

Officers For Society Named

Four Sisters Have Charge of M. E. Women's Gathering

WOODBURN, Feb. 20. — The Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church met at the church Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. George Cole and Miss Rowena Cole as hostesses. Mrs. Olive Smith presided. Devotions were in charge of Mrs. H. F. Butterfield, and Rev. George R. Cronley gave a short talk. Mrs. O. M. Larson, chairman of the nominating committee, reported and these officers were elected:

President, Mrs. D. J. Gillanders; vice-president, Mrs. Larson; corresponding secretary, Mrs. L. S. Mochel; treasurer, Mrs. E. H. Allen; recording secretary, Mrs. Butterfield. Appointive officers will be named later by the president. A program arranged by Mrs. Carl Huber included a vocal duet by Mrs. Larson and Mrs. Huber with Mrs. Huber playing the accompaniment; piano solos by Patty Smith, Viola Mills and Millicent Evenden; Book Review of Mrs. Jane Mack; and an interesting playlet entitled "Ways and Means" by Betty Anderson, Laura Livensay and Patty Smith, Millicent Evenden, Patty Smith, Viola Mills and Emma May Neussar.

Watkins to Speak
The Woodburn Townsend club will meet Friday at the high school auditorium at 7:30 p. m. Ex-Congressman Elton Watkins of Portland will be the principal speaker. Motion pictures will be shown through the courtesy of Superintendent B. W. Dunn of the high school.

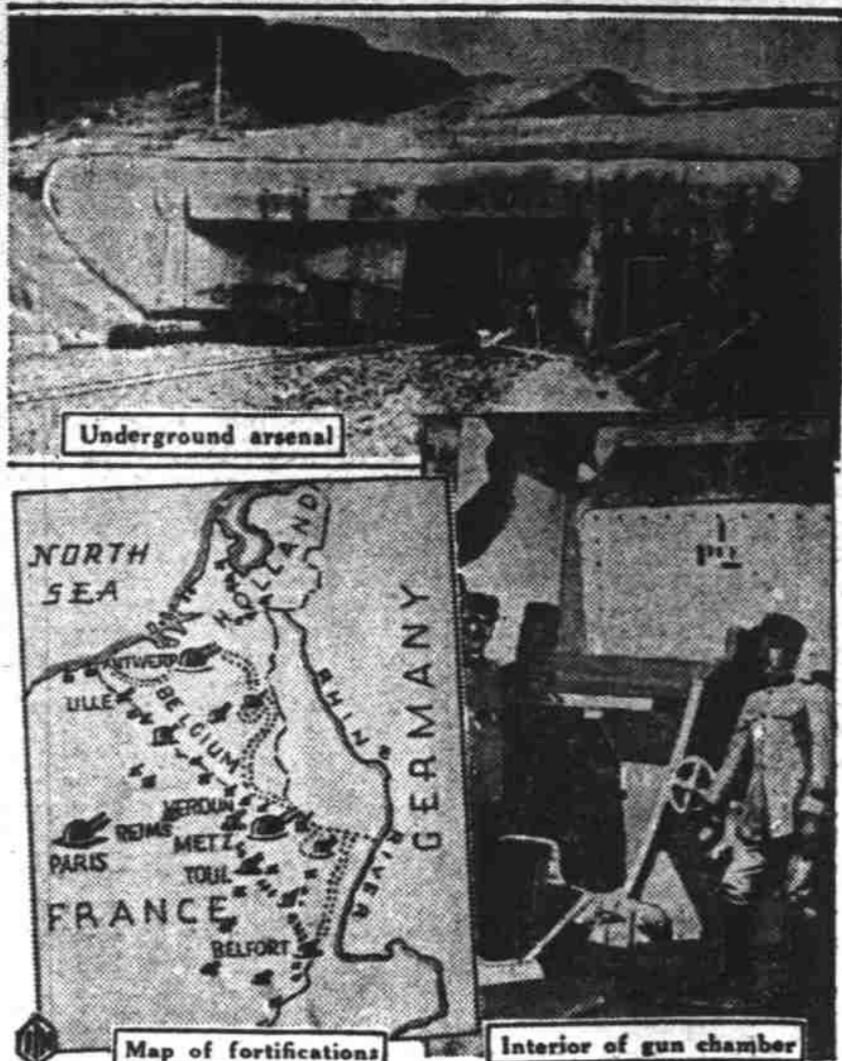

Sisters Are Hostesses
The monthly social meeting of the Federated Women of the Methodist church was held at the church Tuesday afternoon with the four daughters of the late Amos Beach, Mrs. Florence Goulet, Mrs. Jeanette Zimmerle, Mrs. Mary Whitman and Mrs. Laura Livensay as hostesses.

