P.E.O. Sisterhood Enjoys Luncheon Gathering At Marion Hotel

FOUNDER'S DAY was fittingly observed by P. E. O. Sisterhood yesterday afternoon at the Marion hotel. Covers at luncheon were placed for 135 at tables beautifully decorated with daffodils and pussy willows. Gold letters on the various tables designated the chapters represented. Chapter G and chapter AB of Salem were hostesses for the affair which drew guests from Eugene, Corvallis, Albany, Lebanon, Woodburn, McMinnville and Oregon City.

Mrs. Mary Ralston of Albany was elected president of the central Willamette district; Mrs. Myrtle Gill of Lebanon, vice-president; and Mrs. Corabelle Rogers of Eugene, secretary-treasurer. The mid-summer meeting will be a picnic with Chapter O of Albany as hostesses. The Salem committee on arrangements was made up of Mrs. A. R. Hunter, Mrs. Gardner Knapp, Mrs. F. D. Voight, Miss Josephine Gray, Mrs. T. S. Roberts and Mrs. L. J. Sparks. Chapter V of Lebanon presented the program which included a pretty candlelight ceremonial.

Trio Will Play February 4 Recital

THE first major musical event of the early spring will be the Salem appearance of the Portland Chamber Music Trio, sponsored by the MacDowell club, February 4th, in the Knight Memorial church. The personnel of the trio includes Miss Mary Schultz, violinist; Mrs. Edna Chittick, pianist; and Bernard Barron, cellist. This is the first time the group has played in Salem. From the interest shown last year in the sonata programs presented by Miss Clara Eness and Miss Schultz, Salem is not lacking in devotees of chamber music. Mrs. Chittick and Mr. Barron are both associated with the music department of Reed college. The cellist plays with the Portland Symphony orchestra and has a large class of students here. Critics Praise The Portland trio was organized several years ago by prominent musicians. This is Miss Schultz' second season with it. The artists have been enthusiastically received on their numerous concert appearances in the city to the north. Following are some of their press notices: "To those who have an honest ache for intimate music done with unquestionable finish, the Portland Chamber Music Trio comes as a comforting reality. It was a performance of the kind we could pray to have some more of."

The Spectator "This fine organization made an excellent impression with its artistic performance. The work of this trio throughout was inspiring and musicianship was strongly in evidence."

Date for Scholarship Tea Set by Women's Club On Saturday

THE Scholarship Loan tea given each year by the Salem Women's club was being calendared for February 4th at the clubhouse, from 3 to 5 o'clock in the afternoon. The date was set yesterday at the club meeting. Mrs. Oscar Cutler is general chairman of the tea and has on her directorate Mrs. W. S. Levens, Mrs. L. H. McKahan, Mrs. D. C. Minto, Mrs. H. O. White, Mrs. D. A. White, Mrs. H. C. Epley, Mrs. Charles Galloway, Mrs. Nell Pearline, Mrs. C. F. Breithaupt, Mrs. Theodore Madsen, Jr., Mrs. George Rossmann and Mrs. Stanley Satchwell. Mrs. Milo Rasmussen displayed several new mountings being used in the picture library over which she has supervision. Talks on Movies Miss Maul Aldrich of Gresham gave a splendid talk on motion pictures, tracing the history of censorship from 1908 to the present time. She declared that federal legislation was necessary, since local censors controlled such a small area that young people from districts which had no restriction associated with their children and the effect was lost. She urged passage of the bill regulating block booking now before the national congress. The club voted to write Oregon congressmen placing their approval on the measure. Tea was served after the business session. The table was attractive with crystal accessories and white narcissi. Mrs. I. M. Schanne and Mrs. George R. K. Moorhead poured. Members of the social committee served. The next club meeting is February 8 with Superintendent Walter Dry of the state blind school as speaker.

Third Annual Charity Ball Scheduled Thursday In the Armory

THURSDAY night promptly at 9 o'clock, citizens of Salem and surrounding communities will join with thousands of others throughout the United States in the third annual President's Birthday ball. The armory is the scene of the affair and will be bedecked with flags and other patriotic insignia. The Oregon Melody Ramblers, a 12-piece Salem orchestra, will play. Governor and Mrs. Charles H. Martin will lead the grand march which opens festivities for the evening. The matter of dress is optional. . . either formal or informal attire will be correct. Everyone is invited to join in the dancing and thus contribute to the fight against infantile paralysis.

May Watch Dancers For those who do not care to dance, a spectator's balcony will be available. With 70 per cent of the net proceeds staying in Salem to assist victims of the dread disease and to provide preventive medicine, there is even more incentive to contribute to the cause. Only nationwide generosity can remedy the plight of the nation's 300,000 infantile paralysis victims, Colonel Henry L. Doherty, chairman of the National Committee of the Birthday Ball for the president, declared yesterday. "Faced with this distressing situation," Colonel Doherty said, "our hope is that the funds raised by the third Birthday Ball for the president, January 20, will exceed the $1,071,000 raised at the 1935 affair.
