

Woodburn High School Preparing to Enter District Debates

Teams Chosen On Both Sides

Schedule of Appearances at Home and Away Is Released

WOODBURN, Jan. 15. — The Woodburn high school is one of seven high schools that have qualified for debate in the Mid-Willamette district. Those on the team are Bob Tilden, Jack Lee, Alice Sprague and Oneta Harr. Alternates are Vivian Cowan and Edna Shrook. Thirteen students representing all four classes tried out. The schedule for the team under the direction of Miss Esther Hattlinger is as follows:

February 5 — Negative at Toledo; Albany negative here.
February 13 — Affirmative to Corvallis; Salem affirmative here.
February 20 — Negative to Independence; Dallas negative here.
February 27 — Negative to Dallas; Independence negative here.
March 5 — Affirmative to Salem; Corvallis affirmative here.
March 12 — Negative to Albany; Toledo negative here.

The question to be debated upon is: Resolved: That the several states should enact legislation providing for a system of complete medical service available to all citizens at state expense.

To Plan Institute
A meeting of the grade and high school teachers was held Monday afternoon after school hours to make plans for a program for the local county institute which will be held at Woodburn February 8. One of the main themes will be visual education apparatus and methods of instruction will be given.

Interclass rivalry basketball is again the popular indoor sport at Woodburn high school with the sophomores and seniors tied for the championship. The deciding game will be played Wednesday between sophomores and seniors and Thursday the juniors will play the freshman team for third and fourth place.

Until Tuesday the sophomores were in the lead with two games won and one lost, the freshmen have won one and lost two, and the juniors and seniors had each won one and lost one, until the game played Tuesday which put the seniors in place with the sophomores.

Large Crowd Attending Revival Meetings Now On For Salem Heights

SALEM HEIGHTS, Jan. 15. — A large crowd enjoyed the first meeting Tuesday night of the series of revival meetings held at the community hall. These meetings will be held each night at 7:30, through Sunday, January 26. The Sunday school officers have engaged the services of Milo C. Ross, pastor of the Rosedale Friends church and the Gospel bands of that church, to hold this series of meetings. Children's meetings will be held Thursday and Friday of this week and Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of next week, directly after school.

Woodburn Hospital Has Woman as New Manager

WOODBURN, Jan. 15. — The Woodburn hospital, which under the management of Dr. Paul Pemberton has just finished a successful year, will operate under new management beginning February 1 when Miss Virginia Durman will become manager. Miss Durman has been with the hospital staff since its opening more than a year ago.

Community Clubs

HAYESVILLE, Jan. 15. — The community club will present its play, "Deacon Dubbs," February 7, instead of the date previously announced.

MIDDLE GROVE, Jan. 15. — The community club will hold its regular meeting Friday night at 8 o'clock, with the program to consist of musical numbers and business meeting. Later an interesting speech was given by Harry Libby of Jefferson on the people's hydro-electric power bill. Consideration of the weather a good attendance was on hand. Another meeting to discuss the power question will be held here January 24.

SUNNYSIDE, Jan. 15. — The Sunnyside community club met Friday night with a club supper and business meeting. Later an interesting speech was given by Harry Libby of Jefferson on the people's hydro-electric power bill. Consideration of the weather a good attendance was on hand. Another meeting to discuss the power question will be held here January 24.

AUBURN, Jan. 15. — The Auburn community club will meet at the school house January 17. The young people will give the program.

ROBERTS, Jan. 15. — In spite of the stormy night, a good crowd attended the community club Saturday night. The club will sponsor a picnic at the local lake, to be held on the 25th. The program of the entertainment which included "Ah Shoot," Kenneth Townsend and Irene Findin; reading, Georgina Ames; songs, by Josephine Dowell, accompanied by her mother; readings by George Veal; skit, Eleanor Purcell; Fay Clodfelters and Billy Strawn; reading by H. C. Leavensworth of Salem; group of numbers by Halls Perry orchestra.

Sales Tax Topic For Club Debate

OAK POINT, Jan. 15. — A debate, for and against the sales tax, was the feature on the program for the meeting Friday night of the Oak Point school society. Grove Peterson, Roy Bigelow and Mrs. Robert Segar took the affirmative, with Mrs. R. A. Alderson, Allen Hall and Miss Beulah Groat on the negative side. With the negative side winning, Margaret Hazelton gave a guitar number with her mother, Mrs. Frankie Hazelton, at the piano. Plans were made and the committees were appointed for the chicken dinner to be served the night of January 28 to the members of the Independence commercial club.

Miss Hazel Hughes was hostess for the first meeting of this year to the "Octo" club. Four tables of "500" and one of pinocle were in play. Mrs. Ellis Lauterbach won first and W. H. Brown consolation. Mrs. Elizabeth Titus will be hostess at her home January 24.

