The marriage of the young couple took place February 7 in the First Methodist church at Lake Wales, Fla., with the father of the bride, Rev. H. F. Tolle, performing the ceremony.

The altar was banked with palms and calla lilies lighted by yellow candles in cathedral candelabra. Vocal and violin soloists together with the vested choir of the church provided the music before and after the ceremony.

Brother Gives Bride

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Rev. Corning Tolle of Tampa, Fla. Her gown was of white satin cut along princess lines with a train and pointed yoke of French lace which extended over the shoulders and formed a pointed calla lily petal collar at the high V-neck. Her veil was attached with a halo cap. She wore the Kappa Gamma Tau pearls and carried her mother's wedding handkerchief. Her flowers were an arm bouquet of calla lilies.

Miss Martha Tolle, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor, and Miss Roby Pitkin, of Tampa, and Miss Mary Faith Brice, of Lake Garfield, were bridesmaids. They wore dresses of aquamarine chiffon with Grecian lines over matching satin foundations. The maid-of-honor carried an arm bouquet of yellow japonicas and the bridesmaids carried deep rose japonicas.

Little Rosalie Tolle, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Joseph Tolle, of Pakohee, was flower girl and wore an aquamarine organza dress with a ruffled skirt and carried a large garden hat full of rose petals. Corning F. Tolle, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Corning F. Tolle, of Tampa, was ring bearer.

Mr. Allen was Attended by Rev. Joseph Tolle, of Pakohee, as best man, and ushers were Robert Tolle, of St. Louis, Kendall Tolle, of Lakeland, Gilbert Tillman, of Lake Wales, and Albert Shirley, of Lake Wales.
