Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS

Every "would-be" princess—aged four to 12—is sure to want this dream of a young frock—youthfully lovely, and cut on simple, princess lines. Her mother's sure to see the double-duty possibilities in just such a pattern, for in chambray or cotton print the belted version's ideal for school or playtime. Without a belt, it's a wee bit dressier, so make it up in dimity, or washable printed crepe for Sunday best or parties. Mother will find it whips into shape very quickly for front and back panels which fall straight and unbroken from young shoulders, are so easy to cut. Panties are included with this frock (to make it just that much more wearable—and smart).

Pattern 2637 is available in sizes 4, 6, 8, 10 and 12. Size 6 takes 2 1/2 yards 36 inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instructions included.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coin or stamps (collectible) to the Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. Be sure to state size.

Send for our spring pattern book! It's a thrifty guide to clothes with the new 1936 look. Easy-to-make designs for matrons, misses and children, for daytime and evening, work and play.
