

Plans Are Shown for New Gym at Keizer School at Club Meeting

Weather Is Hard on Club

Storm Cuts Down Attendance at Keizer Club Program Friday

KEIZER, Jan. 4.—On account of the inclement weather, the community club was not largely attended Friday night. The program was read by Mrs. Dave Sawyer.

Mary Sugai, dressed in Japanese costume sang two songs in her native language. Piano solo, Vera Dornbusch. Group song by eight pupils under the leadership of Mrs. Kelson. Dr. F. L. Uter gave an interesting and instructive talk on prison life and the parole system.

Lorraine Russell interpreted "Annie Laurie" in beautiful variations on the piano. Business session followed with Mrs. Albert Minton presiding. The main subject was the school gymnasium in contemplation.

Mr. Minton displayed the print of the building planned. There was no dissenting voice against the erection of such a building but it is to be voted on by the taxpayers of the district Monday, January 8, at the school house. The Boy Scouts which they have made to sell for the benefit of their troop. The new Boy Scout committee named was Fred McCall, Lester Pearline, Archie Caggett and Albert Minton.

Opening of Grown-ups' Night School Slated

Next Week, Mt. Angel

MT. ANGEL, Jan. 4.—Night school for adults will open here next week. Classes will be held from 7:30 to 9:30 in St. Mary's school, Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Miss Reeling, normal graduate, will conduct the classes. There will be the regular Americanization classes for those wishing to prepare for citizenship, classes especially adaptable for young men and women who were unable to attend high school, practical courses in bookkeeping, grammar and civil government. As many persons as possible are urged to take advantage of this free instruction.

Four-H Sewing Club

Organized; Leader Is Miss Virginia Sawtell

MOLALLA, Jan. 4.—A 4-H sewing club, the Four-Leaf Clover club, has been organized here under the leadership of Miss Virginia Sawtell. Officers are Betty Jean Dicken, president; Chloe Davidson, vice-president; Patricia Adams, secretary; Gwendolyn Vick, song and roll leader; and Phyllis Sherman, reporter. Meetings will be each Saturday at Miss Sawtell's home.

Last year the sewing club under Miss Sawtell's leadership made a high record. Each girl won awards at the county fair, and one girl, Chloe Davidson, placed at the state fair.

Mehama Church Group

Holds Watch Party as Old Year Fades Away

MEHAMA, Jan. 4.—Mrs. Ted Mulkey returned to Spokane after spending the holidays with her husband, Ted Mulkey, who has been staying with his father here the past several months. Miss Dorthieus Dunivan is spending a few days at the Mason home. She has just returned from a visit to Stockton, Calif., where her father and brothers live.

A watch party was held at the Mehama church Tuesday. From there they went to various homes and sang hymns until midnight. A hot lunch was served at the church.

Buckaroo Association Gets Another Backer; Son to Vice-President

MOLALLA, Jan. 4.—News of the arrival of a seven-pound son at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Harris in Portland was received with much interest this week by the Molalla Buckaroo association. Harris has been a member of the association for the past seven years either as president or first vice-president. At the present time he is the vice president. The baby was born December 21 and has been named Gilbert William.

Spaulding to Speak

TURNER, Jan. 4.—The Townsend club will meet Tuesday night at the school auditorium. Charles K. Spaulding of Salem will be the guest speaker and other program will be given; also

Steelhammers to Celebrate Date of 65th Anniversary

SILVERTON, Jan. 4.—The 65th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Steelhammer will be quietly observed at their home on January 5th. Mrs. Steelhammer is confined to her bed and Mr. Steelhammer, although much improved from a recent illness, is still not strong. Among the children who plan to call during the day, are Mr. and Mrs. George Steelhammer and Mr. and Mrs. John Steelhammer of Silverton; and Dr. H. W. Steelhammer of Portland. Arthur Steelhammer of San Francisco, who has been spending the holidays here, is still with his parents.