A scripture reading by Mrs. Bertha Baldwin and prayer led by Mrs. Carrie Young, preceded the program in charge of Mrs. Paul Burkert, president of the Aid society. This included a recitation by Etta May Losey, Billy Roy Bristow and Helen Striuse, a piano solo by Millicent Evenden and a vocal solo by Mrs. Herman Stone. A business session was held with Mrs. Edna Lyle presiding. Plans were made for a tour of the Ringo mortuary Tuesday afternoon. A new feature being sponsored is "Mysterious Mother" and at the end of three months the group will have a mother and daughter banquet on the identity of the mysterious mother will be made known to the girl she has befriended.

Miss Barbara Reed of the high school faculty gave an interesting talk on motion picture appreciation. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Paul Berkert on Elliott Prairie March 17, and the April meeting will be held at the Old People's home in Salem.

Give Stroms Farewell
SILVER FALLS, Feb. 20. — Nearly 50 friends and neighbors of the Cliff Storm family were invited Monday night to their home at a farewell party with Mrs. Ben Bleakney and Miss Betty Storm as hostesses. The Stroms are leaving soon for the Eola district where they will operate a service station.

French Strengthen Frontier

French apprehension over the rearmament of Germany has resulted in elaborate extension of the famous "Maginot line" of fortifications on the eastern border while diplomats have been attempting to enlist the might of Russia and Britain in alliance against possible future invasion by the Nazi forces. New underground arsenals, camouflaged gun casemates and subterranean fortifications have been added to the bristling line of military works which were started under direction of the late Andre Maginot whose name was given "the great wall of France". More than $150,000,000 has been spent on the system of fortifications since they were started five years ago.

Play to Initiate New School Stage

ORCHARD HEIGHTS, Feb. 20. — A new stage door, an archway and a new kalsomine job are among improvements added to the stage of the Popcorn school in preparation for the local talent play, "Aunt Samantha Rules the Roost," which will be given Friday and Saturday nights. Proceeds will swell the treasury of the community club.

Members of the cast are O. E. Dorn, L. E. Reed, Mrs. C. Fisher, Mrs. Roy McDowell, Mrs. Wilfred Wilson, J. W. Simmons, Wilfred Wilson, Mrs. Harold Vogt, Laurence Simmons, Wilson Clarke and Harold Vogt. Pupils on the honor roll of the Popcorn school for the past six weeks are Margaret Whitney, Helen Withers, Ruth Wilson, Fern Wilson, Norma Jean Kennedy, Lavona Kilgore, Clinton Kilgore, Clara Sexton, Junior Sexton, Lester Farris, Lyle Farris, Armon McDowell, Donald Wilson, Clinton Kilgore and Ross McDowell.

Sam Brown, McDougalls Get Wood Contract For High School at Gervais

GERVAIS, Feb. 20. — At the high school board's postponed meeting Saturday night, the board opened bids for 40 cords of wood and contracts were given to Sam H. Brown and McDougall brothers. Four additional hand fire extinguishers were ordered. The chairman of the board was instructed to order material to prepare room under the stage for

Club Will Order Community Table

Walter J. Rosenan Visits Home of Brother at Cloverdale

CLOVERDALE, Feb. 20. — The Four Leaf Clover club met at the home of Mrs. Clarence Rosenan Wednesday. In spite of the cold and snow a great many members were present. At noon a club dinner was served. The business meeting was in charge of an acting president, Mrs. Ines Dumbek. The 1935 treasurer, Dorothy Pearson, presented her financial report and the club accepted it. The club decided to purchase lumber to make a table to be used at the school house for community affairs. Also they intend to buy 20 more plates, spoons and cups. Next month the club has been invited to meet with Mrs. Arthur Bestvater.

Nebraska on Visit
Walter J. Rosenan, a wheat farmer of Nebraska and Julesburg, Colo., is spending the winter here with his brother, Clarence Rosenan. He will stay here until spring.

The 4-H health club met Monday. John Schifferer led the singing and Russell Fisher presided. Lowell Hickey won the prize for the best club yell submitted.

Officers Named By School Club

CLEAR LAKE, Feb. 20. — The Clear Lake school club recently elected these officers for the last half of the year: President, Iris Kuhn; vice-president, Robert Winkenwerder; secretary, Jack Robertson; sergeant, Delbert Garner.

The kitball team has recently joined the Marion county kitball league. Junior Whelan is captain and Jim Nolan, manager. The harmonica band has 16 members and is making fine progress this season.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Herrold and son, Donnell, drove to Tacoma Saturday to visit Herrold's cousin. They returned Sunday night.

Friends of Mrs. Ross Hammack will be glad to learn that she is much improved in health since returning from the hospital and is doing her own housework again.

Open House Is Held

STAYTON, Feb. 20. — The first high school "open house" brought out a large attendance of young folks, who were chaperoned by the faculty. Dancing and games were enjoyed. The party was held at the Forrester hall.

Increase Egg Production: Use Albers Feeds With Carrotone

Tested Helps No. 113
One way to avoid cannibalism is to be sure that you don't keep pullets and cockerels together too long. As soon as you can tell one from the other, separate them.

Don't confuse Carrotone with Carrotene — Carrotone contains juice of carrots as well as many other vitamin concentrates.
