Converting Plant Surplus Increases

Gross Sales in Past Year Total $500,000, Told at Annual Meet

Gross sales of slightly more than $500,000 were made by the Western Paper Converting company here during 1935, stockholders were advised at the annual meeting held this week. Payroll of the plant, apart from salesmen and front office salaries, aggregated $68,888.

Stockholders were advised that the surplus account of the company gained $6395 during the year after allowing for $16,743 fixed charges and the payment of interest on $55,000 in outstanding bonds.

The Western Paper Converting company, which processes a wide variety of paper as well as engages in printing of labels and wrappers, serves a wide territory in the west. It is a heavy user of paper made by the Oregon Pulp & Paper company here.

Assets Worth $118,415 The balance sheet of the company at the close of business December 31, 1935, showed a property account of $342,843 subject to depreciation reserves of $168,195. Quick assets were $118,415 against quick liabilities of $93,810.

The company has 5 per cent bonds totaling $55,000 outstanding and has preferred stock outstanding with a par value of $30,700. The common stock of the company has a book value of $119,400.

Officers of the company elected at the annual meeting this week follow: William S. Walton, president; A. B. Galloway, vice-president; H. B. Tomson, secretary; Thomas A. Roberts, treasurer; directors, C. E. Wagner, Homer H. Smith, W. E. Keyes, C. C. Bryant, Nils Teren.

Southern Oregon Backs Road Move

Southern Oregon is going to support the Pacific Highway association with vigor, C. A. Ayre, executive secretary of the organization, said here yesterday after returning from a fortnight's trip into Jackson and Josephine counties. He said many new members had been secured for the association in Grants Pass and Medford. County courts in the two counties as well as the Douglas county court have agreed to support the association with an outright allocation of funds. Ayre said that by 1937 he felt certain the worth of the association would be so clearly established that county courts along the highway would include an appropriation for the organization in their annual budget.

Ayre will be in Salem quite steadily from now on, he declared. The association maintains its headquarters at the Senator hotel.

Hoover Handed Huge Ovation

Stabilized Currency and Balanced Budget Held Employment Givers

Mr. Hoover at Portland, Ore., Senator Vandenberg of Michigan in New York, and Senator Dickinson of Iowa in Greensboro, N. C., all arraigned the new deal as hostile to American institutions.

None of the speakers took any notice in their addresses of their names being mentioned for the nomination.

Vandenberg Not to Enter Primaries, Says Before leaving Washington, Vandenberg told reporters he was not planning to enter any primaries.

President Roosevelt paid homage to Lincoln with a high noon visit to the marble memorial on the banks of the Potomac. He laid a wreath at the base of the statue of the martyred president.

Fresh from an ovation by New Hampshire republicans, Colonel Knox carried forward his campaign for the G. O. nomination in two Boston appearances. Among the other republican speakers were Senator Steiwer at Providence, R. I., and Senator Hastings at Wilmington, Del.

M'Nary Answers Pension Queries

(Continued from Page 1) can be enacted into legislation." McNary said "For years I have been an advocate of adequate pensions for those who have arrived at the period of old age, and spoke to that effect in the senate when the social security bill was up for consideration."

Several in the audience "boomed" when McNary's letter was read. The convention endorsed the activities of Charles E. Hansen of Portland, state area Townsend manager.

The new advisory board, among the duties of which is expected to be the endorsement of political candidates, was named, including L. F. Logier of Medford, John Bieglor of Marshfield, Charles L. Paine of Eugene, Theodore Nelson of Salem, W. E. Burke of Newberg, L. L. Ferguson of Corvallis and James Titus of Astoria.

Tokyo Leaders Say War Not Impending All indications, however, were that leaders of the Tokyo government, and even some militarists, were anxious to localize the incidents to prevent a more serious situation arising.

Dispatches from Manchoukuo have reported a rapid succession of border conflicts and have stated that the reason has increased with the demand of Japanese and Manchoukuo militarists for military action on a larger scale against Mongolia and Soviet Russia.

