

Wickert Home Opened to Friends

FIFTY years of wedded life were celebrated by Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wickert last night in their home. Mrs. Wickert was Bertha Schultz before her marriage February 14, 1886, to Mr. Wickert. The couple exchanged vows in Escanaba, Mich., and came to Oregon 15 years ago, settling in their present residence on the River road.

Golden Decorations
A 7:30 o'clock supper was served from a table elaborately decorated with Talmisan roses and daffodils. A yellow and gold motif was used throughout the rooms which were beautiful with spring bouquets.

Following the supper, Mr. Thompson sang "When I Grow Too Old to Dream" and the honored couple re-nacted their wedding ceremony. Mrs. Sally Schultz was bridesmaid; Mrs. J. G. Taylor, flower girl; Lloyd Weeks, best man, and Arthur Halgren, the minister.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Wickert and Mr. and Mrs. Albert E. Wickert were joint hosts for the party complimenting Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Wickert.

Honors "Angel of Tenements"

Her recent selection as "the outstanding citizen of New York" in a contest sponsored by a Brooklyn high school brought recognition from the modern generation to a person who has already been honored as the "angel of the tenements" by her own generation. Miss Lillian D. Wald is internationally known as founder and head resident for many years of Manhattan's famous Henry street settlement. She has been a leader in numerous social welfare projects and carries on her humanitarian work despite the fact that she retired as head of the settlement three years ago in favor of Miss Helen Hall. She was born in Ohio, lived as a girl in Rochester, and pioneered in social work in New York's east side slums, a work which gained her a place among the 11 outstanding women of the United States as named by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
Gaiety and simplicity are an irresistible combination when both meet in one adorably styled frock. And you who would try a hand at sewing (for a made-at-home frock's both fun and economical) will discover a new and easy way to achievement by letting your illustrated Anne Adams instructor guide you in the simple steps of cutting, sewing and finishing this frock. See how, in one sweeping operation of your trusty shears, your prettily shaped yoke is cut in one with the slim center panel, while sleeves and bodice are sectioned together? Choose a color-fast printed percale or broadcloth, if you'd realize several seasons' wear and tubbings from this frock. Dimity and swiss are perfect, too.

Pattern 2669 is available in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 42. Size 16 takes 3 3/4 yards 36 inch fabric.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coin or stamps (coins preferred) for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly name, address and style number. Be sure to state size.
Be sure to order Our Spring Pattern Book for smart new clothes that'll fit you and your needs to a "T"! Gay, practical frocks to cheer you at work. Lovely party frocks and sports frocks to flatter you at play. Collars, blouses, skirts for multiplying costumes. Oh! pleasing styles. Patterns for tote bags and accessory items. Price of book fifteen cents. Book and a pattern together, twenty-five cents.