Comptroller of Farm Credit Called West By Illness of Mother

AMITY, Jan. 16. — Earl L. Masters of Washington, D. C., comptroller of the Farm Credit administration and assistant deputy governor, was an Amity visitor Monday. Le Masters was born in Amity and attended grade and high schools here. He was called west to visit his mother, Mrs. C. G. Le Masters, who is ill in a hospital at Oregon City. Mr. Le Masters will go from here to Houston, Texas, and on to New Orleans before returning east.

Mrs. Roy Allen, who has been ill at her home here for over a year, and who recently underwent an operation for goitre, is slowly improving at her home.

Bowley Quits Marshal Job

Quarters in Grade School at Gervais Offered For Lodges

GERVAIS, Jan. 15. — William Bowley has submitted his resignation as city marshal and night watchman and on the advice of his physician, is leaving soon for Long Beach, Calif., where he will make an indefinite stay at the home of his son, J. J. Bowley. Bowley was appointed to this position in 1909 following the death by shooting of the city marshal. He has served almost continuously during these years. He is 70 years old. The vacancy has not been filled. Roy Scollard has been substituting during the past three months.

Offer School Rooms
At its meeting held Saturday night the school board of high school district No. 1 appointed J. A. Ferschweiler to offer the use of the auditorium to the newly organized Farmers' union for a meeting place, they to pay a small part of operating expenses as rent.

Through the efforts of the Gervais Community Development club the I. O. O. F. and Rebekah lodges, which were about ready to move to Woodburn because of a lack of a hall, found quarters in the grade school building. They will use two rooms that are unoccupied since the high school is in its new building.

A part of the roof was blown off the hotel during the high wind Sunday and several of the windows were broken. Other minor damage was done. A bridge along the route of the school bus was reported in danger of going out Sunday night.

Circle Welcomes 4 New Members

GRAND ISLAND, Jan. 15. — The Mothers' Circle was pleasantly entertained at its last business meeting in the home of Mrs. Daniel Tompkins, with 15 regular members present. Two guests, Mrs. I. M. Rosemon of Salem, and Mrs. Fred Thineum, were present and four new members, Mrs. Giles Rockhill, Mrs. Dick Rockhill, Mrs. Claude Corrie and Mrs. Merle Harding joined the club. Following the business session Mrs. Roy E. Will gave a report on the works of Robert Burns and Mrs. Charles A. Ferguson gave an interesting report on the Oregon state seal. The hostess assisted by Mrs. Harold Tompkins and Mrs. Giles Rockhill.

Mr. and Mrs. George Diebel (Beatrice Milford) are the parents of six-pound daughter, Joyce Elaine, born at their residence Friday, January 10.

Ernest Douglas, dairyman, is confined in a Portland hospital where he underwent an operation Thursday, performed on his ankle. He expects to be there at least two weeks or longer.

Paper Building Study Is Begun By School Group

INDEPENDENCE, Jan. 15. — Miss Anita Boiey, high school English teacher and journalism instructor, has collected maps, slugs, ad layouts, type sticks and books featuring different styles of type and proof reading, for use in the journalism classes. Collection is from the Metropolitan Press, published by the Oregon Journal.

Members of the journalism class were much interested in these articles as they seldom see anything of this type.

For the current class project, every student is required to make an original paper which consists of four pages, the same size as the Margold, the school paper.

West Salem News

WEST SALEM, Jan. 15. — C. W. Davis' nephew, Palmer Davis, of Roseburg, was an overnight guest at his home Tuesday.

A. J. Smith has left for Sastachewan, where he will conduct evangelistic meetings.

John Friesen is in San Francisco for a week on business. The box factory has put in a fine line of cabinet work.

Miss Teresa Green arrived Monday night from Twin Falls, Ida., where she has spent the last three weeks visiting her parents. She encountered very little snow between here and Twin Falls, and none over the Blue mountains and was able to make the return trip in two hours less time than when she went to Twin Falls.

The fifth grade had a spelling match Wednesday morning in place of the usual six weeks' test. The captains were John Janzen and Frances Friesen. Frances Friesen's side won. The last three to be spelled down were Merle Combs, Mary Jeanne Otey and Robert Guderian.

Turney Will Give Molalla Program

MOLALLA, Jan. 15. — A Sunday musicale to be given by the Molalla Music Makers' club January 19, at 2 p. m., at the Methodist church will have as its speaker, a thyn turney, Chemawa, a well known Oregon musician. Piano selections at the program will feature music from all the nations. Mrs. S. A. Knapp is the club adviser.

A mystery-comedy, "Married Before Midnight," has been chosen as the annual junior class play at the high school. It will be given at the school auditorium February 14. Miss Mildred Swafford is directing it. The cast includes Dolores Bitterling, Roy Lay, Esther Watson, Ernest Zahr, Donald Kacker, Ted Haskin, Dick Wallace, Anna Flatness, Allen Cutting, Macy Elkins, LeRoy Bracken, and Marie O'Connor. The stage manager will be Lloyd Pajunen, assisted by Roy Pajunen, Florence Kent and Ruth Grettie will have charge of the costumes.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ellis, recent graduates of Molalla high school, who were married Wednesday in Oregon City by Circuit Judge E. C. Latourette, were given a chivalric Thursday night at their home on the L. L. Ellis farm. A number of other affairs are being planned in their honor. Mrs. Ellis the former Opal Pollard, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Pollard. Mr. Ellis is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Ellis. Both were popular students when they attended high school here.

Frank Baldwin Speaks At Charter Night Fete Held by Eastern Star

AMITY, Jan. 15. — At the regular bi-monthly meeting of Amity chapter, O. E. S., held in the Masonic hall, Monday night, a 6:30 o'clock supper, was served in honor of the charter members of Amity chapter.

Soren Sorenson gave an interesting talk on the chapter of Amity which was instituted July 7, 1906. Six charter members were present, Mrs. George D. Thomas, Mrs. W. S. Fuller, Mrs. Hattie Withie, Mrs. Clara Brownwell, Mrs. Martha Brown of Amity and Mrs. George Kelly of Newberg.

Frank Baldwin of Newberg, past grand master of Oregon, gave an interesting talk.

If a Cold Threatens..

Timely use of this especially designed aid for nose and throat, helps prevent many colds.

30c and 50c

VICKS VA-TRO-NOL

Eagles Canvass For Extra Room

Convention Plans Already On the Make; Baldwin Is Chairman

SILVERTON, Jan. 14. — Plans are all ready being formed for the state convention of Eagles to be held at Silverton June 25, 26 and 27. Members of the newly formed auxiliary unit have been busy during the past week canvassing the resident districts of Silverton for room to house delegates. They report that residents are responding very well. Many letters have already been received from various areas in the state asking about housing accommodations. Earl Adams at Legard and Adams and the Eagles club are headquarters for housing.

R. J. Baldwin has been made general convention chairman; the executive committee is composed of Ernest R. Ekman, chairman; Mayor E. W. Garver, Judge George Cauter, George Steelhammer, Harold Burk, R. A. Fish, W. E. Russell, Errol Ross, Earl Adams and George Manolis.

Chairmen of the various committees have been appointed as follows: Housing, Earl Adams; publicity, Robert Guderian; transportation, Harold R. Burk; songs, C. G. Towe; registration, S. Parry Rose; decorations, Percy Byers; supplies, Harold Leach; program, George Cauter; banquets, Alf O. Nelson; first aid, Dr. A. A. Wrightman; barbers and banquet, Robert Duncan; meeting halls, George Steelhammer; speakers, Mayor E. W. Garver; dancing, Helmer Anderson; wrestling, A. E. Sewell; entertainment, Joe Hassensstab; golf, Norman Eastman; bathing beauty contest, George Manolis; baseball, Ernest Boesch; club activities, Victor Davis; drill teams and drum corps, Ben Hassensstab; concessions, Rolfe Benson.

Card Party Is Planned As Benefit for School Hot Lunch Projects

GATES, Jan. 15. — The Ladies' Improvement club met at the club rooms Thursday. Roll call was answered by telling about Christmas events and New Year resolutions. Committees were appointed to make plans for a card party to be held some evening this month for the benefit of the soup fund.

Lunch was served to about 30 members. The hostesses were Mrs. A. Millard, Mrs. Pete Nystrom, Mrs. Verna Asche and Mrs. Geo. Stafford.

Farmers' Union News

RICKREALL, Jan. 15. — The Greenwood local of the farmers union at their meeting last week had more than 100 present. R. W. Hogg presided over the meeting and Peter Zimmerman was the main speaker on the hydro-electric program. The Salt Creek band furnished the music for the occasion. This band is made up of farmers and is directed by Charles Ross, a farmer.

Edward Pagenkopf Called to Beyond

INDEPENDENCE, Jan. 15. — Edward A. Pagenkopf, who has resided in Polk county since 1898 with exception of two years spent at Bend, died here Monday. He was born in Milwaukee, Wis., November 11, 1864, and came to Benton county in 1888. He was married to Clara Serling at Albany in 1898.

Surviving are the widow and a son, Lylo, of Portland; four sisters, Mrs. Della Morrison of Independence, Mrs. Lena Wiesner of Salem, Mrs. Matilda Godel of Schrieffer, Neb., and Mrs. Ida Forbes of Los Angeles.