Rolph Leaving Marion Hotel

Departs Today to Take Up Duties of Managing Lakeside Resort

E. A. Rolph, manager of the Marion hotel here for the past year, will leave today to take over management of the new resort, Currier's Village, at Lakeside, Ore., where formal opening will be held Saturday.

Carl J. Schaeffer, who has been with the hotel here for a number of years, will take charge of the establishment. He started there as bellboy.

Currier's Village is on 10-mile lake, and has been built by R. G. Currier, Los Angeles man, who has finished a $150,000 home there for himself, in addition to a number of deluxe electrified cottages, recreation hall, a 400-foot pier out on the lake with a 40 by 90 foot cafe at the end of it. A Los Angeles band will provide music.

Alport Planned Rolph is enthusiastic about the new resort. "The coast has never seen anything like the village; it is the most gorgeous ever seen. It will include even an airport," Rolph said. At the same time, he expressed regrets of both himself and Mrs. Rolph at leaving Salem.

Before coming to Salem, was manager of the Hadison hotels in Minnesota for eight years, and before that general manager of Consolidated hotels, a chain of 110 houses, in Los Angeles.

He has been in the hotel business all his life, serving his first managership in Spokane in 1907.

Youth Meeting Is Planned March 4

Religious Leaders Plan County-Wide Affair Here Wednesday

Dr. W. L. Van Nuy of Portland, secretary of the Oregon Council of Churches, was in Salem yesterday afternoon to confer with representatives of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A., local churches and Willamette university, relative to a county-wide youth meeting here March 4.

On that date, the plan is to have E. H. Bonnell of Pennsylvania, secretary of the council of religious education in that state, address the gathering. Bonnell, who will be main speaker for the older girls' conference in Eugene late this month, has been loaned to the international council for field work in connection with the Christian youth movement, known as "Christian Youth Building a New World."

10 Million Belong The Christian youth movement has a potential strength in America of 10 million members in the churches, Boy and Girl Scouts and similar groups over the country. Dr. Van Nuy said.

In addition to serving the Oregon council of church, Van Nuy is field representative of the Presbyterian board of education in the Pacific northwest.

Seven Nipponese Soldiers Killed

(Continued from Page 1) The newspaper Asahi reported that two Soviet airplanes flew over Manchoukuo territory during the battle and bombed the Japanese and Manchoukuo soldiers, but that there were no casualties from this attack.

Salem High Song, Yell Event Today

Teams of 20 selected students from each of the three classes at Salem high school will compete for annual interclass song and yell honors at a special assembly this afternoon. Competition this year is especially keen because a victory for the senior class would be that group's third successive win.

Each team will present an original song and yell, selected from entries submitted by class members. Authors of the songs and yells to be given on tomorrow's program are as follows: Seniors—Song, Rita Mae Hill and Vernice Griffin and yell, Les Carter; Juniors—song, Taul Wat-anabe, and yell, Herbert Morley; Sophomores—song, Elizabeth Steed, and yell, Orville Cooley and Bob King.

Norris Attacks Supreme Judges

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12. - (AP) - Defending the administration farm bill, Senator Norris (R-Nebr.) today attacked the supreme court for its AAA decision and said congress could "remedy the situation if it has the courage to do it."

The 74-year-old independent in a floor speech declared the tribunal's 6-3 ruling "cannot stand if our country is to live and prosper." He asserted congress has power to curb the court's jurisdiction.

Aside from adopting clarifying committee amendments, the senate took no action on the pending AAA-replacement measure. A vote is hoped for Friday when debate will be limited.

Neutrality Bill Nearing Passage

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12. - (AP) - A senate foreign relations committee recommendation for continuing and slightly broadening present restrictions on trade with belligerent nations marched toward enactment tonight over strong protests by advocates of a more drastic neutrality law.

While dissatisfied members of both houses laid plans for a battle to strengthen the measure, party leaders casually scanned the voting lists and predicted congressional approval well ahead of February 29, when temporary provisions of the present law expire.

Senator Robinson (D-Ark.) said the senate would take it up early next week and forecast its enactment in one day.

Chinook Not to Run GRANTS PASS, Ore., Feb. 12. - (AP) - Senator James Chinook, republican, announced today he will not be a candidate for reelection.
