

Shelburn People On Excursion Too

SHELburn, Feb. 13.—The 12-coach special to Idanha with two locomotives, passed through Shelburn at 8 a. m. Sunday morning, bound for the new winter playground which was officially opened that day. A number of local people joined the merry crowd at this place.

Mrs. Herman Holm and son, Elvin, who have been in Silverton for the past eight weeks, where Elvin has received hospital treatment for an injured foot, returned home Friday.

Victor Arendal, formerly of Albany, who died at the home of his father, in Roseburg, formerly held the pulpit in this church.

President Junior Club At Silverton Reported Recuperating From Flu

SILVERTON, Feb. 13.—Miss Ellen Christenson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Christenson, who has been confined to her bed for the past nine days suffering from a severe case of influenza, is on the road to recovery. Tuesday, Mrs. H. R. Rix of Portland, an aunt of Mrs. Christenson, came to Silverton and her niece returned to the city with her where she will recuperate until the end of the week when she will return to her work at Steelhammer's drug store at Silverton.

Cares of State Forgotten

Farmers' Union News

CENTRAL HOWELL, Feb. 13.—The Farmer Union meeting had a packed house Monday night. Eight new members were given the obligations. Arden Reed spoke on "The Relation of Agriculture to Our State College." Frank Bowers gave an entertaining chalk talk. E. Werner and J. S. Kaufman installed W. E. Batchelor as gatekeeper in a comic manner.

G. W. Potts, state president, was an unexpected visitor and gave a report on the national convention in Illinois and on the meeting of the farm leaders with Secretary of Agriculture Wallace. Visitors from Bethel, Mt. Angel and Gervais were present.

TALBOT, Feb. 13.—A pie social sponsored by the Sidney-Talbot Farmers union, was held in the Talbot schoolhouse last night, with a large crowd attending. The program follows:
