Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS Simple frocks look best, wear best, and launder best - three good reasons for making this cunning coat-freek for the two-toeight year old. It's a "self-help" style that helps mother, too, for any child between those ages can do and undo buttons by herself. An added features lies in the accompanying bloomers, elastic-topper, which youngsters can pull on by themselves. Making the frock and bloomers of gaily checked or printed cotion will be just fun for mother, for t he Anne Adams Instructor is such an easy guide to follow. Finish off the sleeves with a tiny cuff, or let them flare, but be sure to choose a color-fast cotton, and bright buttons for trim.

Pattern 2414 is available in sizes 1, 2, 4, 6 and 8. Size 6 takes 2% yards 36-inch fabric. Illustrated step-by-step sewing instruc-tions included.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. Be sure to state size.

Send for our spring pattern book! It's a thrifty guide to clothes with the new 1936 look. Easy-to-make designs for matrons, misses and children, for daytime and evening, work and play. Special patterns for aliming down stout figures. Flattering collars for working magic changes on all-occasion frocks. The latest fabric and accessory news. Price of book fifteen cents. Book and a pattern toter, twenty-live cents. Address orders to The Oregon feamen Pattern Dept., 215 South umercial street, Salem, Ore. Make essary enclosures. Your order will promptly attended to.