Funeral services will be held Saturday, at 2 p. m., at the Kenney funeral home here, with Rev. P. C. Stannard officiating. Interment Belcrest memorial park. Pagenkopf was a member of the Evangelical church.

Revivals Continue

WOODBURN, Jan. 15. — The Woodburn Presbyterian church is holding its second week of special meetings each evening at the church, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. George R. Cromley, pastor, is in charge of the services.

A BLADDER LAX THIS 25c TEST FREE

If it fails. When irritation wakes you up, use this bladder lax to flush out impurities and excess acids. Get bachelors, juniper oil, etc., in little green tablets called Baxets. Works on the bladder similar to castor oil on the bowels. Bladder irritation can cause disturbed sleep, frequent desire, scanty flow, burning or backache. In four days, if not pleased any drug will refund your 25c. Get your regular sleep and feel "full of pep." Perry's Drug Store and Schaefer's Drug Store.

Comedy Is Slated For Club Meeting

Labish Center Players to Appear at Pratum Friday Night

PRATUM, Jan. 15. — The Labish Center community players will present a three-act farce comedy, "The Adventures of Grandpa," by Walter Ben Hare, Friday, January 17, at the Pratum schoolhouse, under auspices of Pratum community club. The cast includes Nathan Kurth, Arlo Fugh, Gus Harris, Valmer Klampe, Emma Wadley, Bernadeen Daugherty, Virginia Bibby, Eva Dow and Evelyn Pearsall. The coaches are Mrs. W. R. Daugherty and Mrs. Harry Boehm.

The proceeds will be divided between the two clubs. Pratum's proceeds will be applied toward purchase of community song books, and Labish Center's toward purchase of folding chairs to replace benches. Preceding the play there will be a business session in charge of Willis Goebel, the local club president. After the play refreshments will be served with Evelyn Herach, Mildred Jones and Frances de Vries in charge.

Clayton Weinger fell from a building while playing and broke his leg.

Holmes Funeral Is Slated Today

INDEPENDENCE, Jan. 15. — Funeral services for Homer Holmes, 55, who died Monday at a Salem hospital, will be held Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock at the Kenney funeral home with Rev. H. G. Hanson officiating and interment in the City View cemetery at Salem.

Mr. Holmes was born in McCoy, August 25, 1880, and spent all his life in this state. His father came to Oregon by ox team in 1848, settling at McCoy, and Holmes Gap on the west side highway was named for the family.

Homer Holmes married Lila Shaw June 15, 1931, at Newport, and she, with a daughter Mariette, survives. They came to Independence about a year ago. A sister, Mrs. Bertha Gieser of Portland, also survives.

COLD? Do These 2 Things Instantly!

A Simple Method that Anyone can Follow

1. Take 2 BAYER Aspirin Tablets. Make sure you get the BAYER Tablets you ask for.

2. Drink a full glass of water. Repeat treatment in 2 hours.

The moment you feel a cold coming on follow the pictured directions above. Your doctor will approve this as perhaps the quickest, easiest way known to fight colds and sore throat.

The Bayer Aspirin taken internally will combat a cold almost instantly; if throat is sore, crush and stir 3 Bayer Aspirin Tablets in a third of a glass of water; gargle twice. Do not rinse mouth.

When you buy, though, see that you get quick-dissolving, real Bayer Aspirin tablets. Watch out for this.

GENUINE BAYER ASPIRIN

FRESH MASTER GRADE "SPLIT TOP"

MASTER SERVICE TWICE DAILY To Your Grocer Assures Fresh Bread

The Toast of the Town

Made by Master Bakers in a Clean Bakery

(Listen to) The Adventures of BILL MACK and JIMMIE Monday Wednesday Friday KSLM 5:30 PM SPONSORED BY MASTER BAKERS

Watch Studebaker! LARGEST DECEMBER SALES SINCE 1924! NEW LOW PRICES...BIG GAS SAVINGS

ALL AMERICA'S going for this big, beautiful Studebaker! Priced close to the lowest! Startling gas and oil economy still further increased by money-saving overdrive! World's strongest steel-reinforced-by-steel body! Uncanny automatic hill holder! See it! Drive it! You'll buy it!

Bonesteel Brothers, Inc. Chemeketa and Liberty Phone 4444

LONG DISTANCE gets an answer right away.

WHAT questions about members of the family are in your mind? Whose birthday, whose anniversary is this? What anxieties would you like to set at rest? What good news are you waiting to hear? Call the folks now! You'll be more than paid in pleasure for the little it costs.

THE PACIFIC TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY 740 State St. Telephone 5101