Mrs. Fargo as Candidate Has Had Wide Experience

THE Salem Woman's club is proud to present and endorse Mrs. William Fordyce Fargo as its candidate for second vice-president of the state Federation, for she is one of the capital's most distinguished clubwomen.

The pioneering necessary in perfecting the recent district plan and in making the Third District (the nine northwest counties) an integral and effective part of the OFWC is the work of Mrs. Fargo, who was its first president.

Mrs. Fargo has been president of the Salem Woman's club, serving also as director for three years; as chairman of fine arts; of American citizenship; is the present parliamentary and chairman of literature; and has been actively interested in the legislative, educational and art committees. For two years she was president of the Etokta Women's club of Salem, being a charter member of that club and its first secretary (which position she held for three years).

She has been regent of Chemetka chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution; leader of the Salem Writers' club; twice president of the Salem Arts league; secretary of the County Federation of Women's clubs; chairman of the Marion county art exhibit at the state fair; and Marion county chairman for The Oregon Clubwoman, a magazine to which she has long been an active contributor. She was also third vice-president of the Northwest Poetry Society.

In state work, Mrs. Fargo has been a member of the fine arts department, OFWC, for the past nine years; first, as chairman of current literature during which time she prepared several radio broadcasts; and more recently, as chairman of the poetry division and poet laureate OFWC, and a member of the national poetry committee.

Announcing a New Knitting Class

Beginning Next Wednesday, 9 to 10 a.m.

A new course in KNITTING which will last seven weeks, will be introduced to interested Salem women next Wednesday morning at nine o'clock. There will be two classes . . . Wednesday and Saturday mornings. These will be called beginners' classes, but many advanced knitters will benefit greatly by taking the course. In fact, efficiency in knitting depends much upon a thorough knowledge of the seven subjects listed below which will be taken up during the period of the courses.

- "CASTING ON AND KNITTING"
- "PURLING, ABBREVIATIONS AND RIBBING"
- "INCREASING AND DECREASING"
- "LACE PATTERN STITCHES"
- "READING DIRECTIONS"
- "HELPFUL HINTS IN FINISHING"
- "REVIEW QUESTIONS, INCREASING AND DECREASING PATTERNS"

Requirements For Class Entry.
All registrations must be in not later than Wednesday morning before the classes begin. Preferably Monday and Tuesday. All registrants required to purchase ball of yarn and knitting needles at time of registration.

(No registrations for entry will be taken after the classes begin work Wednesday)
