Be sure to state size. Don't wait! Send now for the winter pattern book! You need all the latest Anne Adams patterns. Make the family thrifty and attractive by dressing. You need to know how about clothes, styles, more about fabrics and fashions, more about glorifying your type! You'll welcome the timely tips on Christmas Gift problems too. Price of book fifteen cents. Book and pattern together twenty-five cents. Address orders to The Oregon Statesman Pattern Dept., 215 South Commercial Street, Salem, Ore. Make necessary enclosures. Your order will be promptly attended to. Orders customarily are filled within four days from the time received by The Statesman.

Cross Stitch Dog and Cat Pattern 708

"Fighting like cats and dogs" is a common expression, but here is a cat and a dog that get along together beautifully. They are to be done in cross stitch—wool, silk or cotton—on pillows or to be framed as pictures. The color chart tells you how to shade them, thus achieving a very realistic pair. If you are hunting for a gift, quick to make but at the same time "different," one or both would be the very thing! Pattern 708 comes to you with a transfer pattern of a cat 5 1/2 inches square and a scottie 6x5 1/2 inches; a color key; material requirements; directions for making a pillow and picture. Send 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred) for this pattern to The Statesman, Needlecraft Dept.

W.B.A. Family Affair is Held Thursday

The Woman's Benefit association enjoyed a family Christmas party and program Thursday night in the K. P. hall. Gifts were exchanged and donations received for the needy.

Mrs. E. B. Perrine and Mrs. Hazel Newgent were in general charge of arrangements. Young people gave out the gifts from the Christmas tree. Mr. and Mrs. Perrine appeared in harmonica numbers. Mrs. Greenwood gave a reading and Miss Patricia Scott played several piano solos. Guy Newgent and Mr. Perrine also gave short talks.

Miss Howe Entertains B. C. Club

Miss Alberta Howe was hostess to the B. C. club Wednesday night for an informal party. Christmas decorations were carried out about the rooms and at the supper hour.

Present were the Misses Muriel Martin, Barbara Taylor, June Weeks, Irma Walker, Ina Belle Creech, Clarice Kolbe, Helen Way, Vesper Eldridge and Alberta Howe.

Labish Center.—Mrs. H. B. Aker and Tillie Isham were joint hostesses for the Ladies' Aid Christmas party Wednesday afternoon at the Aker home. An exchange of gifts for members was held as well as a gift shower for the Children's Farm Home at Corvallis. The group is also cooperating in distributing Christmas baskets.

Mrs. Harry Lovre and Mrs. Aker, who handled the Red Cross enrollment in this community, reported receipts of $16.75. The hostesses were assisted in serving by Mrs. Gertrude Zeuger, Rose Helen Camp and Mrs. O. G. McClaughry. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. E. J. Weinman January 15. Over 40 attended.

Monmouth.—Staff and Key, women's organization at Oregon Normal for promotion of school activities, honored 19 junior women at a party Friday night in the recreation room at Jessica Todd hall. Dancing and a scavenger hunt were features of entertainment. An amusing "hobo" theme was carried out with refreshments served at an improvised bread-line.

Talbot.—Mrs. Delmer Davidson was hostess to the Talbot Women's club at her home Wednesday afternoon. A prettily decorated tree on the dining table was loaded with gifts which were distributed by Mrs. Arthur Johnson and Miss Eida Wintermantel. Christmas treats were served during the tea hour.

The Tuia-Hillusi Campfire Girls will go carolling December 24th. It was decided at the meeting held this week at the home of their guardian, Mrs. E. C. Van Slyke.

Business College Holds Party Friday

THE freshman class of the Capital Business college gave a Christmas party for the rest of the student body last night at the school.

Carols and other music occupied the evening. Seasonal decorations were abundantly used. Miss Fern Dow was general chairman. Decorations were arranged by Miss Jean Freberg, Miss Beulah Westley and Leonard Kephart.

The program was planned by Miss Bernadine Daugherty, Miss Rose Ann Fardotz, Walter Friesen, Harold Domogala, William Fischer and Meredith Lathrop.

On the refreshment committee were Miss Hazel Snyder, Miss Alene Boyington, Miss Thelma Voss, Bingham Powell, Hubert Townsend and Waldo Gibbens.

Bible Classes Meet for Dinner at Church

The Woman's Bible class met at the First Methodist church Thursday afternoon. Mrs. O. W. Emmons presided. Mrs. L. D. Waterman led the devotions and Mrs. C. F. Breithaupt was presented with a gift subscription.

The Men's Bible class was invited to join the Women's class for a covered dish dinner which 51 attended. Afterwards, the group repaired to the temple fireplace room to sing carols. Mrs. Emmons read the Christmas story from "Ben Hur".

Maccabees Have Party At K. P. Hall

The Maccabee Christmas party Wednesday night in the K. P. hall was attended by 115 members and their families. Mrs. Lyda Covalt was in charge of the program. Readings, dances, carols, piano solos and Hawaiian numbers were given during the evening, mostly by the juveniles. Santa Claus arrived and handed out the children's treat from the Christmas tree.

Distinguished guests were D. V. Chapman of Portland, state commander, and P. D. Smith, district deputy. They both gave informal talks.

Molalla.—Seventy mothers and friends of girls in the high school home economics department attended a Christmas tea from 2 to 3 Wednesday afternoon in the home economics rooms as guests of the girls. Members of the second-year class had charge of the decorations and refreshments. On exhibit were aprons, tea towels and pajamas made by the first-year girls, a knitted sweater, block designs, luncheon clothes and towels made by the second-year girls. Christmas trees, wreaths and holly were used for decoration. Fifty small, stuffed "cuddle toys" made by members of the home economics club were also on display. Many of these were sold during the tea.

Woodburn.—Woodburn assembly Artisans No. 415 held the annual Christmas program and tree in the Artisan hall Thursday night. Included on the program were a song, "Santa's Coming to Town," and tap dancing by Ellen Whitney; vocal duet, "Star of the East," Mae Belle Alcher and Gergetta Horsch, accompanied by Mrs. Roseanna Aicher; reading by Ramona Jean Broyles; song, "Margaret Wexson," Steve Hortsch, Mary Heffling and A. F. Students Selling Christmas Seals Selling Christmas seals and supplying necessary articles to state tuberculosis hospital patients who have no families to look to have been the chief charitable activity at Salem high school this year, Mrs. Robertson, dean of girls, said yesterday. The students contributed the gifts to the hospital shutins after obtaining a list of what was most needed. Toilet articles and stationery predominated in the requests.

City Voter Pamphlets Will Be Printed Soon

City Recorder A. Warren Jones expects to order the printing of approximately 13,000 city voter pamphlets early in January in preparation for the January 31 special election at which the managerial system of city government will be put up to Salem voters. He will not know how many pamphlets to order until after registration closes late this month. At the last city election for which voters pamphlets were required 12,700 were printed.