Portland Student Gets High Rating

MONMOUTH, Jan. 4.—Students of Oregon Normal school who placed on the fall term honor roll are led by Mrs. Elsie Hamble, Portland, the only individual to carry 16 hours of work and make all A's. Others on the roll who carried at least 15 hours of credit receiving no grade lower than B are:

Gerdine Arison and Dorothy Damm, Molalla; Elen Henry Campbell, Eugene; Conner Coleman, Dorothy Schmidt, both of Molalla; Phyllis Belshe, More; Gustafson, William Jordan, Olive Steen, Paul Stewart, Margaret Turner, Maxine Van Patten and Mary Whalen, all of Portland; Ruth Duren and Carmen Guefroy, both of Salem; Cleora Egman, Oregon City; Eva Elvick, Brownsville; Harrison Guefroy, Monmouth; Sigurd Grimsrud, North Bend; Francis Hamstreet, Shasta; Hanson, Monmouth; Ruth Holcomb, Beaverton; Clarence Hulse, Sherwood; Grover Kelsay, Dexter; Harriet Kleinsinger, Silverton; Fern Knight, Dufer; Mary Matteson, Wendling; Mildred McKnight, Monmouth; Helen Peterson, Hillsboro; Louise Peters, Cornelius; Mildred Peterson, Prineville; Phyllis Thomas, Rainier, Wash.; Helen Webster, Hillsboro.

Sixty-five students carried at least 14 hours of credit during the fall term, receiving grades of A or B in at least 12 of the 14 hours:

Marguerite Baker, Tillamook; Hazel Jean Bann, Monmouth; Helen Beach, Winchester; Ida Mae Bell, More; Dorothy Bland, Canyon City; Louise Bolander, Oak Grove; Lester Cody, Columbia City; Anna Marie Cook, Forest Grove; Iris Outforth, Gervais; Dolly Dolan, Harvey; Harris, Mildred West, St. Helens; Grayson Dungan, Scotts Mills; Christine Durringer, Eugene; Joyce Fonger, Bay City; Ellen Ford, Gresham; Delma Fink, Monmouth; Pearl Fowler, Edith Webster, Margaret Sroufe, Anne Larson, Boring; Orra Aebi and Helen Elliott, both of Dalles; Claire Partlow, Albert E. Johnston, both of Monmouth; Edna Grover and Eleanor Hunnicutt, both of Independence; Edward Geiger, The Dalles; Dorothy Gerlach, Scappoose; Bertha Grosbeck, Hillsboro; Alice Hart, Kathleen Muschamp, Milwaukee; Errol Hassell, Junction City; Roberta Holmes, Safford; Dora Jantzen, Albany; Marie K. Jensen, Banks; Erma Johnson, McMinnville; Rowena Malone, Molalla; Marjorie Meeker, Vernonia; Mabel Ogan, Joseph; Esther Reid, Roseburg; Omer, Astoria; Glendora Richards, Halsey; Helen Robinson, Coquille; Helen Settle, Creswell; Eloise Smith, Halsey; Roy Nolen, Monmouth; Olivia Speal and Janet Snider, Lebanon; Eleanor Stoyton, Stayton; Kenneth Stuart, Sheridan; Opal Yoder, Molalla; Doris Zimmerman, Warren; Claudia Alexander, Lillian Kinn, Anna Matti, Rena Pendleton, John Sellwood, Viola Donofrio, Clara Heisenreter, Luri Shioji, Elmer Thiden, all of Portland.

Gets Salem Job
Albert E. Johnston, Oregon Normal school student, has been elected to the manual training department of Parrish junior high school, Salem. With Mrs. Johnston and two children he is moving to Salem where he will begin his new duties Monday.

Mrs. Thomas Boulden, Monmouth's oldest resident, enjoyed a visit Saturday from her descendants. Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Boulden and two children of Newcastle, Wyo.

Youths Hold Party

DAYTON, Jan. 4.—An interesting watch party was enjoyed by the young people of the Christian church Tuesday night. A short devotional service was followed by an evening of interesting and amusing games until the New Year was ushered in.

Entertain Guests During Holidays

School Reopens at Howell With Cold Situation In Hand Again

CENTRAL HOWELL, Jan. 4.—School has started again. Vacation gave a number of the children time to recover from colds so they can attend school again. The death of a sister who has been ill many months called Mrs. A. A. Nafziger to Lebanon this week.

A number of parties have been held during the holiday season. Mr. and Mrs. John Tweed entertained a number of friends at three tables of "500" Saturday night. They have invited another group for this Saturday night.

Ruth Simmons, Jean Lauderback and Lucille Roth were hostesses to a group of friends at a "hard-time" party at the Simmons home Friday night. Ladacious costumes and novel entertainment features contributed to the good time. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jantz of Silverton were hosts to a number of Central Howell friends Tuesday night. The evening was spent playing "500" at which Mr. and Mrs. John Tweed won high score and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Simmons low.

Miss Susanne and Roy Rutschman entertained with a Jeep year party Wednesday night. The evening was spent in games and fun followed by delicious refreshments served by Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Rutschman.

