Woodburn Artisans Host for District Meeting Thursday Night

Initiation Is Main Feature

Burglar Visits Several of Homes at Woodburn Saturday Night .

WOODBURN, Jan. 20-Woodburn Assembly Artisans have meeting to be held here Thursday night in the Artisan's hall. Assemblies from Silverton, Salem and Portland will be present to witness the initiation of a large class of candidates. This will be the first meeting at which the newly revised ritualistic work will be put on.

After the business meeting a basket social will be held, every woman to bring a basket to be sold to highest bidder. Dancing Jiggs orchestra.

Burglar Active

After several weeks of inactivity the Woodburn burglar or burglars have been busy again. Saturday night several homes were visited but in almost every instance he was frightened away before much could be stolen.

At the Nusom home a man was seen to leave the front porch after having tried the door which was locked, at the A. F. Han-auska home on 5th street he was frightened away by Hanauska, who wake when hearing the prowler. Other homes entered were the Norman Richards residence, and E. T. Sims home on Montgomery street.

Rainbows to Install

Installation of officers for the Rainbow girls will take place Wednesday night, at 8 p. m. in the Masonic temple. Marie Strike is the new worthy arvisor, Mary Jane Shaw, retiring worthy advisor will act as installing officer. All Eastern Star members and Masons are especially invited.

Special meetings being held at the Woodburn Presbyterian church will continue to an including Sunday, January 26. Rev. George R. Cromley is in charge.
