Siegmund Again To Run Bon-Ton

STAYTON, Jan. 11.—J. Lawrence Siegmund has purchased the Bon-Ton confectionery and restaurant, from Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Roberts and took charge Saturday, January 11.

Operation of the establishment will not be a new venture for Siegmund as he owned and operated it for about a year, selling all but the building. Assisting Siegmund will be Mrs. Betty Roidt and Miss Alma Tonkin.

The Roberts have been proprietors for about six years and have built up a fine clientele. They have taken active part also in civic affairs. Mrs. Roberts, serving her second year as president of the P.T.A. Mr. Roberts' health has been none too good and they plan to take an extended vacation before announcing their future plans.

Consideration for the stock, fixtures and business is said to have been in the neighborhood of $6,000.

Mr. Siegmund has for some time been connected with Jordan's Farm Service. J. L. Jordan, proprietor, has as yet announced no one as his successor.

Annual Meeting Called

The annual meeting of the Stayton Canning company co-operative has been set for Monday, January 20, at the Forrester hall. Election of directors for the coming year will take place. The annual report of the manager, George A. Smith, is expected to show a material increase over a year ago.

The annual election of officers for the Stayton Townsend club will be held on Wednesday night, January 15, at their regular meeting place, the Star theatre. All members are urged to be present and must have their membership cards, entitling them to vote.

Airlie Team Plays

AIRLIE, Jan. 11.—The high school boys having joined B league of basketball are playing their first games; Bethel on Tuesday night, there. They played Forest Grove, there, on Wednesday night, which was not a league game.

The high school girls played against Monmouth on Airlie floor Thursday evening with a game between A. H. S. second team and the grade school boys following.

Grangers' Column

VICTOR POINT, Jan. 11.—Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Humphreys, Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Fischer and Mrs. J. C. Krenz attended the county grange council conference at Monitor Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fox, Mr. and Mrs. V. D. Scott and Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Krenz went to Chemawa Thursday night to a special meeting for the interests of agriculture held there.

NORTH HOWELL, Jan. 11.—Committee appointments to be responsible for the various grange activities during the coming year and some highly interesting legislative reports were part of the business routine during the regular meeting of North Howell grange Friday night.

Discussion of the supreme court AAA ruling and its effect on various farm activities was warmly participated in by nearly every member present. This program was presented: Roll call, "How I Expect to Spend My Old Age," contest, Guessing baby pictures of members, and a talk by Oscar Lee of Silverton on cooperative buying.

A silver star certificate indicating 25 years active continuous service in the grange was presented to W. H. Stevens who will give a history of his grange association at the next meeting. Mr. Stevens was a charter member of North Howell grange when it was organized 41 years ago this month and has been a leader in local grange circles for many years.

January 24, a dime card party will be given in the grange hall.

County Officers Are Club Guests

AUMSVILLE, Jan. 11.—The Women's club met Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. A. Lowe. The president of the county federation, Mrs. I. W. Stacey, and Mrs. Bishop of Liberty, were guests for the afternoon. Mrs. Stacey gave an interesting talk, outlining the history of the women's clubs of Marion county from the beginning up to the present time.

Mrs. Bishop gave a short, informal talk; Mrs. Mae Lamb sang a solo. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Arthur Lowe and Mrs. Fred Potter. Members present were Mrs. C. F. Hein, Mrs. D. W. Lamb, Mrs. William Howd, Mrs. William Forney, Mrs. Charles Martin, Mrs. George Claxton, Mrs. John Ransom, Mrs. Ernest Towle, Mrs. Bland Spear and Mrs. Arthur Lowe.

Mrs. W. K. Winslow has been in Portland for several days to be with her brother, V. B. Darby, who is ill in St. Vincent's hospital.

Work on Quilt

The Happy Hour club met at the home of Mrs. Leona Porter January 2 for an all-day quilting on a friendship quilt. Election of officers was held: President, Mrs. Myrtle Piser; vice-president, Mrs. John Dozier; secretary, Mrs. Mary Dozier; correspondent, Mrs. Frieda Bates. The next meeting will be held with Mrs. Nora Silvers, January 16.

Women who assisted in the quilting were Mrs. John Dozier, Mrs. Mary Dozier, Mrs. Zola Flux, Mrs. Jessie Porter, Mrs. Selma Silvers, Mrs. Jessie Wonnacott, Mrs. Crystal Minten, Mrs. Lottie Porter, Mrs. Nora Silvers, Mrs. Ila Alexander, Mrs. Ellen Lambert, Mrs. Mabel Othandall, Mrs. Carrie Ferry, Mrs. Frieda Bates, Mrs. Louise Brookman, Mrs. Christina Forrette, and Mrs. Leona Porter. New Superintendent of Chemawa Indian School Will Address Chamber

SILVERTON, Jan. 11.—Paul P. Jackson, newly appointed superintendent of the Chemawa Indian school, will be the speaker at the chamber of commerce dinner here, January 13. His subject will be "The National Youth Movement in Oregon." A musical program will be given by the students of the Chemawa school. The banquet will be held at Toney's.

to which everyone is invited. The committee will serve coffee and doughnuts and any remaining proceeds will be turned over to the kitchen fund.

The Home Economic club meeting Thursday at the attractive Vinton home was well attended and proved a very enjoyable affair.

Mrs. Ruth Rickard and Miss Ellen Vinton assisted their mother serve during the lunch hour.

BRUSH COLLEGE, Jan. 11.—The Brush College grange met in regular session with the master, Stella Henry, in the chair. A very pretty drill is used now for seating the officers. The drill master was Mr. Wilson of the Wallace orchards.

The new lecturer, Lyle D. Thomas presented a very interesting program consisting of a debate on the sales tax. Affirmative, Stella Henry, Georgia Cook, Fred Ewing; rebuttal negative, Georgia Cook, Negative, Mrs. Lida Lehmann, Glenn Adams, Dr. Blodgett; rebuttal negative, Glenn Adams.

During the evening Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Adams gave two piano duets. State Deputy Arthur Brown spoke on the achievements of the grange and complimented the grange on being able to present the debate in such an able manner.

The delightful dinner was cooked and served by the brothers, and if they made the chicken pie, they certainly are masters of that art.

The Townsend plan will be discussed at the next meeting.

IOOF-Rebekahs Jointly Install

*INDEPENDENCE, Jan. 11.—Tuesday evening the I.O.O.F. lodge members and Rebekah lodge members met in the lodge hall for a joint installation of the new officers for the new year. Installation officers were Mrs. O. A. Kreamer and Guy Travis.