Relatives Expected From South Dakota At Sylvester Home

SILVERTON, Jan. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Sylvester are expecting Mrs. Sylvester's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hornbeck of Centerville, South Dakota, to arrive here next week for a visit.

Mr. Hornbeck, who at one time lived at Portland, is now the republican postmaster at Centerville with his term ending in March. He was former representative in the state legislature and owns the Centerville Journal. During his term as postmaster he has had the Journal leased but will edit it again when his term expires. From Silverton the Hornbecks will go to San Jose, California, where they will be guests of Mrs. C. H. Whitman, a sister of Hornbeck and Mrs. Sylvester.

Mrs. Whitman, who has visited at Silverton, is former wife of a woman and at present a member of the National Penwomen.

Two Justice Cases Postponed Because Of Attorney's Work

SILVERTON, Jan. 4.—Two cases scheduled for the justice of peace court here Friday were postponed because of extra work at the district attorney's office at Salem. The cases were those of the state vs. Jim Dack and the state versus Walter Thurman.

In the former the case is the result of an automobile accident in which Dack and Frank Morley figured several weeks ago. In the latter, Thurman is charged with operating a motor vehicle without license.

Frank Alfred, justice of peace, reported that he did not know just when the cases would be heard.

Child in Hospital Reported Improved

SILVERTON HILLS, Jan. 4.—Patricia Robinson, six-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rank W. Robinson (Helen Mauding) of Portland, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Mauding of Silverton, is reported as being slightly improved. The little girl was taken to the Good Samaritan hospital at Portland following complications after a tonsillectomy. Pneumonia set in and it was necessary to put her under oxygen. A blood transfusion was also given. Mrs. Robinson is a native of the Hills and Patricia made her home here with her grandparents for sometime.

Farmers' Union News

PIONEER, Jan. 4.—The annual Farmers Union New Year's dinner was enjoyed at the hall in North Dallas, with over 100 guests.

Henry Alsip presided at the program, which included numbers by Velma Schroeder, Ellen Laing, Mr. McCallib, Bud McKaib, Elsie Wagner, Robert Crook, Max Gehlar, L. H. McBea, Ed Himes, Cleo McCallib and the Schroeder orchestra. The all-day county convention will be held January 16 at the North Dallas hall.

Artisan Lodge Holds Installation Thursday Of Woodburn Officers

WOODBURN, Jan. 4.—Woodburn assembly United Artisans held their semi-annual installation of officers at their regular meeting held in the Artisan's hall Thursday evening. A. F. Hanauskas, master of ceremonies, presided. The master of ceremonies, assisted by Max Warring and Frank Covey as junior and senior escorts. The following officers were seated: Steve Hortsch, master; Artisan; Max Warring, superintendent; J. Kestler, inspector; Neil Nebel, secretary; Mathias Warring, treasurer; Frank Covey, instructor; Gertrude Hanauskas, senior conductor. In the absence of Mrs. M. Jackson, master of ceremonies, Fern Small, junior conductor and John Werner, warder, they will be installed at the next meeting. Plans were made for a district meeting of the Silverton, Salem and Woodburn assemblies to be held in Woodburn January 23. Initiation ceremonies will be followed by an auction of baskets brought by the ladies and the remainder of the evening spent in dancing and a social time.

Mrs. Roubal Resigns As Choir Secretary At Silverton M. E.

SILVERTON, Jan. 4.—At a meeting of the Methodist choir Thursday night, Mrs. F. J. Roubal resigned as secretary of the choir because of her school duties. Mrs. Roubal is doing substitute teaching at the local schools. Mrs. F. E. Sylvester was chosen to fill the vacancy.

The choir made plans for a special party Wednesday night at which all members and others who assisted in presenting the Christmas cantata are invited to attend. Work on a negro program, to be given in February, is now underway by the choir members.

Move Shingle Mill To Highland Country

SILVERTON, Jan. 4.—The White Star shingle mill, which has operated at Silverton under White & Son Shingle Mill, has moved to the highland country 15 miles east of Oregon City. E. H. White, owner, reports it is planned to start the mill January 10 and run continuously during the remainder of the winter as the entire output for that time has been sold. Mr. White will continue his roofing and painting business at Silverton.

Coming Home Sunday

FAIRFIELD, Jan. 4.—Dorothy Lundy, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Lundy, will be home from the Woodburn hospital Sunday. She was operated on for appendicitis December 24.

