Crowds Go To Church Mass

Elaborate Lighting For Christmas Exercises at Mt. Angel

MT. ANGEL, Dec. 26.—Most of Mt. Angel took part in the early morning Christmas services at St. Mary's church. The great church was filled to capacity long before the 6 o'clock services began. The nave of the church was but dimly lit and an unusually beautiful and effective lighting system centered on the crib scene, while St. Mary's choir sang Christmas carols.

At 6 a. m. a solemn high mass was celebrated by Rev. Father Alcuin Heibel, assisted by Rev. Fathers Gabriel and Idephonse. Father Alcuin delivered a short Christmas message in both German and English. A succession of low masses followed until 10:30, when another solemn high mass with special Christmas music and followed by benediction, completed the Christmas day services.

On Christmas eve at 7:30 p. m. a special broadcast of sacred music was put on through loud speakers while a large picture of the nativity was unveiled near the huge outdoor Christmas tree, furnished by the Mt. Angel fire department. The sketch for the picture was made by Rev. Gabriel Morris of St. Benedict's Abbey and the picture painted by Miss Georgianna Bourbonnais and Miss Mary Jo Weishaar, local art students.

The broadcast included pipe organ music, played by Rev. Eladus Fuerst, one of the foremost organists on the coast, violin selections by Miss Clara Keber, Forest Sauvain and Alexander Scharbach, Christmas carols by Miss Agnes Walker, Miss Pauline Saalfeld, Miss Clara Keber and Miss Gertrude Barlink and numbers by the male chorus.

The entire program was sponsored by the Business Men's club, which since the time of its organization a year ago, has done excellent service for the community.

NOTE FRESHNESS DATE ON EVERY LOAF

Any bread tastes best fresh from the oven. The chemists know why. Fragile bread-cell walls are soft, unbroken then. All the "flavor factors" are imprisoned in these filmy-thin, tender cells.

Now chemists can measure this cell-wall tenderness. They find that even the most costly waxed wrapping cannot keep the bread cell-texture soft for long.

That's why we're so "cranky" about your getting this tender "woman's recipe" bread absolutely First-Day-Fresh.

On each loaf a "time-locked" wrapper band states the day the loaf is fresh—tells you when it can no longer be sold as fresh bread.

Fresh loaves are delivered each morning to your grocer. Yesterday's loaves are picked up and carried away from the store.

Oldest Pensioner Observes His 115th Birthday Christmas

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Dec. 27.—(AP)—In a little log cabin built for him by the federal government in Chickamauga national park, Tom Thrash, once a negro slave, observed his 115th birthday Wednesday.

Thrash had been married five times—the last time when he was 107 years old. Of the 29 children born to the various unions, 22 are living, he said. He declared his eldest son had 14 boys in the world war.

His broadcast included pipe organ music, played by Rev. Eladus Fuerst, one of the foremost organists on the coast, violin selections by Miss Clara Keber, Forest Sauvain and Alexander Scharbach, Christmas carols by Miss Agnes Walker, Miss Pauline Saalfeld, Miss Clara Keber and Miss Gertrude Barlink and numbers by the male chorus.