Mrs. G. Heidecke Passes at Dallas

OAK POINT, Jan. 4.—Mrs. Georgiana Heidecke died Friday morning following an emergency operation in Dallas for tumor. Mrs. Heidecke is a sister of the Knowles Bros. and Miss Cora Knowles and has made her home with them the past few years, since the death of her husband, J. W. Heidecke.

She leaves one daughter, Mrs. Paul Ficke and two grandsons of Salem and another sister, Mrs. Flora Mix of Independence besides the Knowles Bros., B. B. and Lorenzo and Miss Cora Knowles, to mourn her loss. Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

Two Woodburn Men Called by Death

WOODBURN, Jan. 4.—Funeral services for William L. Bentley, who died at the home of his son, Frank, January 1, will be held from the Beecher-Killian chapel Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Burial will be in the Hubbard cemetery beside his wife who passed away eight years ago. Kenneth J. Miller.

Kenneth J. Miller, 31, died at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred J. Miller, 480 Third street Friday morning. He was born in Woodburn, February 23, 1904 and was a member of St. Luke's Catholic church and of the Knights of Columbus. He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Helen B. Miller; parents, a brother, Harold F., all of Woodburn and several uncles and aunts. Funeral services will be held Monday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Luke's Catholic church. Recitation of the Rosary will be held at the Ringo chapel Sunday evening at 8 o'clock. Interment will be in St. Luke's cemetery.

Silverton Woman Is Back From California

SILVERTON, Jan. 4.—Mrs. C. W. Cross has arrived home from Fairfax, California, where she was called several weeks ago because of the illness of her mother, Mrs. Marie E. Austin, 22, Mrs. Austin passed away December 23 and funeral services were held December 26.

Tom and Charles Love of Billings, Montana, former residents of Silverton, are among the other survivors.

St. Louis Folks New Year's Hosts

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 4.—Many residents and neighbors entertained New Year's day. Special guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Schomus were: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ferschweiler and Leo, Leonard and Angela Ferschweiler and Miss Ethel Vanderbeck.

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rubens were: Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ferschweiler and Rita, Tommy, Rosemary, Cyril, Lloyd and Doris Ferschweiler.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alex Manning were: Mr. and Mrs. James McCormick and daughter, Dolores McCormick and Miss Helen Seymour, Miss Emelia Zelinka, Miss Margaret Kraus and John Manning and Ivan. Mrs. Otto Bittler entertained at her home near here Sunday honoring her daughter, Miss Rose Bittler.

Mrs. Matt Schmid Is Reported Quite Ill at Residence in Sublimity

SUBLIMITY, Jan. 4.—Mrs. Matt Schmid has been quite ill at her home for the past few days; also Mrs. Ben Baker has been ill the past week.

Dinner guests on New Year's day at the Peter Welter home were Mr. and Mrs. Simeon Boelghelmer, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Heberger, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Starr and children, Vincent and Inez; Mrs. Hannah Wiedner and daughter Marie, and Frank Klecker.

Crusader—
Cavalier—
Supercharger Six

Three Great Cars for 1936
See Them Today

Graham

$875.
and Up, Fully Equipped,
Delivered Salem

LODER BROS.
445 Center Phone 6133 Salem
For Seven Years Your Graham Sales and Service for Marion and Polk Counties

HOME OF GOOD USED CARS

The Oregon Statesman

presents

JULIE MARTIN,

17-year old Miss
Sherlock Holmes, who peps herself on chocolate sodas as she tracks down a murderer in . . .

HIGH SCHOOL TRAGEDY

By Maxine Canty

a totally different kind of Mystery Serial!

Here comes a new sort of detective to the fiction crime world—pretty, precocious Julie, 17-year old member of the juvenile Smart Set. This miss lays down the law and the facts to her involuntary colleague, famous Police Inspector O'Brien, and, over two chocolate sodas, reasons out who killed her beautiful high school French teacher. Don't miss one single instalment of High School Tragedy. It is a new, stimulating kind of mystery you'll enjoy from start to finish.

begins January 9 daily in

The Oregon Statesman

Gnawing Pain...

Abdominal pain is not a disease but often a symptom of serious internal disorder. Avoid cathartics and consult your physician before taking any sort of physic. Following his sound and sure advice you may quickly and safely be rid of all pain. Practice safety, for it is a dependable stock in the market of health!

Our Prescription Service is
Our Best Service

WILLET'S

Capital Drug Store

Corner State and Liberty Phone 3118

OPTOMETRIST AND OPTICIAN

The examination by a registered specialist here assures glasses, if needed, of the best efficiency.

SEE CLEARLY

POMEROY & KEENE
370 STATE ST.